This Thanksgiving Season, perhaps more than any other, should be a time for giving thanks to a kind Providence for the good things that have come to us.
 There's much for which to be thankful.
 Our industries have met the challenge of war. With fortitude and skill workers have labored long hours, producing all of the things needed to wage victorious battle.
 Our farmers have toiled to produce larger and ever larger yields. A "salvo" to them, and their Victory Garden "cousins," for the miracles they have performed in feeding a nation and its fighters.
 Our railroad workers continue their untiring, round-the-clock effort. On them has fallen the responsibility of moving millions of uniformed men, equipment and supplies. Their accomplishments have amazed a nation.
 Our armed forces are pushing forward in every theatre of war—forward to the complete collapse of the Axis powers—forward, ever forward, to the day when every uniformed American will be home again. To them, our undying gratitude!

Yes, there is a "break in the clouds of war"—an ever-widening break. Final Victory is coming, and here at "North Western" we are thankful for the privilege that is ours to play a part in the swift-moving drama.
