Just to learn what a great flour Mother's Best is for bakin', get a sack of it this week, and try this 'Old-Fashioned Coffee Cake.' It's really luscious. You need:

1/2 cup mashed potatoes—1/2 cup potato water—1/2 cup shortening—1 cup sugar—5 cups Mother's Best (sifted)—1 cake yeast, softened in 1/2 cup warm water—2 well-beaten eggs—1 teaspoon salt.

Mix together potatoes, potato water, shortening and 1/2 cup sugar. Add 3 1/2 cups Mother's Best and softened yeast. Let rise until doubled in bulk.

Add eggs, salt, remaining sugar and flour. Beat, and let stand in warm place until light. Roll out 1/2 inch thick and place in 3 greased pans. Let rise until double in bulk, then spread with melted butter and mixture of: 1 cup Mother's Best Sifted—1/2 cup sugar—1 egg yolk, well beaten. Rub this mixture through coarse sieve over top of cake. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) 20 minutes.

Try that on your family some morning soon! And if you try it with Mother's Best Flour—you'll bake with Mother's Best from then on!

Senator Harry F. Byrd (Dem.) of Virginia has renewed his suggestion that the federal government reduce the number of its employees by 300,000 pointing out that of the more than three million persons now on Uncle Sam's payroll at least one out of ten is not needed and that it would promote efficiency to eliminate this large army of tax-eaters.

On the basis of Senator Byrd's figures, the government is wasting a mere $600,000,000 annually on superfluous employees, not to mention the waste in manpower. With this sensible proposal coming from a Democratic senator, there is no justification in accusing republicans of talking about waste in government just for political reasons.
