SOUTHWEST BREEZES

E. E. Young and Tom Baker have each added a new mower to this season's haying equipment.

Mrs. Greenwood was up from Albin last Thursday for her daughter, Miss Naomi, who has been a guest at the Riley home.

There are 800,000 words in the English language—almost an adequate supply for the wagging tongues.

A light shower early Sunday morning visited a limited area of the southwest, refreshing the country and washing out a murky atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saunders were out from O'Neill Sunday visiting at the home of Glenn's parents.

John Baker visited Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hazel Baker near Long lake.

Small grain in some spots is reported to be quite badly affected with rust.

Virgil Bailey accompanied the Saunders boys to Atkinson Saturday evening.

Ak-Sar-Ben boss racing is said to have brought in not far from sixty thousand revenue for the state. Nobody is interested in that but a few officials who gloat over the amount of revenue that can be sapped from the public.

Haying is well underway throughout the great grass belt of the southwest. Grass is of a good quality and plenty of it.

The drone of an airplane was a new note on the afternoon air Friday as it passed over headed southeast, winging its way at a great height. Another was heard again Saturday.

Glenn White was over from Wyoming precinct Saturday and Monday with harvesting equipment and cut grain on the Riley ranch and for Mr. Young, experiencing the usual breakdowns and delays.

MEEK AND VICINITY

Jackie Langan, small son of Mr. and Mrs. William Langan, had the misfortune to break his arm, while staying with his grandparents in Boyd county.

Roxie and Betty Puckett spent the week end with their grandparents at Central City.

Donald Johring, who had his tonsils and adenoids removed last week, is feeling fine.

George Hansen and son, Charles, of Ponoma, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. William Hubby motored to Sioux Falls, S. D., on Saturday for a visit with the Dave Hansen family.

Reading of the death of James McAllister, in the last issue of The Frontier, calls to the mind of the writer school days, as he was my first teacher. Taught in district 27. Several others in our community also attended school in this district and in several other districts in this locality where he taught. He was a very successful teacher back in those days and his passing on brings many memories of his teaching.

Mrs. Frank Searles had the misfortune to step on a rusty nail and run it into her foot. Blood poisoning set in, but by the doctors help it was checked and she is now much better.

Miss Tena Kaczor, who has been staying at the Medlin home in O'Neill for several months, came out to her brother, Will's, the first of the week and she expects to remain for some time.

Roy Lowrie, of Riverside, cranked his car and it was in reverse. It ran backward and struck a building, slightly injuring Mrs. Lowrie who was in the car.

Dinner guests at the Howard Rouse home on Sunday were: A. L. Rouse and daughter, Maude, of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Young and children of near O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Borg and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Puckett and daughters, Roxie and Bettie, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hubby were guests at the Frank Searles home on Sunday.

Quite a bit of grain in this locality still to cut. Threshing began on the John Glaze place last week.

Mrs. Roy Kurtz was called to Montana last week by the serious illness of her son. A bursted appendix was the cause of the trouble. The last report received by relatives was that he was slightly better.

This community was socked to learn of the sudden death, on Monday afternoon, of Bert Miller. Bert has not had very good health for several years, but his passing was unexpected, as he had gone to one of the neighbors taking his small son with him. He had lived in this locality nearly all his life and will be sadly missed not only by his relatives but by his friends and (Continued on page 8, column 3.)
