Neb. State Historical Society

THE FRONTIER

VOL. LVII

Crowds Come In For the Celebration

Free Day went over with a bang Tuesday and O'Neill streets were thronged from mid-forenoon until midnight. There was no way of counting the multitudes as unlike a fair ground where tickets are draw. taken in they came from all directions all day and had the free run of the town. Mayor Kersenbrock put forth tireless efforts to make the affair a success and all seemed to feel that it was just that.

The highlights of interest, amid the multitude of games, seemed to O'Neill, draw. center on a few things. Befeathered, mocassin-footed and bespangled Indians from the reservation in both of O'Neill, draw. their distinctive and rhythmic dance caught the fancy for a time of O'Neill, and Mike Sullivan, 130 after a parade of something like 1,000 school and Academy students, for Jeffry on a knockout. led by the school band of forty pieces. A ball game between of Chambers, and Ed Barnum, 145 Norfolk and Beatrice, of the state pounds, of O'Neill. Decision for league, drew a large crowd to the Barnum on a knockout, second fair grounds but after the first few round. innings interest in that subsided. It was not a contest for supremacy between the teams hence fagged Newman, 155 pounds, negro of out into indifferent playing and the scores kept piling up until no one cared to know the result, ex- and Leonard Peterson, 143 pounds, cept a few who had staked a little both of O'Neill, draw. on the outcome.

moted by L. D. Putman, who made the matches, held the interest throughout the late afternoon. These were held on a platform on augh, 153 pounds, of Chambers. Fourth street, south of Douglas. Cook knocked out in first round. Elmer Stolte acted as referee and Prof. Carrol as time keeper.

Corps gave an interesting drill during the evening and, as usual, rounds, others three. were viewed by thousands of th residents of this and surrounding counties. The Gesundheit band of Pierce won a warm spot in the hearts of the citizens of this city and con- Viola Schaaf, 19, both of Atkinson; tributing territory last Tuesday. Louis Urbanski, 30, of Stuart, and Jean Strong, of Ewing, by Grace traffic in and out of O'Neill. They were employed to furnish Rose Babl, 24, of Brocksburg; Omey, her mother, has begun action music for the day and they were George Verzel, 28, and Claudine for absolute divorce from Harry not stingy about it, and they fur- Brewer, 19, both of Atkinson. nished up to date music. Shortly Sept. 4.-Jerry D. Sullivan, 36, age ceremony was performed at foot with the gait of a plow horse, after noon they were marching of Elgin, and Virginia K. Doran, Neiigh on October 13, 1934, but averall legs encompassing ponddown Fourth street by this office 22, of Chambers. when they sighted the picture of the next president of the United and Viola Dehart, 21, both of ing to the marriage because of epitome of Will Markham's poetic States, Governor Alf Landon, in Platte, S. D. the wyindow, they doffed their caps and rendered the republican national anthem,"Oh, Susannah." They kinson. were then decoratd with Landon and Knox badges-although they were then generously suppliedand thir leader said they were at the notification ceremonies at Topka and that it was probably the only band in the Union that was 100% for Landon. It is a good band and the boys made a hit here by their willingness to furnish music and assist in thhe entertainment of the day. They are gentlemen every one of them and they can be sure of a royal reception if they should again return to the Emerald tinted city.

years: Iris Buffalow, first; James Bellar, second; Don Freisen, third. Pie Eating Contest, under 15 years: Donald Bayle, first; Bob Kellar, second; Cleland Johnson, third.

BOXING. First-Tibbett Brothers, weight

50 pounds, draw. Second-Donald Bergstrom, 63 pounds, and Jack Dempsey, 60 pounds, draw. Third-Floyd Bellar, 120 pounds, and George Fernholz, 115 pounds, These three matches were all O'Neill boys.

Fourth - Ralph Shaw, 135 pounds, and Harry Brown, 139 pounds, both of Chambers, draw. Fifth-Clinton Wolfe, 120 pounds and Leo Valla, 149 pounds, both of

Sixth-Clinton Wolfe, 120 pounds and Andy Schaacht, 120 pounds,

Seventh-Pat Jeffry, 127 pounds, pounds, of Opportunity. Decision

Eighth-Joe Lewis, 150 pounds,

Ninth-Vernon Hixson, 155 pounds, of Clearwater, and Harry Sioux City. Decision for Hixon. Tenth-Jack Cooper, 140 pounds, Eleventh-Keith Lear, 171 pounds Amatuer boxing exhibitions, pro- of Bassett, and Bill Zall, 182 pounds, of Long Pine, draw.

