BRIEFLY STATED

Mrs. Florence Compton of Lincoln, is here visiting her niece, Mrs. Alfred Brodersen.

Mayor John Kersensbrock and family spent Sunday visiting relatives and friends at Osmond.

Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell returned last Friday from a months visit with her daughters at Omaha and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King returned last Saturday from their wedding trip to the Iowa and Minnesota lakes and have gone to house-keeping in the cottage just east of the Davidson shop.

E. M. Gallagher entertained about fifteen friends with a picnic dinner and boating on the Lake on his Picadilly ranch Wednesday evening. Those present say they had an enjoyable time.

Miss Margaret Hammond and Miss Jane Parkins left last Sunday for Denver, Colo., where they will both spend the next month visiting relatives and enjoying the scenery in the Mile High city.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bergstrom and daughter, Betty, of Newcastle, Wyo., left this morning for their home after spending a week visiting at the home of Mr. Bergstrom's brother, Deputy Sheriff Bergstrom and family.

Mrs. Ambrose Rohde entertained the EOT club at her home Tuesday evening with bridge and a lunch. High score was won by Mrs. Florence Compton; second high by Mrs. J. P. Marron; traveling prize by Mrs. Larry Cain, and low by Mrs. F. M. Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Devlin of Kansas City, were in the city for a few hours visiting this morning, while on their way from a visit with relatives in South Dakota to their home. Mr. Devlin was a former resident of this city and met a few of his old time friends while in the city.

Malan Nettleman returned Monday night from Ft. Smith, Ark., with his new Chevrolet bus, and made his first trip over the route with the bus Tuesday morning. It is a fine looking job and the Norfolk-O'Neill bus line has two as fine looking busses as there are operating on any short line in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cheesman and daughter, of Kansas City, Mo., stopped in the city for a few hours this morning on their way home after a visit with relatives at Winner and Gregory, S. D. Mrs. Cheesman is a niece of T. A. Quilty. They informed Mr. Quilty that it rained all the way from Gregory to O'Neill.

Mrs. John Kersensbrock, Jack and Duke left Wednesday morning for Lincoln, where Jack will have his leg examined by the physician who had charge of him while he was confined in the hospital there. Jack is getting along nicely, but the physician wishes to examine the leg. They are expected to return home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hammond and daughters, Harriett and Mary Jean, returned last evening from a months visit with relatives and friends in California. Mr. and Mrs. Hammond and daughters left here July 6 and attended the wedding of their son and brother, William, at San Juan Capistrano, Cal., on Sunday, July 17. They say they had a splendid vacation and a good time while visiting on the coast.

Dr. and Mrs. Sherbahn returned last Sunday evening from a two weeks vacation which they spent at Lake Okoboji, Iowa. Dr. Sherbahn says they had a delightful vacation and that he had unusually good luck fishing and caught some dandies. He said that he was going to prove his statement that he caught a lot of good ones by showing us pictures of the catch to prove to doubtful ones that he was not spinning a fish yarn.

Announcement is made by the Chicago & North Western Railway that it has completed the refunding of payroll taxes to its employees, which began soon after the new federal pension act went into effect. About $1,150,000 was refunded. A total of 80,000 checks, covering refunds for both 1936 and 1937 have been sent out. The checks varied in amounts from $117.37 to one of 2 cents. It is believed that the North Western is the first of the large railways to complete its payroll tax refunding.

Mayor John Kersensbrock and F. J. and William Biglin, furnished the members of the Elgin and O'Neill bands, and the people from Elgin who accompanied their band here last Thursday night, with an ice cream and cake feed after the concert. When the O'Neill high school band was in Elgin a little over a week ago the citizens of that city entertained the band and the O'Neill citizens accompanying the band with ice cream and cake and these enterprising O'Neill merchants returned the favor.

Dorothy L. Humphrey has filed suit in the district court asking for a decree of divorce from Thame L. Humphrey. In her petition she alleges that they were married at Yankton, S. D., on Dec. 3, 1932, and that they have been since in fact all their lives residents of this county. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. Two children, one three and one two years of age were born to the couple and the mother asks an absolute divorce and the custody of the children, suit money, temporary alimony, permanent alimony and support money for the children and such other relief as the court may deem just and equitable.
