The monotonous roar of an occasional tractor, the all-day-long tramp backward and forward across the field of four abreast, drawing a disc or seeder and other signs of activity indicate that the husbandman was not knocked out—only down—last season. From the grave of repeated failures, hope springs afresh in the bosom of the plowman and he tears into it again for another season. Holt county farmers are shining examples of abiding optimism.

Whether it was financial affluence or financial worry that was disturbing the attention of The Frontier operator when working on the last installment of "Breezes" the result was the same. An item mentioning the discussion of musical affairs was made to read "financial affairs." Most of us out here have no financial affairs or resources, but if you get an inspiration out of the old-time shake-downs come out and listen to John Baker when he is not occupied with the buzz saw.

(Note: Maybe the operator was wondering where he could get the price of a pair of glasses.—Op.)

The lakes which evaporated to nothing during the scorching months last summer are full of water this spring and "louey" with ducks. They say you have to have $3 for a shooting license these days of democratic prosperity. Fine arrangement for the professional sportsmen who have money to burn, but the poor bloke out thru the country who gets hold of $3 more than likely has to buy a sack of flour. There is talk of a general combining of forces and posting notices on all the farms and ranches warning hunters to keep out. R.S.

District Court Filings

John Holland Kinkaid has brought suit in the district court against Antonia Lorenz, et al., to foreclose a mortgage for $2,315.00 given on June 5, 1923, upon the west half southeast quarter and east half of the southwest quarter and east half of the east half of section 29, township 25, north, range 10 west. In his petition he alleges that there was paid on the note on June 7, 1927, the sum of $1,315.00 and that the interest has been paid up to June 5, 1934. They allege that there is now due the sum of $1,000 and interest from June 5, 1934. They ask the court to determine the amount due and that if same is not paid within a reasonable time it be levied on the property.

E. H. Luikhart, as receiver of the Citizens bank of Stuart, has brought suit in the district court against Alberta Hoffman, et al. In his petition he alleges that on April 1, 1935, he secured a judgment against the defendants in the district court of Rock county for $2,291.67 and costs of suit, which judgment was certified to this county. On April 16, 1935, an execution was issued and was returned unsatisfied for want of goods, chattel or real property on which to levy. They allege that at the time the note, upon which judgment was secured, was given that the defendant was and is now the owner of the northeast quarter of section 35, township 33, north, range 16, that on or about March 9, 1935, for the purpose of delaying and preventing plaintiff from collection of said judgment the defendant executed and Wilbert A. Hoffman, Jr., a son, that said deed was delivered without consideration. They ask that the deed be set aside and that Alberta Hoffman be declared the owner of the property and to levy and sale for the recovery of the judgment against her.

P. C. Donohoe has brought suit against the Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank, of Lincoln, Nebr. He alleges that a few months ago he entered into a contract with the company for the sale of some real estate owned by them in Keya Paha county and for which he was to receive the sum of $250 as commission for the sale of the land. He alleges that he procured a buyer for the land, who did buy it, but the company failed to live up to their part of the contract and pay him his commission. He brings action for that amount with costs of suit.

Mazie Fletcher has brought suit against Fletcher Payne for absolute divorce. She alleges that on August 15, 1932, they were united in marriage at Stuart, Nebr., and that ever since that time she has conducted herself as a chaste and obedient wife. She alleges that he has been guilty of extreme cruelty, which commenced a few months after their marriage and continued until their separation on Dec. 24, 1933, when defendant abandoned her. One child was born to them, Elverson Freddie Payne, now one and a half years old. She asks that she be awarded the custody of the child and that the defendant be compelled to pay her alimony for its support.