Twelfth - George Cook, 145 pounds, of O'Neill, and Buz Cavan-Thirteetnth - Walter Fix, 168 pounds, of Inman, and Dick Tom-The Norfolk Drum and Bugle linson, 179 pounds, of O'Neill, draw. The boys matches were two

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1936

-Copyright 1936 by Chicago Herald and Examiner. Published by permission.

Filings in the penitentiary, where he is now.

BRIEFLY STATED

Thousand Cattle STREET SCENERY.

ago.

One non-partisan news writer relates that some of the republi- New Ideas on One non-partisan news writer can leaders are getting nervous about the state of Maine-not becouse it is likely to go democratic, but because the indications point to such a republican landslide that it may make the republicans overconfident. "What worries them," in this campaign! That element birds to shake out showers.

Independent.

Lee Bergland

they are going to make it as em- county board and lived here in phatic as possible .-- Grand Island town. He was for it. Messengers were sent hither and yon ahorse to get the sentiment of other members of the board and most all thought wetting the county down was worth $3,000.

ed the steps and ascended to the court house cupola. For four days

Lee Bergland, living near Op- he sat offering incense to a brazen portunity, was brought to O'Neill sky and neither ate nor drank Saturday with a fractured collar only as these emblems of mortal bone, the result of a fall from a need were brought to him. At horse. Just how it all happened midnight the 9th his time was to the family doesn't know and Mr. expire.

Bergland, who is past 70, continued O'Neill tinners were put to work in a somewhat dazed mental state making cans about six inches high and did not know just what did and ten inches across to catch the rain. The professor was to make happen.

Saturday morning Mrs. Berg- it a half inch. The second day land was driving a team hitched lightning flashed, thunders crashed, to a wagon and they started to wind raged-but no rain. Midrun. Her husband saw it, got on a night the 9th came and no rain. saddle horse and started in pursuit. A few hours later, however, a The team had run about a half gentle downpour set in and wet the mile when Mrs. Bergland got them whole country from the Black Hills turned and headed back to the farm to Omaha.

buildings where she got them stop. Melbourne and ihs man, Jones, ped by running into a fence. She got no pay but insisted that the saw the saddle horse standing on rain was the result of the profes-

Rain Making Recall '90s

No. 17

he writes, referring to G. O. P. In connection with the present leaders, "is that the victory may day proposals to induce rainfall be altogether too heartening-may during summer months it is intercreate delusions of an easy No- esting to turn back the pages and vember victory." That's forget- revive our memories of what others ting, however one unusual element did to lure the fickle thunder is the issue of Americanism vs. On August 4, 1892, one known as Europeitis. Independent and Prof. Frank Melbourne, Cheyenne, democratic voters, alike with repub- Wyoming, with a "manager," F. H. lican citizens, are not going to Jones, arrived in O'Neill and prohave any delusions about that. The posed for $3,000 to produce one half mere stamping out of European inch of rain within four days-no radicalism, if not comunism, from rain, no pay. It looked good. Tom Washington, is so important that Golden was a member of the Hurt in Fall At midnight the professor mount-

Results of the boxing and the other sports follow:

Foot Race, Boys under 12 years, 60 yards: Maurice Jones, first; Dan Freisen, second, George Mellor, third.

Foot Race, Girls under 12 years, 60 yards: Eva Jones, first; Trena Hoffman, second; Marjorie Summers, third.

Foot Race, Boys 12 to 15 years, 100 yards: Everett Gorgen, first; Floyd Jarske, secondp; Wayne Hancock, third.

Foot Race, Girls, 12 to 15 years, 100 yards: Oda Posvar, first; Eunice Hunt, second; Trena Hoffman, third.

third.

Sack Race, Boys under 16 years, 75 yards: James Bellar, first; ing him back to the institution. Junior Jarske, second; George Mellor, third.

years, 75 yards; Everett and Vern in-law, Leo Orr of Terryville, S. ute, it would take 14,000 years to Cooper.

Spry, third.

Pie Eating Contest, under 12 and hopes to be fully restored soon. into prosperity.

Marriage Licenses

Sept. 2.-Edward Segar, 22, and Arlene Bamberger, 21, both of At- sentenced on a conviction of grand framed for study any day. larceny to serve five years in the

E. A. Marshal vs. August Lappe, Thieves Like an appeal frow the findings of the county court over ownership and Canned Foods possession of a body of land near O'Neill:

Julius D. Cronin as county at-Someone who has taken to crim- torney appeals to the court for the inal and contemptible ways of se- appointment of special counsel to curing a livlihood in place of honest investigate and start criminal proendeavor in northeast Holt stole a ceedings, if necessary, against cerquantity of home-canned provisions tain Omaha lawyers, whom Rosa from the Joe Schollmeyer farm Johns Wheeler alleges received twenty miles northeast last Sat- from her as bailee certain moneys urday night. The entire supply of they refuse to return. Mr. Cronin canned peaches that had just been says he is disqualified to proceed prepared by the Schoolmeyer house- against the Omaha men as he is hold, canned meat and other pro- counsel for the Wheeler woman in visions were taken. other matters. The family were at the Crookman home at the time participating in the festivities of the Crookman-Stuart wedding party and the provision raider had things all his own way. This is the second time within a little over a month that this place their customers and friends in this has been raided. In July a flock of 250 chickens were stolen.

