Dated; February 11, 1936. Signed: W. H. Hartly, H. E. Coyne, Thos. J. Brennan, Norbert Uhl, Levi Yantzie, J. P. Protivinsky, Councilmen.

The following resolution was introduced by Councilman Coyne, and read:

RESOLUTION Resolved, Whereas certain of the water mains and services operated by the City of O'Neill, County of Holt, State of Nebraska, are frozen, and that it is necessary, in order to procure circulation of water, that they be thawed out, and Interstate Power Company of Nebraska is willing to furnish labor, material and electric energy necessary to thaw out the ice in said water mains and services, but demands the City of O'Neill, County of Holt, State of Nebraska, shall hold Interstate Power Company of Nebraska free and harmless of and from all liability, damages, actions and causes of actions to any person or persons or property whatsoever caused by or through the use of labor, materials, vehicles and electric energy or any other thing.

Be it further resolved, that the City of O'Neill, County of Holt, State of Nebraska hereby agrees to pay all costs to the Interstate Power Company of Nebraska for thawing such water mains and water services; said payment shall be made at the time statement is rendered. Such payments shall be made at the Company's District Office of Interstate Power Company of Nebraska at O'Neill, Nebraska.

Motion was made by Councilman Brennan, seconded by Councilman Protivinsky that the above resolution be adopted. Roll was called on the above motion and the vote thereon was as follows: Aye—Yantzie, Uhl, Protivinsky, Coyne, Brennan, Hartly; Nay—none.

Thereupon the Mayor declared the resolution adopted. Upon motion the Council adjourned subject to the call of the Mayor.

A pre-Lenten party was held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Protivinsky on Tuesday evening. The prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Jim Kelly, high, and Mrs. John Kersenbrock, low. Miss Gertrude Bauman and Mrs. Wm. McDonough were assisting hostesses. The traditional Shrove Tuesday luncheon was served.

Edward Earley was in from the north country last Saturday. Ed says that they have had no mail in his neighborhood for three weeks. He said he mailed a letter in his mail box Feb. 7, and that he picked it up out of the box and brought it to town with him Saturday. He says there does not seem to be any gulleys along the Eagle anymore as they are all drifted full of snow and it now looks like level prairie.

The men of the Men's Good fellowship Club of the Methodist church entertained the wives last night at the church. There were about 40 present and a well arranged program of entertainment consisting of games, music and readings under the direction of Mrs. Messrs. Dean Selah, Frank Reece and Archie Bowen was presented. Mrs. Harold Lindberg responded with words of appreciation in behalf of the women. A splendid lunch was served by Pete Hereford, C. C. McClurg, Bennett Gillespie and Clarence Selah.

Here is a question for the English history class: What is the difference between Edward the Eighth and Henry the Eighth? The answer is—six wives.

School has been closed for some time in District 170, on account of bad roads and weather. Miss Mary Hemingway is the teacher.

Miss Merle Ohmart and Miss Norrie Armstrong, who had been snow-bound at the Ray Kurtz home for some time, went to Anoka on Sunday.

A few more days like Sunday and our snow drifts will be a thing of the past. No one will be sorry to see the snow go, as it has made it impossible for people to get around, and the severe cold has made it that much worse, but we feel assured that "spring is just around the corner."

This locality only had mail out from O'Neill once in nine days, then the carrier only came out to Midway, where some one met him either with a sled or on a horse and took the mail for his neighborhood. It's a good deal like the old days.

Word was received by relatives of the birth of a son, a couple of weeks ago, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Worth of Dalton. The Worth family recently moved from here to Dalton.

A bunch of 18 men shoveling and also a tractor have been cleaning the county road from Midway to Dan Hansen's.

Mrs. Hans Eggar and baby have been visiting at the Lansworth and Aaron Boshardt homes the past week. Mrs. Eggar was formerly Anita Liddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Robertson and son visited at the John A. Robertson home on Monday.

Mrs. Eric Borg and Marvel and Mr. and Mrs. William Hubby were callers at the Howard Rouse home on Monday.

On Saturday, February 15, Chas. Wrede, old time settler of this locality, passed away at his home here. He had been seriously ill for some time and his death was not unexpected. His widow and children have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a kind and loving husband and father.
