INMAN NEWS

Mrs. Cora Crotty of Amarillo, Texas, arrived here Wednesday for a weeks visit at the homes of her nephews, E. L. and I. L. Watson. Mrs. Crotty, who has been visiting in the northern states for several months, is enroute to her home in Texas.

About twenty men with seven wagons met at the Emmet Stamp farm Saturday and picked his corn and did other things necessary to getting ready for winter. Mr. Stamp has been in bed for a number of weeks suffering with inflammatory rheumatism.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will hold their annual bazaar and supper Saturday afternoon and evening at their parlors. There will be many beautiful and useful articles on sale and supper will be served beginning at 5 o'clock.

The Inman Workers Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Smith Wednesday afternoon. This will be their annual Christmas party. A gift exchange will be the main feature.

The Coffee Club will hold their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. George Coleman on Thursday. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. A gift exchange will also be enjoyed.

Mrs. Emma Rishling, of Neligh, was here Wednesday looking after business for the R. N. A. lodge.

Miss Dolores Young, who operates a beauty parlor at Ewing, was called home this week on account of the serious illness of her father, William Young.

William Young is seriously ill at his home here. Reports Tuesday was to the effect that he was a little better.

The R. N. A. lodge met last Wednesday at the F. E. Keyes home. Election of officers was the main item of business. Officers elected were: Oracle, Mrs. Lottie Thompson; Vice Oracle, Mrs. F. E. Keyes; Recorder, Mrs. Della Britnell; Receiver, Mrs. A. N. Butler; Chancellor, Mrs. Mattida Keyes; Marshals, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Mrs. L. P. Mossman; Inner Sentinel, Mrs. L. R. Tompkins; Outer Sentinel, Mrs. L. Kopecky; Musician, Mrs. I. L. Watson.

Rev. and Mrs. Guy Dunning, of Wayne and Mrs. Bert Brodie, of Orchard, visited at the home of Mrs. Sarah Sholes here Monday. Lloyd Britnell son and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Britnell and daughter visited relatives at Neligh Tuesday evening.

The play "Safety First" given by the Junior class last Friday evening was a decided success. The cast, which included the entire junior class, was as follows: Jack Montgomery, young husband, Virginia Tomlinson; Jerry Arnold, an unsuccessful fixer, Jack Lewis; Mr. McNutt, a defective detective, Chas. Sorenson; Elmer Flannel, awfully shrinking, John Watson; Abou Ben Mocha, Turk from Turkey, Myriell Castor; Mabel Montgomery, Jack's wife, Virginia Watson; Virginia Bridges, her young sister, Helen Appleby; Mrs. Barrington, Bridges, Their mama, Arvilla Keyes; Zuleika, tender Turkish maid, Marjorie Moore; Mary Ann O'Finnerty, Irish cook lady, Anna Chudomelka.

The play was presented in a very creditable manner and was greatly enjoyed by all who saw it.

SHIELDS

On November 25 we celebrated our usual Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steskal. This dinner has been an annual custom for years. The relatives and a few of the immediate friends all flock together, arms laden with bundles, trooping in bulding with packages and excitement preparatory to the big turkey feed, to which all contributed and participated in. The climax came, however, when Allvin Wallnofer reflected light from his uncovered head to get ready. After insistent calls the hungry bunch was gathered in the spacious dining hall trying their best to look unconcerned about the savory odors which floated from the kitchen from the milk fattened turkeys that were soon to be devoured.

Browned turkey gravy, mashed potatoes, celery, and cranberries were soon being reordered as dish after dish was cleared of its burden. When the pumpkin pie and fruit salads were followed by a chaser we felt like a fully inoculated puritan. After dinner they settled down and began to play cribbage at several tables.
About 7:30 another feed was on served on the cafeteria style that was very appetizing and relished by all. After everything was cleaned away Miss Norene Barker staged a nice program, with the aid of the children from the district relative to the Pilgrim fathers that landed at Plymouth Rock. She conducted the program very nicely and her program was very appropriate for the occasion. Those present were: Pete Walnofer and family, Stuart; Alvin Walnofer, Meadow Grove; Leo Steskal, Edw. S. Earley, Norene Barker, O'Neill; Pete Farrell and family, Atkinson;

Bill Steskal and family, John Steskal and family. There were many little heads that were about down and out from eating so much Thanksgiving turkey, which they all enjoyed. Before departing they all wished Mr. and Mrs. Steskal many happy returns of the day.
