Everett Young were dinner guests Sunday at Leo Beckwith's.

Henry Winkler of Atkinson, was out to see Ed Heeb Wednesday.

SHIELDS

The card party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walt O'Malley Sunday evening, Feb. 28, was a huge success. The evening was ideal and the crowd was just about right for all to enjoy themselves at this reunion which has been a rarity in the rural districts this winter. About 8:30 several tables were arranged, each to accommodate six players. Miss Bessie Brennan and Mrs. O'Malley passed the numbers and score cards, each table playing eight rounds when three premiums were given to the high scorers. Mrs. John Schmidt received the all-cut berry dish, Mrs. Lottie Hickey two bath towels, and Gerald Donohoe the "booby prize."

Immediately after, a real lunch was served that was enjoyed by all present. After supper several lively discussions took place and it surely was surpassed this splendid entertainment. Jim McDermott of O'Neill gave a short talk on the two lean years we had in 1935 and 1936, and claimed the farmers are in no position now to pay taxes for public expenditures that mean confiscation of individual property.

Tom Donohoe, John O'Malley and Jim Earley entered into a lively confab on the judicial reorganization and the opinion seemed to be that what the country needed was another attorney general as most of the political orators close their speeches with a government of the people, for the people and by the people, and not a government of one man. There were two pinch hitters in the argument, Jim Soukup and Walt Brennan that declared for a referendum.

John Donohoe and John Smith gave a little insight into the mon-
