Like to feel important?

YOU'LL BE IMPORTANT —to your country, and to your fighting men—if you take over a vital job in the Army.

In the Women's Army Corps you'll get expert Army training that may pave the way to a postwar career. You'll have a chance to improve your skill or learn a new one—to meet new people, see new places, have experiences you'll remember all your life.

Get full details about the WAC at any U. S. Recruiting Station. Or Write for interesting booklet. Address: The Adjutant General, 4415 Munitions Bldg., Washington 25, D. C. (Women in essential war industry must have release from their employer or the U. S. Employment Service.)

CHECKS provide the answer. If you are helping to win this war, your time is valuable. Don't waste it going from place to place, paying bills with cash. Don't use up gasoline and tires needlessly. Pay by check —by mail—instead. Men and women are invited to start checking accounts here. Simply come to the bank with your first deposit.
