

The O'Neill Livestock Commission Co.
will have for their Auction on MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20 a Special Consignment of Fifty High Class Angus Breeding Cows from 4 to 5 years old.
All of one brand, fresh from pasture - 6 Cows have Calves by side.
These cows will be sorted in load lots to suit the buyers.

R. H. Shriner
GENERAL INSURANCE
O'Neill Nebraska
PHONE 106
Wind & Tornado, Trucks & Tractor, Personal Property
REAL ESTATE, LOANS, FARM SERVICE, RENTALS

CHAMBERS ITEMS
(Continued from page four)

fields are now picked. Though there is much soft corn in the country there is also lots of corn of good quality. The yield ranges from thirty to fifty bushel per acre.
Several loads of turkeys have gone out of the community this week, but there are still plenty of turkeys to go. We hope the boys from Holt county all get home grown turkeys for Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Genevieve Bell has moved into a cabin at C. E. Tibbets.
A family dinner was held Sunday at the Clarence Kiltz home. Those present were: Mrs. Addie Kiltz, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kiltz, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Glee Grimes, Jim Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adams and boys, Mrs. Lois Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Grimes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and family, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harley and family, Mary Lou Butts and Neva Jarman.

Mrs. H. C. Walter spent Monday afternoon at Mrs. C. V. Robertson's.
Mr. and Mrs. Art Fluckey received word from the War Department that their son, Pvt. Loy Fluckey was slightly wounded. Loy had been back in action about two weeks after being released from the hospital because of a previous wound.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffman and family enjoyed a six o'clock dinner at the Ed Eisenhauer home Sunday, in honor of Louanne's birthday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mitchell took Clarence Young to Norfolk Thursday to have his eye treated.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Farrier and boys were Sunday dinner guests at the Harry Scott home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bourne left Sunday for their home at Colorado Springs, Co., after a visit with relatives at Chambers.
C. E. Martin is on the sick list.
Mrs. Mary Price, of O'Neill, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Nachtman and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Duane Carson and Patty visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanel and family at Atkinson Sunday.
Eunice Couch spent Saturday night and Sunday with Luetta Lenz.
The Valley Center Project Club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kiltz with nineteen members and two visitors present. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. E. Wandersee. The singing was led by the music leader, Mrs. C. V. Robertson. The health leader, Mrs. Clarence Kiltz, the reading leader, Mrs. R. E. Childers and war service leader, Mrs. Kenneth Adams, each gave a short talk. Lt. Thelma Kiltz gave a very interesting talk about her work in the army hospital. The leaders, Mrs. H. C. Walter and Mrs. Paul Roth presented the lesson on Christmas gifts and displayed the articles they had made. Refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and coffee were served by the refreshment committee.
Mr. and Mrs. Morty had dinner Sunday at the Wm. Jutte home.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roth and son, Harvey, of Columbus, came Saturday for a visit at the Paul Roth home.
Mr. and Mrs. John Couch received word that their son, T-5 Lawrence Couch had arrived safely at his destination in the South Pacific.

INMAN ITEMS

The W. S. C. S. met in the Aid Parlors Thursday. They are still working on their bazaar, which will be held Saturday, December 9.
The primary department of the Inman Methodist church are working on a Thanksgiving program to be given November 26, during the church hour.
Mrs. Nora Griffith, of O'Neill, Miss Mildred Keyes and Herbert Rouse went to Omaha Friday afternoon. Mrs. Blanche Rouse and Marjorie, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, returned home with them Sunday afternoon.
The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs.

THE POCKETBOOK of KNOWLEDGE by TOPPS

Liquidated Assets

By WILLIAM MURDOCH
McClure Syndicate—WNU Features.

