The work on the new court house is about completed and the county board expects at a meeting next Monday with the architect and the contractor to formally accept the building. Furniture for the court room was received and installed the first of this week. The lineoleum is now being laid and it is expected that it will be in place by next Monday. Holt county officials will probably begin moving into the new building by the end of the month if weather is favorable.

During the week ending Jan. 30, 1937, there were 296 accidents in sale. the state in which 171 people were injured and four deaths. Of this number other public accidents again led the list with a total of 153, in which 46 people were injured and one death. Motor vehicle accidents numbered 79 in which 82 people were injured and one death. Agriculture employment account for 24 accidents in which nine people were injured. Industry employment accounted for 16 accidents in which 15 people were injured. Home accidents numbered 24 in which 19 people were injured. These figures are compiled weekly by the Nebraska State Press Association and the state superintendent of public instruction.

American Elm A Good Tree For Holt County

Despite the fact that many farmers have discarded the American Elm tree for the more popular D. H. Allen Chinese Elm, Holt county farmers are advised that it still has much merit. Local farmers and ranchers have made application for 17,200 General Motors Strike Clarke-McNary trees to date.

The agricultural conservation program, both in the farm and range divisions, is this year offering $10 per acre building payment for the planting of trees. Many operators are ordering trees now with this method of compliance in mind. Ranchers, especially, should be interested in tree planting in connection with earning their total range allowance.

The American Elm is recommended as one variety which will do well in most Holt county soils, although possibly not as well as Chinese Elm, Russian Olive, or Western Yellow Pine. Jack Pine are quite hardy but not as long lived as other varieties.
