

Postwar Poland as Russia Wants It

According to plans announced by Moscow this is the possible geographic outline of Poland after hostilities cease. Russia proposes as Poland's new eastern boundaries, the Curzon line, suggested by the late Lord Curzon in 1919. Solid black areas are those parts of Poland which she would retain from the line of demarcation set by the German-Russian treaty of 1939, which in other respects matches the Curzon line. Poland would be enlarged by the acquisition of East Prussia, including the Danzig corridor, and Silesia.

Mascot Mao

Tony Mao, 10-year-old Italian boy who lost his family in the bombing of Avallino, is now the mascot of American troops in the Allied Fifth army. Tony has his own "G.I." uniform and even a half-pint rifle. He is shown being directed on an errand by Lieut. Anderson Smith.

WACS in India See Dancing Snakes, Sacred Cow

2 Billion New Ration Tokens Out Feb. 27

For several months, workers at a war plant in Cincinnati, Ohio, have kept it running 24 hours a day 7 days a week, turning out new red and blue ration tokens. This employee is working a press which prints 200 tokens a minute. Local banks will distribute the tokens to stores by February 27. On that date approximately 2 billions of the disks will be in use.

Labor Draft Chat

President Roosevelt as he read his third wartime "state of the Union" message in which he asked congress to enact national service legislation. He also recommended a "reasonable floor under the prices the farmer may expect for his production."

Natives' 3-Day Thirst Quenched by Navy

Precious water is doled out to natives on Makin island by men of the United States navy. The Japanese had prevented the natives from obtaining any water for three days before the American landing. Since our forces have invaded islands of the Gilbert group, Jap forces have retaliated only with nuisance air raids.
