Hours More News And Lowest Price On Lincoln Journal The Daily LINCOLN NEBRASKA STATE JOURNAL can give two to ten hours later news out on rural routes and in many towns because it is the only large daily between Omaha and Denver printing at night, in fact after 5 P. M. The Journal prints editions right up until train time day and night. The Morning Journal comes in time for mail delivery the same day. Dailies printed on the Iowa line edit for Iowa readers.

The Lincoln Journal sells for one dollar a year less than any other big state morning daily and is priced as low as day late afternoon papers. With the Lincoln Journal you practically get the Sunday free, for other morning papers charge as much for daily only as The Journal does including Sunday. Don't give money to strange solicitors; order direct or through our office. By mail in Nebraska and North Kansas, three months $1.25 daily, $1.50 with Sunday; a year $4.00 daily, $5.00 with Sunday. ME, BUY A NEW CAR? NIOBRARA RIVER DAM COMPANY BANKRUPT The Northern Nebraska Power Company, owners of the Spencer Dam, filed a petition in bankruptcy in federal court on Wednesday of last week and asked that a receiver be appointed immediately to take charge of the property and assets of the corporation, which includes the power dam on the Niobrara river south of Spencer. The liabilities of the company were listed as $151,892.51. The decision to surrender its property for the benefit of creditors and file bankruptcy proceedings was made at a meeting of the board of directors on Monday of last, according to the petition. In the bankruptcy petition filed the directors pointed out that operations of the plant had ceased, due to ice jam and flood water damage, and that repairs would cost $100,000. For several years the Interstate Power company has been receiving juice from the power plant at the dam, paying a certain rate per kilowatt hour for the juice used. The local company has received no juice from that plant for over a month, during which time they have been receiving juice from Sioux City, Iowa, and Sioux Falls, S. D. When things were going right at the dam they received juice from all three plants, when needed. Judge Donohoe appointed as receiver of the company J. B. He left this morning for his home in Omaha. Gaius Cadwell left last Sunday for his future home at Huron, S. D.

an attempt to save part of their holdings, remains to be seen. It will take a lot of money to get the dam back into shape to produce electricity. Of course if the plant should be sold at a fraction of the amount of the bonds against it, the new owners would undoubtedly put in money enough to clean it up and make it produce revenue.

Mrs. Cadwell and children will remain here until after school is over for the year.

Mrs. Homer Mullen will entertain the Delta Deck Club this evening with a dinner at the Grand Cafe and later cards at the home of her mother, Mrs. Wilcox.

Jack Heitman made a business trip to Valentine last Tuesday. Jack says they had twenty inches of snow at Valentine during the past five days and that the people of that section are feeling pretty good as a result of the moisture.

R. R. Morrison and brother, James, left this morning for Omaha, being called there by the serious illness of their brother, Patrick, who is seriously ill of pneumonia. Pat Morrison has been a resident of Omaha for over forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Montgomery leave tomorrow for Creighton where they will make their future home. Paul was elected county surveyor of Knox county at the last election and has to live there in order to take care of the duties of his office.

Students at the Wayne State Teachers College have taken an All College poll and decided that of the three hundred some coeds on the campus the one with the "best line" is Miss Mary Lou Hammond of O'Neill. Miss Hammond is a freshman at Wayne.

Mrs. R. M. Sauers, Mrs. Gaius Cadwell, Mrs. Pete Tolsen, Mrs. Max Golden, Mrs. Pete Morgan and Mrs. F. J. Kubitschek, were among those who left O'Neill by train Tuesday night for Omaha, where they will attend the National Flower show, being held there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Butts, of Nebraska City, and Mrs. R. E. Benson, of Omaha, came up last Friday evening for a visit at the home of Mr and Mrs D. H. Cronin. Mr. Butts and Mrs. Benson returned Sunday afternoon while Mrs. Butts remained for a month's visit at the Cronin home.

A. R. Vorce, who has conducted a meat market in the Harty building on Fourth street for the past year and a half, closed his market last Saturday and the end of this week, in company with Mrs. Vorce and his family, including his son, Charles Vorce and his wife, will leave for Alexandria, Louisiana, where they will visit for a time at the home of Mrs. Vorce's mother, a former resident of Knox county, who has been living in the south for several years. Mr. Vorce says that he does not intend to remain in the south as he does not like that section of the country. After a visit there he expects to go to Washington or Oregon to locate. They will make the trip by auto and he says they can make the drive down there in four days.
