

"We Are Buying War Bonds—Are You?"

Part of Sgt. Edward Straube's left foot was shot away at Ferryville, near Bizerte, North Africa. At Halloran General Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y., they are building up his foot again. Sgt. Straube, from Perth Amboy, N. J., buys War Bonds regularly.

Sgt. Bernard Rello, 22, of New York, was wounded by snipers during the Sicilian campaign. His grandparents live in Naples, and he has a brother in the army. Both buy War Bonds regularly. Do you do as much?

Technician 5th Grade John A. Wlinski, 25, of Door, Mich., lost his right eye, three fingers and suffered chest wounds from shrapnel in the fight to capture Tunis. He is now recovering at Halloran and is a regular War Bond purchaser.

Pvt. Bernard Heidemann's left leg will be two inches shorter when he is discharged from Halloran. He was wounded by a German bullet during the operations in Sicily last August. His home is Chicago. He has been in traction since Sept. He's buying bonds.

The nickname of Pvt. Milton Lieberman, 27, of Brooklyn, is "Clark Gable." He was wounded in Sicily last August and was hospitalized at Halloran since October. Every payday $12.50 is taken out for War Bonds Lieberman is buying. How many do you buy?

Nebraska Wants Women In Army Corps

Nebraska's quota of women who volunteer for enlistment in the Women's Army Corps during the current WAC All-States recruiting campaign is based proportionately on Nebraska's total population as applied against total national casualties.

Women who enlist in the Women's Army Corps during the current WAC All-States recruiting campaign will wear the above type of identifying emblem of their State and Service Command.

"Nebraska wants at least one woman to take the place of every man of this state who is listed as a casualty or missing," Lt. Jacquart said today.

"Each state will have its own WAC Company to represent it, bearing the state's flag and arm secretary to airplane mechanic or radio operator. Women who are insignia of the state and the emblem of the State's Service Command."

The Women's Auxiliary Corps needs volunteers to fill 155 different types of jobs, ranging from unskilled to those requiring advanced WAC schools.

WACS receive regular army pay which includes food, quarters, clothing, and medical and dental care. There are opportunities for promotion as the Corps grows larger and larger, and women who qualify may have the opportunity to attend officer candidate school.

Members of the Nebraska WAC Company will be together throughout their basic training," Lt. Jacquart said. "They will have the opportunity to share their new experience with their friends and neighbors, and to work and train together as a unit representing Nebraska."

"Most of all, they will have the satisfaction of knowing that they are helping the war effort by doing real army jobs, and that the men of Nebraska will know that the women of Nebraska are doing their part as members of the Women's Army Corps. You can help Speed Them Back—Join the WAC!"

CLIP THIS RECIPE—CRANBERRY MUFFINS

2 cups sifted Mother's Best flour
4 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
1 cup coarsely chopped cranberries
2 eggs well beaten
1 cup milk
4 tablespoons shortening, melted.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and sugar and sift again. Add cranberries to 1/3 cup flour mixture. Combine eggs, milk and butter; add to flour mixture, beating only enough to dampen all flour. Fold in cranberries, bake in greased muffin pans in hot oven (425°) 25 minutes. Makes 18.

You Can Use MOTHER'S BEST Flour for ALL Baking

You bet you can use Mother's Best Flour for all your baking. It makes just as nice cakes and pastries as it does loaves of bread.

And here's the reason:

First, Mother's Best is a scientific blend of selected wheat... wheat that must pass many tests before it can be used for Mother's Best.

Second, before it's sacked, Mother's Best is sifted again and again through fine, hand-woven silks!

If you haven't yet tried this grand flour, do so soon. It's GUARANTEED to please you.
