Body of Caruso Lies in State; Embalmed in 1921

Because his friends and admirers in his native Italy could not bear to think of the body of Enrico Caruso moldering away in the earth after his death in 1921, they had it embalmed by a special process to preserve it indefinitely. The corpse of the famous singer still lies in a glasscovered casket in a mausoleum near Naples wrapped in an American flag.

Clothing on the body is changed every three years.

MORE people could feel fine, be fit and regular, if they would only follow the rule of doctors and only follow the rule of doctors and hospitals in relieving constipation.

Never take any laxative that is harsh in action. Or one, the dose of which can't be exactly measured. Doctors know the danger if this rule is violated. They use liquid laxatives, and keep reducing the dose until the bowels need no help at all.

Reduced dosage is the secret of aiding Nature in restoring regularity. You must use a little less laxative each time, and that's why it should be a liquid like Syrup Pepsin.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if it doesn't give you absolute relief, if it isn't a joy and comfort in the way it overcomes biliousness due to constipation, your money back.

VISITORS TO PADDY'S POND

THE hunter who was hiding near I the pond of Paddy, the Beaver, hoping that Lightfoot, the Deer. would come back there and give him a chance for a shot, was a man of patience. Also he was a man who understood the little people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. He knew that if he would not be seen he must not move. He sat as motionless as if he were a part of the very log on which he

Now the hunter was sorely tempted to shoot those ducks, but he knew that if he dld he would have no chance that day to get Lightfoot the Deer, and it was Lightfoot he wanted. So Mr. and Mrs. Quack swam about within easy range of that terrible gun without once suspecting that danger was anywhere

By and by the hunter's keen eyes caught a movement at one end of Paddy's dam. An instant later Bobby Coon appeared. It was clear that

| Bobby was quite unsuspicious. He had something, just what the hunter could not make out. He took it down to the edge of the water and there carefully washed it. Then he climbed up on Paddy's dam and began to eat. You know, Bobby Coon is very particular about his food. Whenever there is water near, Bobby washes his food before eating. Once more the hunter was tempted, but did not yield to the temptation, which was a very good thing for Bobby Coon,

"It is because he wants of swift wings, and Mr. and Mrs. to kill me that he doesn't shoot at Mrs. Quack or Bobby Coon," thought Lightfoot, a little bitterly. "What have I ever done that he should be

He had gone off to take a nap somewhere. Time slipped away. The hunter continued to watch patiently for Lightfoot, and Lightfoot and Paddy, the Beaver, watched the hunter. His eyes forever on the ground, His mind forever on the past, For grief has found his heart at

Each day the mailman has to bear This new, this unaccustomed, care. And men behold in his hurt eyes

For grief has come and struck him down.

A look half sorrow, half surprise,

The merry postman of the town, Who used to whistle up the street, And had his friends, and all things

And, in his eyes, with sorrow bent Is something of astonishment That such things happen, that one

Can come and take so much away

And yet for thirty years he bore His missives to his neighbor's door. Black-bordered letters, or a page Scrawled by the lonely hand of age The pleading of some woman's heart,

Who hears the faithless one de part-

And yet within the mailman's eyes The look is sorrow, and surprise.

FOOD SUGGESTIONS

A such a large majority of people FRUIT cocktail is liked by that it is usually served as a beginner for a luncheon or dinner. Fresh fruit is always the favorite, but now that canned grapefruit is available in almost any market, it, with other canned fruits, makes a most tasty cocktail. A canned pear, peach, a bit of pineapple with some of the fruit juice will make a most delectable cocktail. Sometimes the addition of a fresh orange will add to the flavor, with a cherry or two for color.

When something different is wanted for a vegetable try: Celery au Gratin.

Cut the celery into small bits and cook in boiling salted water until tender but not too soft. Drain and place in a baking dish with a rich white sauce, a layer of each and top with the celery, covered with a half-inch top of buttered crumbs. Bake in a hot oven until the crumbs are brown. Add grated cheese for a more nourishing dish, which, if a cupful of cheese is used, will do for a main dish at luncheon.

One of these chill days serve fried salt pork with cream gravy, baked potatoes and onlons and apples cooked together in a small amount of sweet fat. If the apples are very tart add a little sugar which will also add to the flavor and color. Cook the onions until about half done before adding the apples

THROUGH A Woman's Eyes By JEAN NEWTON

WHAT ELSE BUT TO LAUGH?

A YOUNG wife had prepared her first "company dinner" - and for her husband's family.

The "piece de resistance" was a turkey; turkey with a chestnut dressing. Laboriously she had shopped for it, gone over and over the recipe guaranteed to be "foolproof."

When the great hour came, the platter was quite heavy, and carefully, lovingly, she placed it into the hands of young husband. "Only be careful!" she admonished in a hushed voice.

