

Taxi Cab War Flareup Terrorizes Chicago

Sights like this were not uncommon in Chicago's downtown "loop" section as "wrecking crews" of striking cab drivers attacked vehicles still being operated by loyal employees and strikebreakers. One passenger was reported shot and many ducked flying glass from cab windows shattered by missiles thrown by the strikers.

Stockings can become a very expensive item for the mother of school-children—who are always falling down and tearing big holes in the knees. Try this way of repairing an outside hole: Take a piece of strong net to match the stocking and place over the hole on the inside of the stocking. Then darn the hole with wool that exactly matches the stocking on the right side of the stocking through the net. The repair, you will find, will be scarcely visible.

If you store eggs with the small ends down they will keep better.

Your doughnuts will have that different flavor if one half stick of bark of cinnamon and four whole cloves are added to the fat used in frying them.

Filling for a sponge cake is made by creaming three ounces of fresh butter and six ounces of sifted icing sugar, adding two ounces of chopped pineapple and a little pineapple syrup.

A thin syrup of sugar and water flavored with almond essence is good to sweeten fruit cup.

When the frying pan becomes slightly burnt, drop a raw peeled potato into the pan for a few minutes. Then remove it, and all traces of burning will have disappeared.

MICKEY CATCHES AGAIN

After many months out of uniform, Mickey Cochrane, manager and catcher of the Detroit Tigers, is pictured here as he donned his war paint for a workout with the Tigers during their spring training trip in Florida. Cochrane was forced out in the later part of last season by injury and illness. He is now in the pink and rarin' to go. The tigers are regarded as pennant threats again this year, although much of their success admittedly depends upon the ability of Hank Greenberg to escape injuries and regain his 1935 slugging form.
