Victory Parade

Top: This man, at a Laconia, N. H., ski manufacturing company, is smoothing a ski on a pneumatic drum. Right: With a new ski held in a bracket, this man is sitting on one end to test for flexibility.

Above: Civilian skis are generally given a natural wood finish. But army skis are whitened on the upper side so they will be harder to see against the snow. This worker is spraying a white non-reflecting camouflage paint on the "bedslats." Skis are new in warfare. During the Russian-Finnish war they came into prominence as a silent war was fought in the snowy wilderness where heavy mechanical equipment was stuck.

A worker stacks "bedslats" on drying racks. Later they will be waxed. Ski harnesses are not attached by workers but by troopers.

Swift white-clad warriors, who are semi-invisible against snow and who swoop to attack on smooth, silent skis, are aptly described as "ghost" troops. Their means of motion—skis—have risen to the status of a war weapon. Throughout the nation plants are rushing production of this weapon which was once known only to sportsmen.

Top: Ski troopers in action during maneuvers in the Colorado Rockies.

Left: A plant employee forms a Victory sign with a new pair of skis that may help to bring victory. Originally most skis were imported from Europe where the sport originated. Today American manufacturers have developed a ski which is believed to be superior to the European model. The ski pictured a.e cut from hickory boards and laminated. Let Hearts Be Gay on Valentine's Day! (See Recipes Below)

Cupid's Share

Hold on to your heart! Here comes Cupid ready to do tricks to your heart on Valentine's Day! It's time for a party with cute Dan Cupid reigning on a mighty throne.

February's a short, short month but with plenty of opportunity for party-giving. You can have a Lincoln's or Washington's birthday party, or you can be extra gay and colorful with a Valentine's party. These should be extra popular this year with the pepped-up pace of romance. If anyone in your crowd is about ready for a shower or wedding you might take the cue from Valentine's day and make Cupid's decorations your theme.

Pink-and-white or red-and-white are the gay color schemes and you can carry these out in both food and decorations. A simple but dramatic table picture is seen in the picture in today's column. Three large, red valentine boxes are set on their side in a row to form the main interest for the table. If you want to enlarge on this, get other pink-and-white or red-and-white decorations such as nosegays of roses and tie with a swirl of ribbon.

If you would rather carry this out in flowers, get a nice centerpiece of red-and-white flowers. But have a heart, somewhere along the way. If you have a valentine mold make a valentine cake or jelly mold and work out an arrow with a pastry tube or, if the cake is iced you might even put an arrow made out of red paper.

Here is a luscious salad that takes it easy on rationed foods:

*Molded Raw Cranberry Salad. (Serves 6 to 8)

- 2 cups raw cranberries, ground
- 1 envelope orange gelatine
- 1 cup chopped celery
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1 cup granulated sugar
- 2 cups water
- Juice of 1 lemon

Pour 1/2 cup water in a bowl. Add gelatine to water. Add 1/2 cups water and sugar and stir until dissolved. Add lemon juice. Set aside to cool. Grind raw cranberries, chop nuts and celery fine. Add these ingredients to gelatine. Place salad in one large

Lynn Says

Play Games, Too! Nothing's nicer than having fortunes told at a Valentine party. If you can't afford a professional, have someone dressed as a gypsy, arm her with a heavy glass crystal and booth, and let her go to town.

Letter games are fine for starting off a party. Give each guest a letter to tie around his neck as he enters, and as others appear, let each one dash around to others to make up words. When words are formed, guests appear in front of a person who takes down their names. Prize goes to person appearing in most words.

Novel idea for a scavenger hunt which needn't take you outdoors. Select about 10 guests and make them have something unusual. For example, have a man with two unmatched socks, a girl with two different colored hair bows, someone who wears his watch on the left arm, a girl with two different colored earrings, etc. Everyone is provided with a list of above so he knows what to look for. As he finds the person, he writes down the name. The one finished first gets the prize. Save Used Fats or several individual molds and let jell until firm. Serve with lettuce or greens.

These clever ham roll-ups add a colorful and festive note to your menu. They're simple to make if you just follow directions:

- Ham Roll-Ups. (Makes 4 Roll-ups)
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 2 1/2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Pepper
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 cup grated American cheese
- 4 slices leftover boiled or baked ham, sliced thin
- 8 asparagus tips

Blend fat, flour and seasonings. Gradually add the milk. Stir until thick and smooth. Add cheese and stir until it has melted. Cut ham in thin slices 4 x 6 inches. Roll two asparagus tips in each slice. Secure with toothpick, place in a shallow pan and surround with cheese sauce. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 15 minutes. Insert sprigs of parsley at end of each ham roll. Serve at once.

Get out your heart-shaped cutter if you want to make sandwiches. For a simple children's supper party or for valentine refreshments for grown-ups, serve heart shaped sandwiches filled with chicken salad and garnish the platter with buttered beets cut in heart shapes. Strawberry and vanilla ice cream with little sugar cookies—a tiny motto candy heart placed in the center of each cookie—is effective.

This chicken sandwich spread may be prepared the day before it is used to fit in the day's schedule:

- *Chicken Sandwich Spread.
- 4 cups finely minced chicken
- 1 can pimientos, finely minced
- 1/2 cup pickle relish
- 1/4 cup grated onion, if desired
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Mayonnaise to moisten

Thoroughly mix all ingredients and store in refrigerator until ready to use.

Cherries can make food decorative for any Valentine party whether they are used in cake or pie:

Champion Cherry Pie.

- Crust:
- 1 1/2 cups bread flour
- 10 tablespoons lard
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 5 to 6 tablespoons ice water

Sift flour and salt together, add lard and blend. Add ice water gradually and cool.

Filling:
2 1/2 cups pitted sour cherries, drained
1/2 cup cherry juice
2 1/2 tablespoons fine tapioca
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon butter

Soak tapioca, sugar and salt in cherry juice and let stand while pastry is being made. Then mix well with cherries, add butter and put in pie tin. Bake pie for 10 minutes at 450 degrees, then reduce temperature to moderate or 350 degrees and bake for 20 minutes. Turn off oven and let stand at oven temperature for 20 minutes before removing from oven.

Tower of Justice

Although a leaning pagoda of Indo-China leans more than its famous counterpart at Pisa, Italy, it was built to lean as a "barometer of justice." As the administration of justice becomes less equitable, the tower, in native fancy, leans lower and lower. The remarkable tower is 80 feet high and was built 200 years ago.
