"I can't think of anything in our home that does as much for so little as the Telephone"

says Mrs. K. E. Kelly
—One of our customers—

"The many every-day uses I have for telephone service make me appreciate its high quality and I am more than satisfied with what the telephone does for me," says Mrs. Kelly.

"It is a great convenience in ordering food and other household necessities and I can reach so many of my friends and accomplish so many things that might require trips that I have more time for myself and family."

For every-day errands, for friendly chats or for help in emergencies, turn to your telephone. It makes life safer, fuller and happier.
