

The STORE of a thousand and one GIFT HINTS

A BAG For Every Mood

Perfect tribute to her taste; thoughtful expression of yours—any one of these beautiful bags! Adroitly draped fabric beauties . . . smooth, supple leathers . . . underarm or the new pouch styles . . . all, of course, exquisitely finished and fitted. Chose several for gifts now, while the collection is complete.

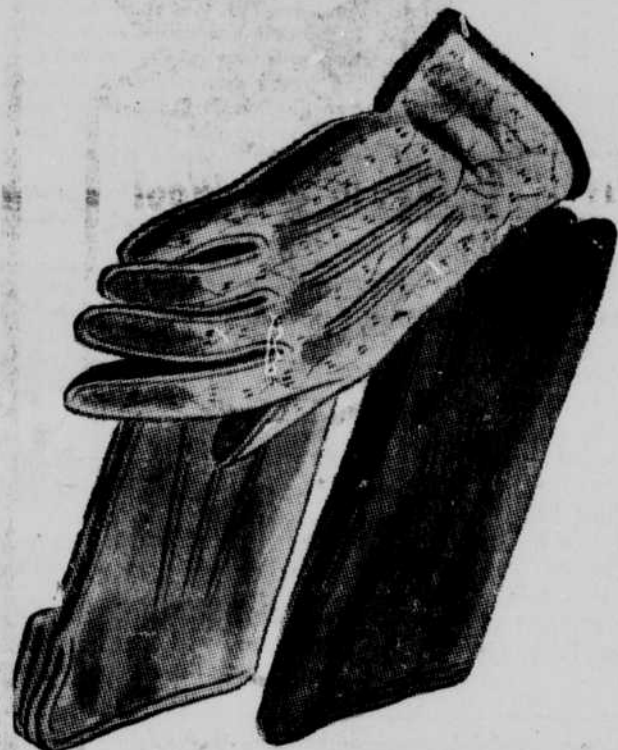

At Their Stylish Best When Making Christmas Calls

Its the fine tailoring and beautifully styled fabrics that make our young crowd coat fashions so popular and outstanding. We'll turn your daughter out to look her best to make you justly proud when you make those Christmas calls. Choose from a large collection of styles— classic boxy lines, wraparounds and princess referees. In fine warm wools—light, bright and dark colors.

RAYON HOSE

The gift that pleases every woman. Fine stock on hand.

GLOVES

Expressions of Friendship

Make no mistake about it, no woman has enough gloves. So one of the best Christmas gifts you could give would be a pair from our wide and new collection.

SUITS

That Are Right In Character

It isn't always the money you spend for a suit—it isn't always the fabric—it's both of these plus better tailoring.

SHIRTS AND TIES

Much wanted and deservedly popular lay-smooth collars are obvious proofs of quality in these fine shirts. Give a man ties, shirts or socks for Christmas and you hit home with a sure-fire success. We have in stock a large selection of fine ties.

ANTON TOY, QUALITY MERCHANDISE

PAGE NEWS NOTES (Continued from page Four)

Sunday as a guest of Miss Fontelle Wood at the Edgar Wood home. Lloyd Cork, Ralph Larson and Clifford Hahlbeck, of Ewing, went to Spencer Sunday evening where they spent several days duck hunting with Lloyd Cork of Spencer.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Asher were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Matschulat.

Capt. and Mrs. Wayne Matschulat, of Camp Polk, La., who had spent four days visiting at the home of Capt. Matschulat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Matschulat, left Saturday morning for Michigan City, Ind., where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Matschulat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bowman, before returning to Camp Polk.

Neighbors and friends of Mrs. Gerald Sazama gathered at the Jerry Sazama home Wednesday afternoon where Mrs. Sazama was honored at a miscellaneous shower. She received many lovely and useful gifts. A covered dish lunch was served.

Mrs. Luke Rakow was hostess to the members of the C. L. C. Club at her home last Wednesday afternoon. Ten members and three guests, Mrs. Herbert Steinberg, Mrs. Alfred Conner and Mrs. Bert Finley were present and spent the afternoon playing "Flea." Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess.

Oscar Spear and step-son, of Tuthill, S. D., were overnight guests Thursday at the Rollie Snell home. Mr. Spear was a former Page resident. He at one time owned and lived on the Crumley farm.

Duane, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finch, Jr., was thrown from his horse late Friday afternoon, receiving an injury to his head that necessitated his being taken to the hospital in O'Neill. He is showing slight improvement at this writing.

Mrs. Minnie White left Wednesday evening for California, where she will spend the winter with some of her children.

The W. S. C. S. Bazaar and lunch, that was held Saturday at the Methodist church parlors, netted the society over $55.00.

Postmaster and Mrs. B. H. Stevens received a telegram Tuesday morning from their son, Seaman 2-c Kenneth Stevens, that he had arrived in California from six weeks sea duty.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clasey and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson at O'Neill.

Pfc. Beverly Wanser has been transferred from Lowery Field, Denver, Col., to Las Vegas, Nevada, where he will spend the next seven weeks at gunnery school.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Tegeler were Sunday dinner guests at the Otto Terrill home.

Mrs. Earl Hurst was hostess to the members of the Contract Bridge Club at her home Friday evening. High score prize went to Mrs. Keith Weyer, the consolation to Mrs. Robert Gray. Mrs. Gray was a guest.

Donald Townsend, of the Federal Oil Co., of Osage, Wyo., visited last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Roy Townsend and with his grandmother, Mrs. Ida Townsend.

Ross Allen has been ill at his home the past week with "flu" and complications.

School was dismissed for an hour Tuesday morning so that the pupils could collect old clothing and rags. Quite a large amount was collected and will be turned in.

The Page High School Basketball team and their coach, Supt. Earl Hurst, went to Clearwater Tuesday evening where they played the Clearwater High School team. Clearwater's first team won by a score of 30 to 16. Page's second team were the winners by a score of 16 to 14. Page has two games next week on the home floor. On Tuesday they play St. Mary's of O'Neill and on Thursday they play Brunswick.

All of the grades of the Page Public school are making preparations for a program that is to be put on at the H. S. Assembly the Monday before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Williamson celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary at their home in Page on Monday, December 6. Mrs. Harold Williamson, a daughter-in-law, baked a very beautiful wedding cake which was used as a centerpiece for the table. Mrs. C. P. Leach, a daughter from Birmingham, Wash., sent a pair of gold-colored vases, one of which held cut flowers and the other $50.00 given the Williamson's by their children. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williamson and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Wood, of Kearney.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Harper and Mrs. Paul Petrow and children, of O'Neill, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. C. Tipton home.

FARMERS

Now is the time to buy that extra land. A Kloke Investment Company loan will make that purchase possible. The simple easy payments and Kloke's low rates are worth investigating. See your local Kloke representative or write

Kloke Investment Company
OMAHA

PILES

AND OTHER
RECTAL DISEASES

Cured By Office Treatment

M. P. SUMMERS
M. D.

605 E & W Bldg. Phone 5-7292
STIOUX CITY, IOWA

For Best Results

and satisfactory returns,
bring your livestock
to the

O'Neill Livestock Com. Co.
Phone 2 O'Neill, Nebraska

WHERE BUYER AND SELLER MEET

We Sell Every Monday