At the office, Henry Bigelow blinked as a sudden thought jolted his attention from his ledger. Laying aside his pen he fumbled around in his coat pocket, his thin face flooded with unhappiness. "It slipped my mind completely..."
And at home Mrs. Henry Bigelow vainly tugged at the handle of the gushing cold water faucet in the bathroom wash bowl. If that wasn't just like Henry! "I told him all along that some day this tap would stick for good!" she muttered through tightly clenched teeth.
"And probably he forgot it just as promptly," his scowling wife gaped. But there was $50 at stake. Mrs. Bigelow applied herself with renewed vigor in a frenzied attempt to halt the flow and, for her efforts, was rewarded with the tap handle which came free neatly and cleanly, permitting the water to gush forth utterly without restraint. "Oh!" she wailed.
She glanced at her wrist watch which she had removed and placed on the window sill before washing her face. Eleven-forty in expiration. Only a few minutes before her name had been read over the radio by the Fifty-Dollar-Man. Unless she called in person at the radio station at or before twelve-thirty sharp she would forfeit the fifty dollars which was awarded on the first day of every month to the lucky listener whose name was announced. But what about this water which threatened to overflow the stopped-up bowl at any minute?
Happily, forgetful Mr. Bigelow had neglected to remove from the bathroom the pan in which he had heated his shaving water that morning. Mrs. Bigelow snatched it up and started bailing, transferring water from the brimming bowl to the tub. Then it suddenly dawned on her. "Why, I'll have to keep this up until Henry comes home tonight and turns off the valve in the basement!" she exclaimed in a shocked voice. She couldn't leave even long enough to call for help, because the whole place would be flooded if she did. Mrs. Bigelow dashed a painful of water into the tub.

He wondered what his wife was doing right about now.

"Then I can't possibly get down to the radio station in time to collect the money!" she stormed at her outraged reflection in the medicine chest mirror. She bailed again and gazed at her watch. Eleven-fifty. Five minutes to finish dressing, and fifteen more to get to the radio station. Add fifteen minutes for the return trip... in that time the entire second floor and half the first might be washed away!
It was agonizing. Her feverish lading gained a good three inches of clear porcelain bowl over the swirling water and she rushed out of the room. If she could only reach the basement in time! But she couldn't. For at the landing she was stopped by the sound of splashing water. Practically she skipped up the stairs and resumed her task. Eleven-fifty-nine. Her arms worked no more furiously than her mind. Someone would pay for this, and his initials were H. B. I. If she could see him now, just for a minute...
She would have seen him wince. For Henry, at the office, took an envelope from his pocket and grimaced when he saw the memorandum on the back. He had forgotten that, too. But this other remissness—He gave a sigh, which was closer to a groan, and pulled out the letter. It bore a week-old date.
"Dear Mr. Bigelow:" it read, "According to our records, your bill has not been paid in seven months and you have disregarded our previous notices of delinquency. While this is undoubtedly an oversight on your part, we must serve final notice that unless your account is brought up to date, water service to your home will be discontinued promptly at twelve o'clock noon on the first day of next month." It was signed, "Municipal Water Bureau."
Henry slowly raised his eyes and sneaked a troubled glance at the calendar on the office wall. The first. Then at the clock. Precisely twelve-thirty. He closed his mournful eyes and rested his aching head in his hands. The water had been shut off at his home for the last half-hour. He wondered what his wife was doing right about now.

of Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and family Tuesday evening.
Ralph Beckwith, of O'Neill, was a caller in Emmet Friday evening.
T-4 Gary Embody, of Texas, is spending several days visiting at the W. R. Tenborg home.
Mrs. Ruth Wagon was a caller in Atkinson Thursday afternoon.
Sadie Marie Lowery was on the sick list last week.
Robert Fox spent Thursday night at the Henry Kloppenborg home as Donald's guest.
Mrs. Alex McCornell called on Mrs. Homer Lowery Friday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith and Leona Ferne were dinner guests at the Harden Anspach home in O'Neill Sunday.
Mrs. Ed Heeb and daughter, Edna Kay, were callers at the Henry Kloppenborg home Sunday morning.

Eagle Creek 4-H Club Holds Election Of Officers

The Eagle Creek 4-H Club held a meeting at the home of Edward, Bob, and Mary JoAnn Hynes. The president, John O'Neill, called the meeting to order. The roll was called and three members were absent. Those absent were Lois and Richard Doty and Stanley Benson.
It was decided to elect new officers for the coming year. Before voting Mrs. O'Neill suggested a new way of voting. Previously she had voted by ballot, but this time we voted by raising our hands and closing our eyes. The new officers are as follows: Leader, Mrs. Arthur O'Neill; Assistant Leader, Walter Sire; President, George Mellor; Vice-President, Jack Moller; Secretary, Jennie Beth Mellor; News Reporter, Mary JoAnn Hynes; Song and Cheer Leader, Edward Hynes.

