PATTERN 2175

2175

Be a queen in cotton in this beautifully designed dress. The round yoke and panel front are inevitably becoming, and the ruffle or puff sleeves may be omitted if they're not your type. Or, you may have the sleeves in flaring little wings, simply by omitting the elastic which makes them puff. (See detail sketches). In any case, it's an adorable frock. The most delightful color combinations are being shown in cottons now—choose unusual, delicate shades or boldly marked patterns, in percale, gingham, broadcloth or lawn—they launder and wear well.

Pattern 2175 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 3 3/4 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

SEND FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred), for this pattern. Write plainly name, address, and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York.

DANNY HAS THE SHAKES

Of all the chills of which you hear, there's no chill like the chill of fear.

DANNY MEADOW MOUSE sighed with thankfulness and relief as he reached the other side of the Laughing Brook by way of the old log which had fallen across it, thus making a bridge. To be sure he was a long, long way from his snug little home, where Nanny Meadow Mouse was anxiously waiting for him, but at least he was on the right side of the Smiling Pool and the Laughing Brook.

Crept to the Entrance and Peeped Out.

He no longer needed to think of the Big Pickerel or of Snapper the Turtle. He had left Billy Mink and Reddy Fox way back by the Smiling Pool, so he felt quite safe from them.

Of course when he should reach

HELPFUL HOME HINTS

IF THE cork is too large for the bottle in which you wish to use it, roll it under a board to elongate it, after soaking it a few minutes in hot water.

A handy device for holding the safety razor blade may now be found in the department stores.

A tablespoon of vinegar added to tough meat or chicken will soften the fiber and make it less tough. Use it in the water when cooking.

To make mint extract fill a bottle with the fresh mint and pack it in well; cover with alcohol and let stand for two weeks, then drain off and the extract is ready for flavoring and mint drinks. Use pure alcohol and it will be perfectly all right.

When steel ornaments, buckles and buttons of cut steel become tarnished rub them with unslaked lime and leave them in it for a short time, when they will be beautifully cleaned.

Suede shoes will be improved by rubbing them with fine emery paper. Corn meal well moistened with gasoline will clean velvet hats, collars, and felt hats so that they will look fresh and new. Renew the corn meal after cleaning and go over the article to be sure it has been well done.

Save the bacon fat, pour water over it and allow it to settle. The fat will come to the top, the burnt particles sink into the water. Skim off the fat and use it for all sorts of cooking. Nice for french potatoes, hash browned, or it may take the place of butter in gingerbreads and spice cakes.

QUESTION BOX
by ED WYNN, The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I am a poor widow and have a hard time making both ends meet. I now find out that I could make some extra money by taking in washing. I don't know any people who send out their wash, so please tell me the best way to get in touch with those kind of people, will you?

 Yours truly,
 I. VORESOPE.

Answer: Just put an ad in the newspapers to read as follows: "A POOR WIDOW NEEDS WASHING." And then give your address.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I have an uncle who swears from morning till night. I never heard such language as he uses. Where in the world do you think he learned to swear like that?
 Sincerely,
 HELEN DAMM.

Answer: My dear Miss Damm. If your uncle does what you claim for him I assure you he could not have learned it any place, it must have been a gift.

Dear Mr. Wynn:
 I met a boy at a dance last night and I like him very much. During our conversation, though, it seemed to me as if he was bragging a bit. He said that his brother lived in England and that he sits before the king and queen every day and keeps his hat on. Do you believe that?
 Sincerely,
 ROC A BIBABY.

Answer: Sure I do. He is their chauffeur.

SAM

By ANNE CAMPBELL

SAM is an officer walking our beat. No one could live on a quieter street. If there were a riot, our Sammy would quiet the riot, and never disturb our repose. Each child in our street when he goes to sleep, knows He's under a special policeman's good care! Sammy is there!

And many a child on our street when he prays Says: "Please God, bless Sam, 'cause he has to sleep days!" While children are sleeping, his watch he is keeping, And sleeping is better because we have Sam. The children sleep on if they hear a door slam. He takes all the grief that they might have to bear! Sammy is there!

Sometimes the dear children drift off into dreams, And thinking of God, and of Sammy, it seems That some one who's thinking of others, unwinking, And thinking not once of himself, is so fine He must have a lot in his heart that's divine. So the children sleep tight, and the whole night is fair! Sammy is there!

EX-FOOTBALL PLAYER FINDS HOUSEWORK A HARD JOB

"NO TIME to do that? Why, you have all the time in the world. Nothing to do all day long, except a little thing like keeping house!"

How many women have been told that by their husbands! And how many have answered, "Just try it for a day and see if it's nothing!" without much apparent effect.

Well, one man has tried it. Being unemployed, he thought he would do his wife's little job of housework while resting. And now he wonders, and has voiced his wonder, how his wife ever stood it.

The man is Reuban Greene of Wauwatosa, Wis. Up to not so long ago, or all the time he was employed at his regular work, he was one of those husbands who thought his wife had nothing to do. Housework, in his opinion, was just another kind of resting, another name for play or vacation. But he has changed his mind. This is what he wrote to a Chicago newspaper:

"The depression has done me a lot of good. Believe me, I always thought the women had a clench pushing a broom around and flipping a rag over the furniture. I was right guard on my college team in the days when a guy had to weigh 225 pounds to be considered a candidate, and I find it no cinch.

"How my little wife ever got away with that job! She must have a constitution like a turtle. Well, anyway, the depression has taught me to value and appreciate my wife. I've lost 35 pounds and know how to shake a wicked mop." Experience teaches. Enough said!
