RESOLUTION
 WHEREAS, Samuel Becker is a poor person who is unable to earn a livelihood in consequence of bodily infirmity or other unavoidable cause, and

WHEREAS, William Bokhoff is a half-brother of the said Sam Becker, and is of sufficient ability to support and care for said Sam Becker, and is the only relative liable for his support under the provisions of Sec. 68-101 of the Statute, of sufficient ability to provide support.

NOW, THEREFORE, I move that the said William Bokhoff be, and he hereby is, directed to support and care for his half-brother, Samuel Becker; that a true copy hereof be served upon the said William Bokhoff; that if he shall fail to comply herewith and shall fail to support and care for said Samuel Becker, that legal action be instituted against him as by law provided.

Louis W. Reimer.
 Walter K. Smith.

The above resolution, on being put to a vote by the chairman, was declared carried.

12:00 noon. On motion, Board adjourned until 1:00 P. M.
 J. C. STEIN, Chairman.
 John C. Gallagher, Clerk.

Excavation for the office building of Emmet A. Harmon will be completed today and the work of construction will commence at once.

Some of those gals in bathing suits who win beauty prizes must have received their decisions from a packed court.

If those Soviet leaders were really smart they would save some of those firing squads to use on the Japanese.

A recent report from Sweden shows that there are less than 10,000 unemployed in the country. Pretty good showing for a country that can't afford a New Deal.

The week's worst pun: it is reported from Washington that the government will fix the price of tomatoes to permit the tomato growers to ketchup.

Little has been heard of late about the pirate submarine in the Mediterranean. Maybe it has gone on a sitdown strike.

Generally the fellows most anxious for war are those too old to fight and who have no sons to contribute to the cause.

Scratch a man who won't buy anything on installments unless he sees where the money is coming from, and you find a Tory.

BRIEFLY STATED

A linen shower was tendered Mrs. James McNally at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally last Tuesday evening at which the recent bride received many beautiful presents. Bridge was played for the amusement of the guests and a delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Lundgren and Mrs. Ben Harty drove down to Lincoln last Saturday morning to attend the Nebraska-Oklahoma game. On account of the heavy rain the ladies did not attend but Mr. Lundgren did and he says that it really rained during the contest. They returned home Sunday.

Jake Schweitzer came up from Milford last Friday for a few days visit with relatives and old time friends. Jake says that crops in that section are no better than they are in this county. He said they had a fair wheat crop but there was no corn except on the very low land, and it was light there.

Ralph Johnson, son of Rev. and Mrs. Johnson of this city, who is a freshman at Hastings college, during the past five weeks has played with the Hastings Concert band in five public appearances, at four ball games and pep rallies. He plays the clarinet. He was a member of the O'Neill high school band while attending high school here.

Mrs. C. J. Malone returned to this city Tuesday after having spent ten days visiting in Omaha and Lincoln. She went to Omaha Monday of the previous week to visit with her daughter, Florence, going from there to Lincoln to visit her daughter, Mildred, during the convention of the State Izaak Walton League, of which Mildred is secretary.

Business has picked up a little in the office of R. E. Gallagher, examiner of applicants for automobile drivers licenses. Up to 10 o'clock this morning, 2,807 licenses had been issued. As there should be nearly ten thousand in the county it can be seen that there are several thousand drivers who have not received their licenses, so their is liable to be quite a rush in this office during the next six weeks.

Mrs. Charles Wrede, Jr., has sold her ranch home to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Knoell of Fremont, Neb., who will move here in the near future. The transaction was handled by W. R. Easton of the Elkhorn Valley Real Estate company of Fremont, who represented both parties.

Examiner Hawkins of Lincoln, a representative of the transportation department of the Nebraska State Railway commission, was in the city last Monday and Tuesday examining applicants for truck drivers licenses in this county. Forty truck operators in this county were notified to be present for hearing on the two dates in which the examiner was here.

John Kersenbrock, C. W. Porter, H. L. Lindberg and K. A. Fenderson drove to Cody last Saturday night and put in a few hours Sunday hunting ducks in the lakes north of that place. The boys did not have very good luck, the day being too warm and the ducks wild. They said they saw thousands of ducks, but they were flying high and they succeeded in bagging only eight. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

They returned home Sunday afternoon.

John Kersenbrock, C. W. Porter, H. L. Lindberg and K. A. Fenderson drove to Cody last Saturday night and put in a few hours Sunday hunting ducks in the lakes north of that place. The boys did not have very good luck, the day being too warm and the ducks wild. They said they saw thousands of ducks, but they were flying high and they succeeded in bagging only eight. They returned home Sunday afternoon.