Sheriff Duffy had in custody for thousand themseles. a short time George Ketchum, a paroled youth from the Industrial Foot Race, Free For All, 100 school at Kearney. E. H. Schind- city yesterday after most of the yards: Allan Spindler, first; Clar- ler, parole officer, came over Mon- summer spent at Atlanta, Ga. He on parole and employed by a the people treat one royally, but Cherry county man who was send- have considerable of the old seces-

Casper Addison, of Swan pre-

Three Legged Race, under 16 cinct, accompanied by his brother- At the rate of one dollar a min- places.

Grogan, first; second and third a D., were in town Monday having spend the amount of money Presi- Father time had laid a heavy tie between Alvin Bausch and Pat come in that day from Omaha, dent Roosevelt gets rid of in one hand on her. Life's vicisitudes had Mitchell; Floyd Jarake and Jack where they had been to see Casper's year. But what worries the tax- faded the bloom of maidenly fresh-fathers, J. C. Addison of Opportun- payers is the time and sacrifices ness, lines marked the once full-Boy's Bicycle Race, under 16 ity, who has been in a hospital which are going to be required to rounded features and shabbiness lican candidate for president at leaving on a trip to Bellingham, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson and baby, years: John Shoemaker, first; since August 1. He is showing en- pay back the billions borrowed to made no effort to conceal a hard- O'Neill is gauged by the demand Wash., where he has a sister living Jim, of Neligh, were guests at Dale Kersenbrock, second! Dale couraging signs, Casper says, of finance the New Deal plan of bor- bitter career since the days she was for the sunflower badges at this and where he and some of the the home of Mrs. Piesens parents, permanent improvement in health rowing and spending the nation a charming young school teacher office he is the choice of a great family will spend about a month Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harnish, this

At an early morning hour, with-District Court in a radious of half a block, thirty automobiles with license plates Elmer C. Rankan as attorney of from other states and other count-record representing them Doris ies, discloses some of the foreign

Maybe not quite a quarter ton L. Strong. It is recited the marri- for cannibal diet, lifting a heavy they have never dwelt together as erous extremities with the bottom Sept. 5.-Russel S. Burnham, 30, husband and wife, the girl consent- turned up to the ankle-a living false representations. On No- picture, "The Man With the Hoe." Sept. 7.-John Cearns, 21, and vember 1, following, Strong was Just a figure in the street scenery

> Clad in the garments of the laboring man, he sat with quiet dignity at the early morning away affair, in many instances as ill in a hospital for some time. breakfast table and proceeded with much as 75 cents a hundred higher Their son, Fred, was down Thursthe grace and careful mannerisms over a week ago, with some top day of last week. that would delight an Emily Post two year old heifers weighing 950 to the business of eating, which seemed with him more like a conscientious rite than partaking of a meal. Who was it reminds us a princely person may be encountered in all walks of life?

Anxious eye, urgent entreatysomething more than entreaty, ap. proaching the mandatory - and persistent effort-the comely young matron appeared to succeed in piloting a reluctant spouse out of the zone of the freely flowing amber fluid. That is one of the hinderances to a day of pleasure to the woman who still believes in

Adults and kiddies from all parts, the ways of sobriety while her of the county were in O'Neill Tues- mate is lured by the cup that cheers had to tell who she was to an ac- exhibit of tractors and other farm day for O'Neill's annual tribute to and also inebriates.

section of the state. The kiddies all had a good time and I think that anxious look of the one whose interest in life was also apparent. the older folks, of both sexes, also guiding star seems to have sunk be- Maybe after all those are the big low a distant horizon, leaning things of the daily experiences. against a glass front as if the effort to move to the solid wall for a Glenn Saunders arrived in the support was too great, he hovered ence Benda, second; Jack Cooper, day for the boy, who had been out thinks Georgia is a fine country, the means to supply them is about jump, leaving breakfast and all sion spirit left. Glenn will resume known, but the observer later saw duties at The Frontier next week.

the weary pilgrim dozing in a chair in front of one of the city's loafing in the county. Little wonder she many of our citizens.