Hubby tried to be, but he too was excited. Exactly what happened as he crossed the door-sill into the dining room will never be known. Nobody could tell at the moment. All we know is that the platter crashed to the floor just on the border surrounding the rug and the turkey slid along, spattering dressing and juice from the smashed bird with the broken china-along the polished surface.

All eyes turned to the young wife who at the sound of the crash dashed in from the kitchen. And what did she do? For half a moment she stood rigid, her eyes closed. And then - she laughed. Not a dramatic, hysterical laugh, laughter, full of good nature taking a joke. And the first comment was, "I don't see how she can do it."

Now come to think of it, what else could she do? Rage? Abuse her already stricken young husband? To what purpose? And to the end merely of ruining the party which meant so much to them both. No, she did the only thing possible to save the day. She laughedand said quite evenly, "It doesn't matter, John. Run down to the delicatessen and get a couple of roast chickens." Almost as soon as the floor was cleaned up the tragedy was forgotten, the roast chickens served the purpose, the evening was saved.

And the young wife had won the respect and admiration of her husband's family to a greater extent than the most expertly prepared turkey could have done for her. @ Bell Syndicate.-WNU Service.

A Cheerful Briton That German Steel We Go Up to 14 Miles Danger to Their Souls

Maj. L. B. Angas, British financier, addressing the American Bank-

Arthur Brisbane The British major-may all he says be verified and multiplied by ten-says truly there is any amount of money in America, but it "revolves" too slowly. It will soon speed up and "revolve," or change hands thirty-five times a year.

If Lloyds would insure the accuracy of the major's prediction, a good many would buy policies.

The particularly offensive plan to buy in Germany steel to build the Triborough bridge in New York will probably not go through. It is explained by those concerned that they can buy 1,000,000 pounds of German steel piling for less than half the American price; as a further "reason" it is said "American firms submitted identical bids."

The government's blue eagle was invented to prevent price cutting; but that is not the question, nor is the difference in price or the fact that work is taken from American workers to give it to German workers the most important fact. Buying steel in Germany, helping to finance the German steel industry and Mr. Hitler's program, with American dollars, would seem to indorse Hitler's program of persecution. That is the important fact.

Officers of the American air corps, Capts. A. W. Stevens and Orvil Anderson, rose above the earth into the stratosphere to a height greater than any human being had ever reached, with the possible exception, of course, of Elijah going up in his chariot of fire.

"We are 75,187 feet, trying for 80,- 000 feet." They did not go higher, but broke all records.

Seventy-four thousand one hundred and eighty-seven feet is more than 14 miles, 2,000 feet higher than the unofficial Russian record of 72,200 feet.

A movie news reel photographer in Ethiopia, Edward Genock, was assaulted when he tried to make moving pictures of warriors at Harar. The Ethiopians beat the camera man, explaining afterward, "We shall lose our souls if we are photographed." That will surprise Hollywood, where the belief is the other way around. Once it was generally believed, even by real Christians, that if you made a wax miniature figure of a man and stuck pins in it at intervals you would kill the original. Man is a superstitious biped.

Not long ago, when foreign countries were starving, America sent over American corn, and the foreign countries would not eat it. Even Russia refused. Now, thanks to various devices for persuading our farmers to produce as little as possible, the United States imports more than 20,000,000 bushels of corn in one year. Shortage of cornemeans shortage of food for hogs, and that means expensive "hog meat," pork chops and bacon. Somebody always has to pay the bill, and now it appears to be those that eat, a decided majority.

Speaking in Arlington national cemetery, the President warned the country that there is danger of war, urging "adequate defense on land, on sea, and in air."

He knows, as does everybody, that defense, first in the air, and second under the water, is most important.

President Roosevelt announced the "early consummation of a commercial agreement between Canada and the United States," referring to "our two peoples, each independent in themselves, closely knit by ties of blood and common heritage, with standards of life substantially the same."

While eleven lawyers and clients discussed the sale of a windowcleaning business in New York's Brownsville, four young gunmen entered, said, pleasantly, "Reach for the moon, gentlemen," meaning "Stick 'em up." The hands went up; the gunmen walked out with $2,261 in cash.

That was not playing the game. It is customary for lawyers to get money from gunmen, although, doubtless, these were not that type. € King Features Syndicate, Inc. WNU Service.

2,150 Pounds Amount of Food You Eat Per Year

You will eat a ton of food this year-2,150 pounds, the statisticians say. Milk, fluid and canned, and other dairy products, will account for half of this. (Milk is heavy.) You will eat about 150 pounds of meat, and about the same amount of fresh fruit; 150 pounds of fresh vegetables, not counting 150 pounds of potatoes.

In bread and cakes and breakfast foods and macaroni, you will consume 230 pounds of flour and cereals. Sugar, 102 pounds of it, is the next most important item. Of cannet fruits and vegetables, you will eat 38 pounds, states Today.
