

British Reds Demanding Aid for Spain

London's famous Trafalgar Square packed by British members of the Communist party as leaders addressed them during the recent unity demonstration in "Aid of Spain."

Mayors of Two Winchesters Meet

An interesting ceremony is pictured here as Mayor C. R. Anderson of Winchester, Va., presents a flag of the American city to Mayor A. T. Edmonds of Winchester, England. The American mayor is in mufti. The flag was presented as a token of good-will from the modern American city to its ancient namesake.

ONE-BOY NEWSPAPER

With 85 paid subscribers and enough advertising to keep his sheet "Out of the red," Edwin L. Heminger, nine-year-old editor and publisher, is shown at the small handpress with which he puts out his "Glendale Times." Young Heminger, whose father is editor of the Findlay (Ohio) Republican-Courier, and whose grandfather, I. N. Heminger, has been a Findlay publisher since 1890, put out his first paper on a typewriter a year ago. His grandfather bought him a press.

GOPHER CO-CAPTAIN

Julius Alfonse is the co-captain and halfback of the powerful University of Minnesota football team. Experts call the team unbearable.

Swedish Week-End House on Legs

This unusual week-end house was erected on six legs at a vacation point near Stockholm, Sweden. The open space under the house provides space for automobiles. Steel I-beams form the supports and main frame for the structure. The house is similar in principle to modernistic dwellings which have been introduced into the United States in recent years. The structure is prefabricated and can be readily assembled on the lot.

Crippled War Veterans Pray for Peace

Gathered before the miracle working shrine of Our Lady of Lourdes, in France, battered war veterans from all the nations of Europe—many of them former enemies—joined in prayers for peace. A hundred and fifty thousand veterans made the pilgrimage to this year's peace congress at the grotto.

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Parade of the Grana Army of the Republic down Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, during the annual encampment. 2—New palace of the League of Nations in Geneva which was occupied recently with dedicatory ceremonies. 3—Harry W. Colmery of Topeka, Kan., and Mrs. C. W. Hahn of Wayne, Nebraska, who were elected national commander of the American Legion and president of the women's auxiliary at the Cleveland convention.

Almost Died of Thirst in Desert

Some of the eight passengers and crew of four of the Imperial Airways liner "Horsa" shown as they lay near exhaustion under the shade of the plane wing on the Arabian desert where they made a forced landing recently. In the foreground is Mrs. Wallace Smith of Brisbane, England, the only woman in the party, who said when they were rescued, "Had another day passed, I doubt if any of us would have been alive." They drank dew from the plane wings.

MAYORESS FROM CHILE

Paying a long-deferred visit to New York is Mrs. Alicia C. De Erzurum, who is shown on the S. S. Santa Barbara. Back home in Chile the senora is mayor of Providencia, one of the country's most aristocratic residential communities. She is the first woman mayor in Chile.

CHINESE GIRL WINS

Little Gem Hoang, of China, proved herself a sensation at the girl's junior lawn tennis championship tournament at Wimbledon.

Three Steel Barons Get Together

Gathering the Grape Harvest in France

Vineyard workers gathering a bumper crop of luscious grapes at Vougeot, France, near Dijon, an area famous throughout the world for the quality of its vintages.

Old as Methuselah

The oldest chartered industrial concern in the world is the copper mine at Falun, in Dalecarlia, one of Sweden's most picturesque regions for travelers. The mine has been under the same continuous ownership since 1220, and so much ore has been taken from it that its excavations would hold the Cheops Pyramid.

Knowledge and Courage

Next to knowing how to draw up a law for the welfare of the people is having the courage to do it.

If You're Told to "Alkalize"

Try This Remarkable "Phillips' Way"

Thousands are Adopting

On every side today people are being urged to alkalize their stomach. And thus ease symptoms of "acid indigestion," nausea and stomach upsets.

To gain quick alkalization, just do this: Take two teaspoons of PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA 30 minutes after eating. OR—take two Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, which have the same antacid effect.

Relief comes almost at once—usually in a few minutes. Nausea, "gas"—fullness after eating and "acid indigestion" pains leave. You feel like a new person.

Try this way. You'll be surprised at results. Get either the liquid "Phillips'" or the remarkable, new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Delightful to take and easy to carry with you. Only 25¢ a box at all drug stores.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM:

Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.