Market for Tuesday, September 8. from the horse on the ground un- rain, no pay.

selling equal to the seasson's best He was brought into O'Neill and O'Neill hustlers tried rain making prices. The supply was not equal attended by Dr. Brown and taken on their own account. Grand to the demand as many buyers back home where up to a day or Army men were replete with storcould not fill their requirements. two ago he seemed not able to ies of heavy rains following great Most light pigs weighing from 40 recall just how he had fallen battles. A quantity of dynamite to 70 lbs. brought from 6.25 to 7.50 from the horse but was otherwise was got in at Corrigan's drug with weightier pigs on up to 9.00. getting along allright.

Some fat 125 lb. averages sold at 10.25. The sow market and fat PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS hogs were fully steady with a week

Abe Saunto returned to Sioux Cattle: Receipts 1027 head. The City Sunday to be at the bedside of heifer and cow market was a run- Mrs. Saunto, who has been seriously lbs. bringing 6.00. All cows showed Mr. and Mrs. Credle and daughfrom 25 cents on the canners and ter, Judith, came up from Omaha cutters to as much as 75 cents ad-Sunday, Mrs. Credle and daughter vance on the best fat ones. The visiting with her parents, Mr. and steer market was no higher than Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell, while Mr. a week ago, however this week's quality was not as good as that of last wek. Canners bulked largely Herman Medlin came in Monday at 3.00 to 3.40; cutters at 3.50 to 4.40; fat cows at 4.50 to 5.65; heavy heifers up to 6.00; choice Good steers at 4.50 to 5.00; plain removal to that place. He hopes ideas on rain making and smile. to return to O'Neill some day and engage in business here.

L. D. Putnam of the Putnam Implement company went to Chambers yesterday. Mr. Putnam has an quaintence of years now gone. and ranch equipment from his

Our old friend William Grothe,

caught a faint note that seemed the in the state fair and incidently

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cronin and other relatives are enjoying a visit from his son, William and wife, Mrs. Harvey Allen, of Page. Mr. Rebert, Mrs. W. W. Mills, formerly two sisters, Mary Cronin and Mrs. Elmer Nelson and son, Joe, all of Omaha.

If the popularity of the repub- get an insurance policy before visiting.

at the Sale Ring a rise in the ground some distance sorss incantations. Moreover, he back and with her son, Harold, proposed an agreement to irrigate went to where the horse was, find- Holt and four adjoining counties Report of Atkinson Livestock ing Mr. Bergland a little distance for ten cents an acre. Again, no

Two years later a group of store. A day came for the great experiment. The boxes of explosives was loaded into a wagon. Ed Hershiser sat on one of the boxes and the drive was made to about the center of the southeast quarter of section twenty-four, just northwest of town. Ed handled the dynamite and the fireworks began. Boom-crash! Shanty windows and the earth shook, but Jupiter Pluevis looked on and smiled.

This was a period, too, of digging great irrigation canals - on paper. The county records are replete with motions and resolutions on the subject of irrigation. Like Credle went to Denver on business. the Sunday school picnic, rains spoiled it all.

Those who have hung around with a large truck from Jefferson north Nebraska the past 50 years City, Nebr., where he is locating or more and watched the heavens and loaded his household stuff for for rain clouds, listen to the new Sunday's rain and hail yielded .37 of an inch of moisture at O'Neill. The hail did not cover an extensive scope, the heaviest being about the center of town, where the usual hail stones were accom-But while these outward marks stock here on exhibition at the fair panied by chunks of ice of irregular shapes that fell like rock. Not many of these but enough to keep any ventursome person from takof Emmet, accompanied by his wife ing a chance with getting hit with and son, Herman, left last week one. Ralph Mellor reports the loss just ready to open were beaten to earth.

> A party consisting of Mr. and and children, of Omaha, and Mrs. Johnson's sister, Miss Florence Mrs. D. B. Rebert and two children. Veerman, of Burlington, Iowa, have of Boys, Mont., Mrs. Clarence Mills spent the past week with Mr. and of Omaha, and the mother of Mrs. Johnson is a brother of Mrs. Allen. a resident of the Opportunity neighborhood in this county, stop-George D. Hansen, of Meek, was ped for the night here last Thursin town early Tuesday morning to day on their way to Omaha.

> > week.

Sparce of frame, gray thatched, were apparent, a happiness and an in Chambers.

near the re-employment office. One start of the fire alarm. He straight- visit relatives and friends in the to crush to earth. What success but it was only a flash off the radio. Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Johnson

A fireman at the breakfast table for Lincoln where they will take of seventy turkeys, while Harry of many whose material needs and ened up and listened, ready to southeastern part of the state.

yearling heifers at 5.25 to 6.00. ones down to 3.50; heavy steers up to 6.10. Bulls at 4.00 to 4.50; steer calves at 5.00 to 6.00; heifer calves at 4.50 to 6.00.

Hogs: Receipts 727 head. Pigs conscious.

