NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION TO VOTE ON ISSUANCE OF BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the qualified voters of School District Number Thirty of Holt county, Nebraska, that by vote of two-thirds of the District Board of said School District, an election is hereby called and shall be held at the I. O. O. F. Hall, Downstairs, in Inman, in said School District Number Thirty, in the County of Holt, in the State of Nebraska, on the 4th day of May, A. D., 1935, between the hours of Eight o'clock A. M. and Six o'clock P. M., at which election there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said School District the following proposition:

"Shall the District Board of Trustees of School District Number Thirty, in the County of Holt, in the State of Nebraska, issue the bonds of said School District in the amount of Eighteen Thousand Dollars ($18,000.00), bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed four per cent per annum, interest payable annually, Bonds to be retired in not to exceed twenty years, said Bonds to be dated July first, 1935, and

"Shall the District Board of Trustees of said School District cause to be levied annually against the taxable property of said School District a tax sufficient for the payment of the interest and principal of said Bonds, as the same become due, the proceeds of said Bonds, together with a grant from the United States Government of thirty per cent of the total amount expended for material and labor, estimated to be about $9,000.00, to be used for the purpose of constructing and furnishing a school house in and for said School District.

"The ballots to be voted upon and cast at said election, shall have printed the foregoing proposition, with the words:

FOR said bond issue and said annual tax levy

AGAINST said bond issue and said annual tax levy

"Voters who desire to vote in favor of said proposition will indicate the same by marking an X in the square following the words 'FOR said bond issue and said annual tax levy.' Voters who desire to vote against said proposition will indicate same by marking an X in the square following the words 'AGAINST said bond issue and said annual tax levy.'"

Done by order of the District Board this 4th day of April, A. D., 1935.

hereby notified that the time limited for presenting claims against said estate is August 9, 1935, and for the payment of debts is April 18, 1935, and that on May 9, 1935, and on August 10, 1935, at 10 o'clock A. M., each day, I will be at the County Court Room in said county to receive, examine, hear, allow, or adjust all claims and objections duly filed.

C. J. MALONE,
 County Judge.
 48-3 J. D. Cronin, Attorney.

John Wallinger and Miss Dora Weichman, both of Stuart, were granted a marriage license in county court last Friday.

Ralph Oppen, who is attending the State University, came up last Wednesday evening to spend the Easter vacation with the home folks.

Robert Biglin, who is attending Creighton University, came up Wednesday night to spend the Easter vacation with the home folks.

Achievement Day for the project clubs of Holt county will be held Thursday, April 25, at the K. C. hall at 1:30 p. m. Everybody is invited.

Henry Beckman went over to Bloomfield last Saturday and spent a couple of days visiting relatives and looking after business matters, returning home Tuesday.

Mary Joan Finley and Mary Jean Hammond, who are students at Creighton, came up from Omaha Wednesday night to spend the Easter vacation with home folks.

Miss Evelyn Mains came up from Omaha last Friday evening, driving up a new Ford for the Mellor Motor company. She will visit the home of folks here for a few weeks.

Donald Hardesty and Miss Laura Steinbeck, both of Stuart, were granted a marriage license in county court last Tuesday and were later married by County Judge C. J. Malone.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plum, of Sheridan, Wyoming, and Mrs. Vance Begthol, of Hastings, returned last Friday from a weeks visit with relatives and friends in Chicago.

The choir of the Methodist church of Page, will give their Easter cantata, "From Death Unto Life," with 25 voices, at the Methodist church in this city next Sunday evening, April 21, at 8 p. m.

Judge Dickson and Reporter McElhane went up to Ainsworth last Monday morning to hold the regular spring term of district court. They completed their work Wednesday and returned home that evening.

Dr. Jenneat, a poultry disease specialist will hold a poultry clinic at the O'Neill Hatchery Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. If you have any sick birds bring in a live specimen and have it diagnosed free of charge.

Tom Joyce went down to Omaha last Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of his cousin, Miles Welsh, one of the Omaha pioneers who passed away in his home in that city last Sunday morning. Tom returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. John Kersenbrock and children left Wednesday for Osmond and Norfolk where they will visit relatives and friends until Easter Sunday. Mr. Kersenbrock will go down to Osmond Sunday morning and return with them that evening.

The candidates for Holt county's American Legion baseball team will meet in this city for practice next Sunday, April 21. There will be a matched game of ball played between the boys from the east and the boys from the west end of the county. The game will start at 1:30 p. m.

W. J. Hammond drove down to Lincoln last Wednesday morning, returning that evening accompanied by William, Jr., who is attending Nebraska University, and will spend the Easter vacation with the home folks. W. J. makes the drive to Lincoln in four hours, which is some traveling.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Montgomery were over from Creighton last Sunday, visiting relatives and looking after business matters. While in the city they ordered The Frontier sent to their address for the ensuing year, so that they could keep posted upon the matters of interest in O'Neill and Holt county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sisco, of Pawnee City, Nebr., arrived in the city last Tuesday for a few days visit at the home of Mrs. Sisco's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carter and with her brother, Dr. L. A. Carter. They left for home this morning and were accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Carter who will visit there for a few weeks.

Dr. J. L. Sherbahn, a chiropractor from Benkelman, Nebr., was in the city last Monday looking over the city with a view to locating here. After viewing the city and its possibilities he decided to make this city his future home, and he rented the building recently occupied by the Market Basket for an office and expects to move here and open his office about June 1.

Mrs. W. J. Froelich, Mrs. H. J. Birmingham, Mrs. Edward Campbell and Miss Betty Biglin drove down to Sioux City Wednesday afternoon, where they are to meet W. J. Froelich today and return home. Bill is coming out from Chicago to spend Easter with his family and other relatives here.

Title to the property recently selected for the new federal building in this city has been approved and as soon as title passes from the present owners to the government, which will probably be within the next two weeks, bids will probably be asked for construction of the building. It begins to look now as if work on the building would start within a couple of months.

S. J. Weekes returned Wednesday evening from a short business trip to Omaha. While in the latter city he met John A. Hazelet, formerly an O'Neill resident, but who for the past thirty or more years has been residing in Alaska. Mr. Weekes says that Mr. Hazelet was on his way east to try his interest capital in the development of a gold mine that he is heavily interested in, located in northern Alaska.

Patrick Clemens, who lives about three miles southeast of this city, was taken to a hospital in Orchard last Wednesday night for medical treatment. Mr. Clemens is 78 years of age and has not been feeling well the past few weeks and it was thought best to take him to the hospital at Orchard which is conducted by his daughter, Mary Clemens. His many friends in this section hope that he will soon recover.
