SOUTHWEST BREEZES

All things have an ending-even the household churning.

Archie Reed is moving onto the E. J. Mack ranch lately occupied by Elliott Carpenter and family.

Darold Carpenter, Ned and Junior Saunders were at Atkinson Saturday night for some car repairs.

School in district No. 243, Miss Doolittle teacher, closed last week -the occasion being observed with a picnic on Saturday for pupils and parents.

Jesse James moved a band of sheep Monday from the ranch to pastures in Rock county.

Raymond Bly and family were at O'Neill one day last week. Raymond was seeking legal advice looking to the pay for or recovery of a calf taken from his pasture last fall when some cattle there on herd were removed.

Mrs. Bertha Johnson of Stuart, visited at her ranch, the Young home, on Monday.
