"MY DAY"—BY MICKEY MOUSE

Washington.—Humanization of the rodents of the field seems to have been the pleasant task of some of the administration's boondoggling scientists. This is from "Uncle Sam's Diary," a magazine for federal employees:

"Work habits of field mice have been checked by federal scientists: 6 a. m., reveille; breakfast hunting, until 7:30 a. m.; lunch, 1 p. m.; general nosing about until 2 p. m.; dinner, 4:30 p. m.; half hour for napping, and then to bed at 5 p. m."

BRIEFLY STATED

Miss Elizabeth O'Malley has been spending a few weeks at Duluth, Minn.

George Mitchell and family returned Sunday from an enjoyable trip to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. E. H. Whelan returned last week to her home in San Diego, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. A. Golden.

Miss Dariel Cornelius, of Winner, S. D., is spending two weeks here, a guest at the home of her father, Ed Cornelius.

Ed Cornelius and Clyde Keller were over to the dam Sunday fishing but have no good stories of the big ones which got away.

Palmer R. Schultz and Miss Teresa Bazelman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bazelman, went to Butte an evening last week and were married by County Judge Anderson of Boyd county.

Mrs. G. A. Miles entertained the Woodmen Circle group at a social meeting Tuesday evening at her home. The evening was spent playing cards, after which a delicious lunch was served.

A drinking fountain has been put in at the corner of the old Holt County bank at Fourth and Douglas, one on the other corner being in constant use all summer. In times of crowded streets the two fountains are needed.

The Misses Nellie and Helen Toy left Friday to take up the coming year's school work, Miss Nellie to Herman, Nebr., where she taught for several years, and Miss Helen to Cedar Rapids, Nebr., where she will teach her first term.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruhn and children were guests at the James Coventry home at Inman Sunday; an enticing dinner of young fries and a 2-foot Minnesota pike added to the pleasure of the visit.

J. B. and George Mellor and Henry Grady were up in Cleveland precinct Tuesday looking over the fruits of the season on a farm belonging to Jess. A partial crop of corn is in the making and a considerable yield of various products was found.

Rolly Hatch has an arm in a sling and his shoulders held by a surgeon's contrivance on account of a broken collar bone. It occurred last Sunday taking a horse from a stall. The horse crowded and crushed Mr. Hatch against a barn stall.

Eileen Enright, visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Enright for a week, returned Sunday to Norfolk to resume her duties as a nurse. Her sister, Miss Loretta, went to Petersburg to take up her work as a teacher in the schools there.

The League of Nations Council is called to meet on September 18 to study the Locarno pact of 1925 and the German remilitarism of the Rhine zone, of March 17. It is calculated that by 1940 they will get around to the Ethiopian war and the Spanish rebellion of 1936.

Dispatches from Bear Mountain say that the early arrival of katydid means early frost. But the dispatch fails to state whether they were republican katydids or new deal katydids, so we are as much in the dark about the frost as ever.

Mrs. P. Streeter, of Brunswick, mother of Dean Streeter of this city, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker of Plainview, and their daughter, Mrs. Pilger, whose home is at Pilger, spent a day in the city last week with relatives. Mrs. Baker is a sister of Mr. Streeter.

We saw in the moving pictures the other day, a battleship throw out a dense cloud of black smoke to confuse the enemy. What a fine thing one of these smoke screens will be for the New Dealers when the enemy begins to talk about that thirty-six billion dollar national debt.

Born of absolute need, a family from a southern state tarried in town part of a day before continuing over the weary miles to the far northwest where they were heading with plans and hopes for better things. The wife is the sole legatee of a deceased O'Neill citizen and the stop here bore sufficient financial fruit, extracted from the estate, to permit them to proceed relieved and rejoicing. It probably makes a lot of difference when you are on the road whether the purse is empty or contains a roll.

Tom Griffin is enjoying a visit from a sister and a niece who arrived yesterday from New Haven, Conn.

D. L. Spellman, of Omaha, was visiting relatives and looking after business matters in this city the latter part of last week.

W. A. Bucklin, of Omaha, representative of the World Fire Insurance company, was looking after business in this city last Wednesday.

Miss Nancy Dickson went down to Norfolk last week where on Monday she started in as one of the teachers in the public schools of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Madgett, of Hastings, Nebr., are in the city today. Mr. Madgett is the owner of a half section northeast of town and he makes yearly visits here to look after his holdings.

Mayor Kersbrock late last week added a new feature to the Free Day program for next Tuesday by arranging for a band of twenty-five Sioux Indians to come to town and give the crowds some whoopee stuff as only the Red Man can do it.

John Minton came up from Lincoln last week and visited several days with his mother and other relatives and old friends here. John quit farming north of town about twenty-eight years ago and went to railroading and for several years he has been a Burlington conductor.

No sooner had the workmen removed a plate glass that had a slight break in it at the Stout drug store and replaced it with a whole glass than hard luck attended the job. An irregular crack snapped across one side of the new glass just as the work of placing it was completed.

Department of agriculture experts are crossing, by airplane, American blooded bulls with Argentine blooded cows. It is expected that the new breed developed will go on a voluntary diet when the Brain Trust orders meat curtailment for the benefit of the producers and consumers.

Emil Sniggs, who blew the big horn and stepped sprightly with the O'Neill Cornet band some forty years ago, got into white trousers and shirt, wore a nifty cap and joined the bands of musicians that went out Tuesday to boost for the Free Day and the Chambers fair. Like the old fire horse at the clang of the alarm, members of the cornet band of the long ago receive an inspiration at the sight of the uniformed players and the sound of the instruments in unison.

Land lubbers and old sea dogs alike were all perked up last Friday afternoon and awaited with anxiety the arrival of the 4 o'clock Burlington freight, which came in two hours late. A car loaded with a whale and other deep sea specimens had been advertised to arrive on that train, and when the train pulled in a crowd of citizens were there to see the show. They all felt they came nearer getting their money's worth than from anything that had come to town this season.

SAVE THE SWINE

With Nebraska hogmen "on the spot" due to drought conditions and facing liquidations of breeding stock, the Nebraska Livestock Breeders and Feeders association and authorities at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture this week advocated a 7-point program for the benefit of the swine industry.

Dan M. Hildebrand, of Seward, president of the livestock association, and Prof. Wm. J. Loeffel of the Nebraska college of agriculture joined together in putting forth the program. Both are concerned whether sufficient breeding stock will be retained by Nebraska farmers to re-establish their herds next year.

The 7-point program includes: 1. Planting rye for pasture as soon as moisture conditions improve. It will make fall and winter feed and reduce grain requirements in maintaining breeding stock. 2. Replace old sows with gilts. 3. Keep a few of the best gilts as well as pigs, one or two, for home meat supply. 4. Market pigs at lighter weights. Well finished light-weight pigs are selling at very good prices now. 5. Use protein supplements liberally. 6. Farrow 1937 spring pigs as late as possible. 7. Small grains

SPANISH ROMANCE

People who have been inclined to get romantic about "castles in Spain" probably will feel inclined to seek romance in some other country just now unless they want their romance mixed with gunpowder.—Burlington, Vt., Free Press.

Communists in Spain are reported to be ready to blow up a town even though the dynamiters know that their own families are residents. One idea of communism is to make an even distribution of as much hard luck as possible.—Washington, D. C., Star.
