Evolving Bureaucracy
 The administration has spent billions of dollars to increase employment by reviving industry, but something like ten millions remain jobless. The bureaucracy at Washington, however, reports enlarging payrolls and increasing employment from month to month.
 In May the federal payroll increased by $1,500,000 over April. Some 2,000 were added in Washington alone, for a total of 102,539.
 Candidate Roosevelt accused his predecessor of piling "bureau on bureau, commission on commission." It has not occurred to President Roosevelt, apparently, that the sitting army, maintained by the taxpayers, might need reducing.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS
 By Frank P. Litschert
 One of the most interesting stories out of Europe in a long time and one that is of especial concern to the United States, comes to us from the Soviet capitol at Moscow. The Third International of the Communist parties has been holding a meeting there, one attended by delegates from all over the world. The Third International is the right arm of Soviet Russian government, the only communist government in the universe. It is the right arm because it has carried on the propaganda which seeks to stir up trouble everywhere

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions
 By ANN PAGE
GRAPES are the news of the food market — including Thompson Seedless and red Malagas. Put them in the fruit bowl, in fruit salads, fruit cups or desserts along with nectarines, plums, peaches and Bartlett pears.
 Onions and cabbage are once again cheap as are potatoes, carrots and beets. Sweet corn is coming to market in excellent condition and is low in price.
 All meats but lamb are higher, pork much higher and beef and veal somewhat more expensive. Fine quality eggs are also much higher. Fish is attractive in price and variety. Butter and cheese are both reasonable and they are valuable foods, rich in health-giving elements, which should be used freely.
 Three dinner menus at different budget levels follow.
Low Cost Dinner
 Cold Cuts Potato Salad
 Cole Slaw
 Bread and Butter
 Tapioca Cream
 Tea or Coffee Milk
Medium Cost Dinner
 Braised Beef with Vegetables

CONGRESS
 As Seen by a Nebraskan
 The triple A amendments are now back in the house after the conference between the senate and house conferees. Price fixing has been eliminated except in the case of milk. The export bounty system, authorizing 30 per cent of all customs receipts for making benefit payments to stimulate exports has been retained. Also the section permitting the president to fix import quotas on agriculture commodities which conflict with the program has been retained. This item is the one which disturbed the farm states congressmen who fought to keep it in the bill. They fought for it on the grounds that too much was being brought into our country at a time when our farmers were ordered to reduce their acreage and plow under corn. This will now permit the president to fix quotas on how much foreign produce can be brought into this country. The bill will be brought up and passed in the house in a few days as reported out of conference but there will be some fight on the Warren potato bill which has been retained by the conference. Potato growing state members want their potato farmers protected.
 Baskets full of letters and telegrams are reaching the desks of congressmen for and against the Guffey-Snyder coal bill. So much propaganda has come for and against this bill that many members are confused. Those who fear the bill is unconstitutional and those who fear that the passage of the bill will result in higher coal bills for the consumers at home have about decided to vote against it. Many who have not informed themselves as to the full phases of the bill have decided to vote "blind." Because this is the last big bill with any controversy in it, the members seem anxious that it be brought up and passed.
 Talking about government buildings, the government's fifty million dollar building program here is nearly completed but the government hasn't room for all its job holders here. PWA funds will supplement this building program. The government is still spending $2,086,545 for rent in this town. Additional costs for heating, lighting, etc., costs around $400,000. The government is renting every foot of available floor space. The boys and girls coming from Nebraska have to pay what the cold-blooded landlords ask in the way of rent for a hole-in-the-wall. Said one Nebraska man today, "They raised my rent for a two room apartment. I have been paying $50.00, now they ask $60.00." The plan to investigate the landlords seems to have been forgotten.
 Inquiries are reaching the congressional office as to whether or not loans are available for grain stored on farms, and Governor Meyers, of the Farm Credit Administration, states that loans will be made on a business basis to farmers who wish to store on their farms. The production credit associations, of which there are more than 550 in the United States, serving all counties, are equipped to make loans to farmers on a business basis taking as security grain held for sale and stored in farm warehouses. These will be regular production credit loans and made for any agricultural purpose. They will, however, give farmers an opportunity to borrow on grain stored in good storage on their farms and thus avoid the necessity of taking grain to the elevator or mill, to be purchased later by another farmer for feeding purposes. The bulk of the feed produced is consumed in the county in which it is grown, and it will be a distinct service to farmers to grant them credit on a business basis whereby they can avoid hauling feed back and forth to the elevator or warehouse but can store it properly on their farms and use it as security for a loan when necessary.
 Believe it or not, members of congress really want to go home. Immediately after the Tax Bill passed the house the other day, a large number of the members of the house checked out and went home, stating that they are not coming back until the next session of this congress on January 3, 1936. One estimate is made that over half a hundred congressmen left Washington for home immediately after the Tax Bill was passed.

The rumors which were rife a month ago that the administration is slowly beginning to feel that they are losing the support of the war veterans seems to have born some fruit today when it was stated that the Democratic high command of the senate recommended consideration of the soldiers' bonus next January. At the same time, it was stated by those watching the Administration policy that a gag rule is going to be attached to any inflationary legislation insofar as the tax bill is concerned. Under this tax bill is concerned. Under this gag rule, the Democratic leaders are going to move to table all motions proposing the Frazier-Lemke Refinance Bill, the McCarran Silver Bill, the Patman Bonus Bill, or other like measures, as amendments to the tax bill.
 Everybody in Washington is talking about taxes. Some felt that only the rich will be taxed, but under present day conditions everybody pays taxes, altho only a few of us know it. The man who thinks that, because his income is small, he gets off without paying the cost of his government, is mistaken. Even the man who smokes a package of cigarettes a day pays taxes on them of about $18 a year, but the cigarettes are only the beginning. Millions of automobile owners seem to ignore their annual license fee, but if the filling stations handed the customer a slip stating that with every ten gallons of gasoline purchased he paid a combined federal and state tax of from 30c to 48c, at the end of the year the automobile owner would find that he had paid upward of $15 in gasoline taxes. Then the electric light and gas companies could show that the customer pays $5.00 a year in taxes. The telephone company could show that the customer pays $5.00 a year in taxes. About one-fifth at least of every dollar paid in rent is tax money. If you are an average man with an average job, you are paying this government around $173 a year in taxes—and it is going to be more, because somebody has to pay the bill.
