BRIEFLY STATED

Supervisors Reimers, Walters, Carson, Steinhauser and Sullivan left Monday morning for Omaha where they are attending the annual convention of the state association of county commissioners, supervisors, county clerks and register of deeds, being held in that city this week.

Richard Cockburn, of Lincoln, a representative of the state department for the welfare of crippled children, was in the city the first of the week looking up some of the crippled children in the county. We understand that there are fifteen in the county that would come under the supervision of the state child welfare bureau.

When the new court house is completed Holt county will have one of the most modern and up-to-date jails in the state. The jail is on the top floor of the building and there are cells for both male and female prisoners. Living rooms for the sheriff are also provided on the top floor and they will be occupied by Deputy Sheriff Bergstrom and family. The quarters are liable to be a little warm in the summer months, but my how nice and comfy in zero weather.
