Flannigan, a citizen and resident of Jones county, Iowa, died intestate on the 3rd day of October, A. D., 1909, seized and possessed of the following described real estate, situate in the state of Nebraska, to-wit:

North Half of the Northwest Quarter and the Northeast Quarter and the Southeast Quarter of the Northwest Quarter of the Southwest Quarter of Section Eleven, Township Thirty-three, Range

AROUND NORTHEAST NEBRASKA

With Your Congressman
Many inquiries are coming in from graduates of the commercial schools and high schools, asking for positions as stenographers. It should be noted that the civil service had 110,000 applications this summer for positions as stenographers in the various bureaus of the government. While most of the positions are filled thru civil service, many are filled in some of the new bureaus thru political patronage. However, those with civil service rating seem to have the best chance at securing permanent positions. The advice to these young people is to take the civil service examination and get their name on the eligible list.

Platte Center is one of the live towns in the Third District, and the business people have an unusually fine motion picture projector. Some of the motion pictures are shown free to the public, and are always attended by large, appreciative audiences. During the summer months these free motion pictures are being shown in the beautiful park.

Many fine young men are calling at the office every day asking for information regarding possibilities of becoming commissioned officers in the army and navy thru appointment to the West Point Military Academy and the Naval Academy at Annapolis. This information is given to these young men, and many of them are planning to take the civil service examination, which this Congressional office offers to all of those interested. This district now has four young men in the Naval Academy and three in the Military Academy. All seven of these young men were appointed thru the merit system, after having passed the civil service examination. The last reports from both academies indicate that all of them are doing exceptionally well.

George Lingenfelter, a farmer living near Plainview, Nebr., assisted in giving a party in the beautiful Plainview park recently. The Plainview high school band, which is one of the finest school bands of the district, gave a fine concert, attended by over a thousand people who thoroughly enjoyed the numbers rendered in a highly competent manner. The park commission at Plainview is eliminating some of the old trees in the park and the planting of new trees will not only beautify the park, but will invite those who come here to enjoy the comfortable cool and shade.

Over the district there are farmers who are filling their silos with corn stalks and few of these stalks have little corn and will make fairly good feed. In most places there is no corn on the stalks but the stalks will make very good feed. Some of the farmers are even putting Russian thistle into these silos.

If we have a little more rain in this district we will have good fall pastures. If we can pasture up to the first of December it will result in saving considerable storage feed.

Some farmers who have rye and wheat seed on hand, are selling rye seed at a dollar a bushel and wheat seed at a dollar and eight cents per bushel.

Whatever corn in the field, reasonably matured, will make exceptionally good seed, providing it is properly taken care of. If we have a late fall, all of the corn will make good seed. Otherwise corn should be picked and hung up to dry. This is the belief of most farmers who say that during a dry year all corn usually makes good seed and it is during wet years that we have trouble with our seed. As a result farmers are busy picking this corn, and saving it for seed. All rye, corn, and wheat seed will be of good quality. This is because the grain did not get wet in the shock.

Hay is now cheaper than it was two weeks ago, and farmers are not buying it as readily as they did some weeks ago. Hay is being sold around Norfolk, now at around twelve dollars a ton. This drop in the hay price is the result of filling silos with forage.

Farmers are selling off some of their stock, and keeping just about enough to balance the feed supply they have on hand. They are aiming not to keep any stock which they cannot feed thru the winter. A hard winter may catch the farmers in a very bad farm condition, and a light winter may bring them thru in fine shape.

Inquiries have been received from some of the counties concerning the program of the National Youth Administration, also, complaint that the county quota of NYA school aid is insufficient. Following the time that the matter has been taken up with the state director of the National Youth Administration, the word comes that additional funds have been allowed to help in the drouth situation and that notice is being sent to the different counties of increases in the county quotas for student aid.

Twenty-seven farmers joined together on a farm near Breslau, in putting ensilage into trench silos. The feed around Breslau, will not be as plentiful as it has been in the past due to the hot, dry weather we have had. Newspaper reports had it that Breslau enjoyed a full inch of rain recently, but an inspection of the fields there proved that no more than a quarter of an inch had fallen. One field which was taken out of production and which was plowed up in June, was practically dried to a crisp on September 11. Hardly a weed could be found in that field. The farmer upon this land, is expected to plant it to alfalfa, but because of the dry condition of that particular field, he feels that putting expensive alfalfa seed into the ground will be a complete loss. However, under his soil conservation agreement he must plant a soil-building crop.

KARL STEFAN.

Democratic lawyers, in the employ of the federal administration are seeking to find ways and means of halting the practice of some business men of advertising in the buying public the proportion of federal taxes hidden in purchases of all commodities. They find this practice most annoying in Washington, and feel that it is really none of the public's business. All that is asked of the citizens is that they pay the bill and be happy over the privilege of doing so.—Kearney Hub.

Out of town relatives of William Walsh, here last Thursday for the funeral were: Mrs. Robert Cassidy, Denver, Colo., and Mrs. William Dodge, of Larmie, Wyo., sisters of deceased; Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh and children, of Knoxville, Nebr., a brother; William Walsh and John Walsh, of Clearfield, S. OIL-PLATING

In about a minute this engine will be getting Oil-Plated and won't need any oil added for such a long time that the owner will pass up everything for Conoco Germ Processed oil. In making this oil, a patented "hyper-oily concentrate," as Science terms it, is used to alloy a most carefully refined mineral oil. That is Germ Processing! It has two sure effects . . . (1) makes the familiar type of oil-film many times stronger . . . (2) backs this far stronger film with an entirely extra Oil-Plating. Oil-Plating is an actual deposit of Germ Processed oil, fixedly Plated to every moving part. So you have oil-film sliding on Oil-Plating . . . oil-moving-on-oil! And you can't keep farther away than that, from "another quart of oil." Continental Oil Co.
