Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich drove down to Sioux City last Tuesday morning where the latter took the night train for Chicago and the rest of the party returned home.

Easter Sunday was one of the coldest and most disagreeable Easters in this section for several years. The coolness of the day prevented the usual Easter display of feminine apparel in the Easter parade.

Miss Mary Morrison went to Casper, Wyo., last Thursday night and spent the Easter vacation from her school duties with her sister, Mrs. Edward Davidson and family. She returned Tuesday morning.

Owners of dogs in the city should see that the licenses on their canine friends is paid or else they will be killed. Several have been exterminated during the past week and it will continue on all unlicensed dogs.

A deal was closed Monday by Ralph Beckwith and Abe Saunto for the purchase by the former of the Saunto residence in the northwestern part of the city. Mr. Beckwith has been farming northwest of this city for the past few years and is moving into the city to engage in the auto business.

This year promises to be a wet one for O'Neill. Applications are on file with the city clerk for ten beer parlors and five hard liquor dispensing places of business. Of the five hard liquor places of business, one will sell bottle liquor only, while the other four will sell liquor by the drink as well as by the bottle.

Roy Spindler, of Meek, who has been in the O'Neill hospital for the past three weeks recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia, was able to be out yesterday for a short time and again this morning. Roy looks rather thin from his long illness but says he is feeling fine and expected to be able to go home the latter part of the week.

Carl F. Hoppe has filed suit in the district court asking for a decree of divorce from Georginia Hoppe. In his petition he alleges that they were married on October 10, 1925, the ceremony being performed at Atkinson, and that ever since they have been residents of this county. He alleges that she deserted him on or about March 1, 1935, and that since that time she has absented herself from his home and refused to have anything to do with him. He asks for an absolute divorce, and the custody of their only child, Carl Frank Hoppe, 9, and such other relief as equity may require.
