SHIELDS

The turkey dinner and supper that was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steskal Thanksgiving was a grand success and was enjoyed by all present. About 11:30 the guests began to congregate to enjoy the bounteous feast of the day. Everything had been pre-arranged so as to prevent confusion and balance the festive board for both dinner and supper. This is usually decided by the celebrants as they arrange for more of a variety thus escaping the chances of foundering on turkey.

That is very likely as the grasshoppers were fairly numerous last summer and I know there were a lot of those grasshopper foundered on fence posts, and it might be contagious so a balanced ration seemed to be the best, especially when five big roast turkeys were to be devoured inside of seven hours.

The charming young ladies of this vicinity very capably served the savory Hole-bo turkeys and all the accompaniments for a delicious dinner and supper which was prepared by the best cooks in the neighborhood.

After supper we began to receive dope on the football game between O'Neill and Atkinson. The majority seemed to have a little kale on Atkinson, but the writer suspected if O'Neill got a toe hold another apple cart was sure to be upset. But we understand the boys held a stiff upper lip and put up a splendid game even if their antagonist carried home the bacon.

After the novelty of the game ceased, the chairman introduced Mr. Charlie Deihl who favored us with a short talk on the topics of the day. Being well posted and no defects or affects, and surrounded by a legion of friends, he had no apologies to make and urged and encouraged us all to express ourselves on what is going on all around us. Surely there are times in the life of every one of us when we wished we were able, or more able, to express ourselves with more assurance and self confidence.

Speaking is a natural gift and interesting when you possess the truth and the ability to combat against those lukewarm apostles on any subject.

We all enjoyed the remarks and were glad to have a chance to swap yarns on this occasion. It's useless to insert the names of those who were present, as I have a sneaking idea that our local editor is short on space. But all had a gala day and we don't want the W. C. T. U. to know anything about it as they might reflect on the present administration. Extending our hospitality to all concerned, E. S. E.

Penney Store Pays A Christmas Bonus

The announcement was made today by the manager of the local J. C. Penney store, Pete Todson, that the associates of this store will share in a Christmas bonus. The Penney Company recently authorized an extra payment for over 25,000 associates in all stores, offices and warehouses. All regular employees who have been with the company over a year will receive two weeks extra pay. Those employed for shorter periods will receive proportionate amounts.

TOYS!

Never in our history has such a great array of Toys been gathered for Christmas. Shop early and SAVE at Gamble Stores. $2.50 value Doll, $1.89—26-piece China Dinner Set, 79c—Piano, 69c.

The BEN FRANKLIN Store

In the announcement of the plan, E. C. Sams, president of the company said: "The year 1936 has been the most successful in the history of our business. The associates have contributed largely to that success. This bonus is not a bonus on any permanent plan. It is additional 1936 remuneration for loyalty and service that have played a part in making this the greatest year for the Penney company."

In the O'Neill store some three associates will share in this bonus. These include Miss Geneva Grady, Miss Viva Eidenmiller and Harold Rose.

The local manager, Pete Todson, commented as follows when asked about this plan: "I personally was very happy to learn of this decision by our board of directors. The O'Neill store, like the entire Penney company, has had a splendid year. Our success is due to the work of all the group in this store. I am sure that our customers, like myself will be happy to see these good friends of theirs in O'Neill receive this substantial recognition of their fine service and efforts."

The Sunshine and Fresh Air club met last Saturday and elected officers. They are, President, Marjorie Cronin; Vice President, Constance Golden; Treasurer, Donna Gallagher; Secretary, Margaret Reka. The girls enjoyed a very pleasant hike.