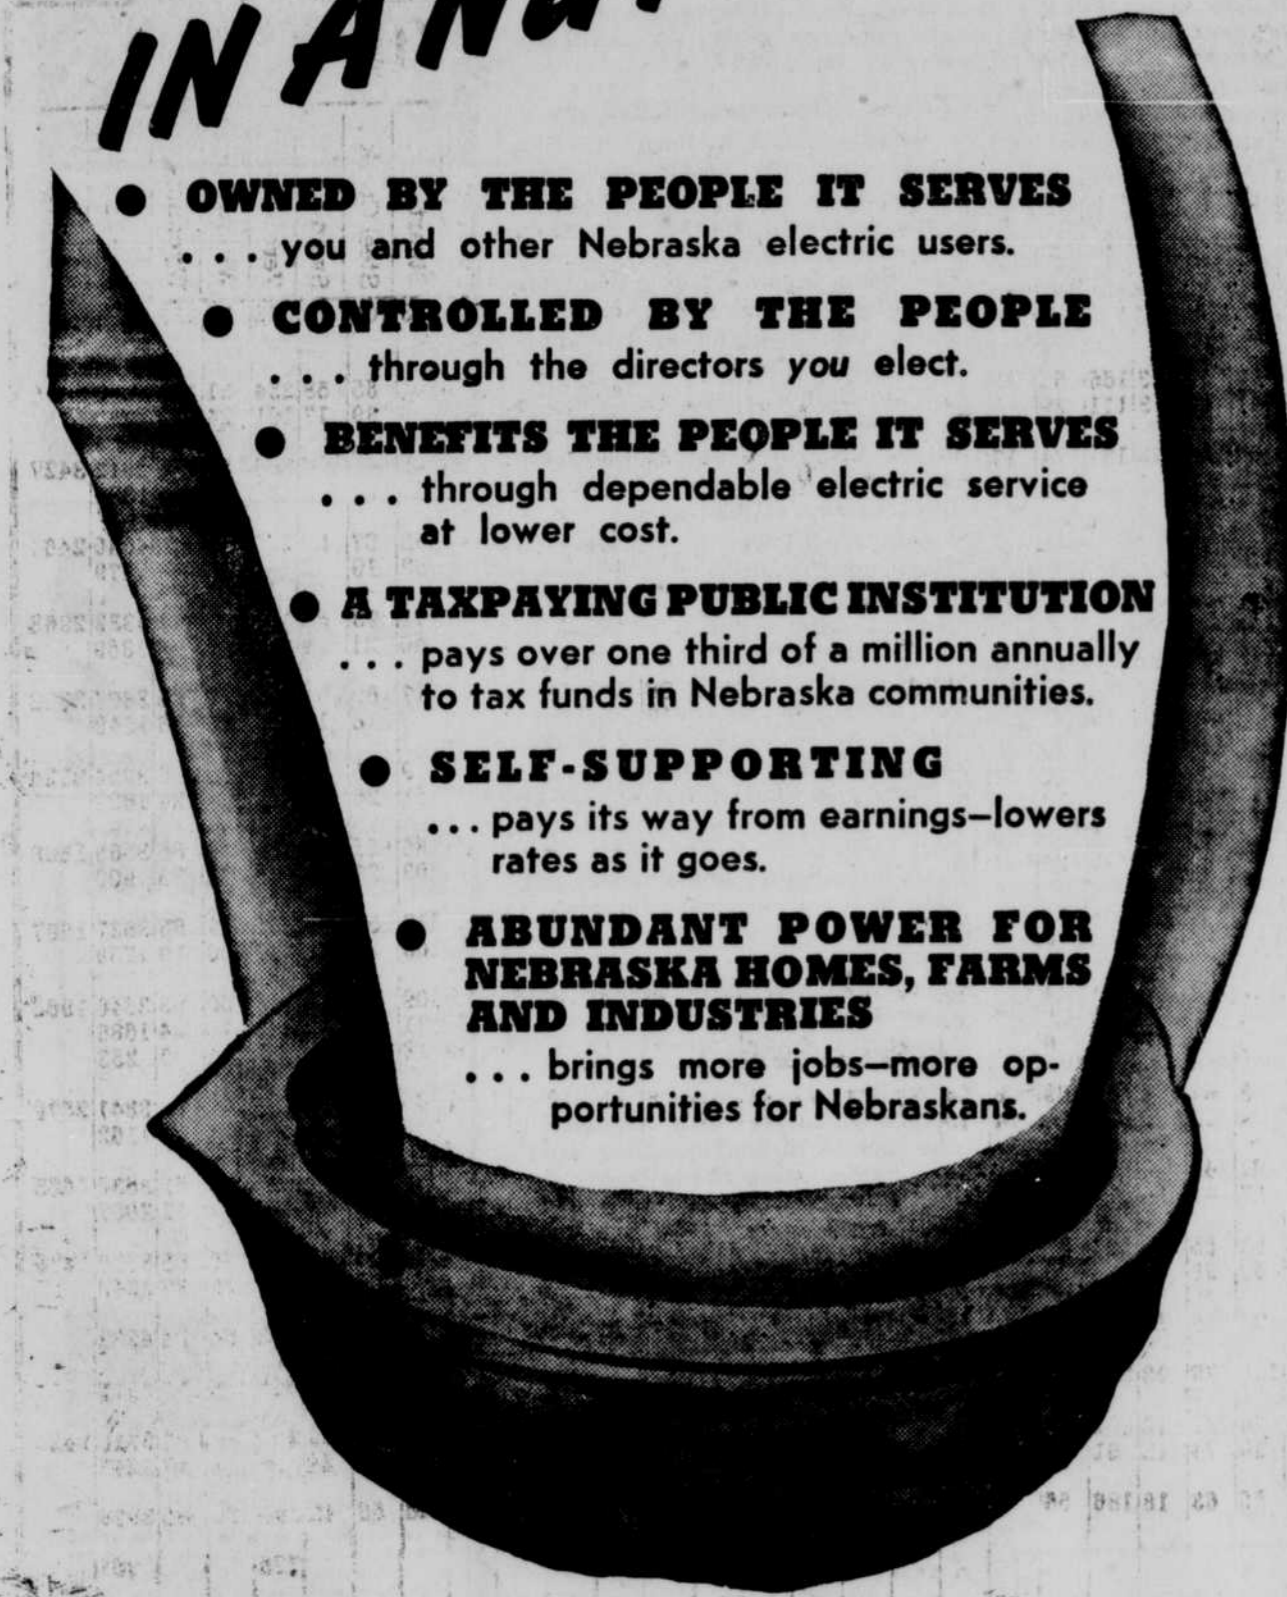

We voted on and decided to hold our meetings about every six weeks. The next meeting will be held at the home of Doris and Donald Sterns on December 17, where we will have a Christmas party and exchange gifts. To help the Song and Cheer Leader at this meeting the new president appointed a committee, Doris Sterns and John O'Neill, who were to help arrange to play games, etc.
Our Leader gave out prize money received by the members for showing their calves at the Cal Show and Sale at O'Neill. The total amount of money received by the club was $63.25. Also Mrs. O'Neill gave Mary JoAnn Hynes and Jennie Beth Mellor a Blue Ribbon which they received for the demonstration at Lincoln.
Edward Hynes made a motion that the meeting adjourn and several others seconded it. After the meeting a delicious lunch was served.

BRIEFLY STATED

Miss LaVeta Lehn spent the week-end in Wahoo, visiting at the home of her mother.
Mrs. J. P. Brown spent Wednesday in Sioux City.
Mrs. E. M. Gallagher will entertain the Contract Club at several extra guests at dinner at the M and M this evening. She will have five tables. Following the dinner the guests will go to the Gallagher home for cards.
Mrs. Ira Moss spent several days the past week in Norfolk.
William J. Froelich spent the past week here in O'Neill visiting his family. He returned to Chicago Monday.
Mrs. Mary Wetzel spent the past week at Gregory, S. D., visiting at the home of her mother.
Miss Dorothy Larson spent Sunday in Atkinson visiting friends.
Mrs. Edward Campbell entertained sixteen guests at a seven o'clock dinner at the M and M Sunday evening. Later they went to the Campbell home for cards.
Bennett Grady spent Saturday in Omaha, attending the Bankers Convention.
Mrs. H. L. Lindberg, Mrs. H. G. Kruse, Mrs. C. W. Porter and Mrs. J. D. Osenbaugh will be co-hostesses tonight at a seven o'clock dinner for twenty-four guests at the Lindberg home. The evening will be spent playing bridge.
Staff Sgt. Robert Dean Ott left Monday for Presque Isle, Maine, after spending a fifteen day furlough visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ott.
Miss Mabelle Bauman spent the week-end at her home in Atkinson.
Flight Officer Gene McKenna arrived last Sunday from Lincoln to spend a twenty-one day leave visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. McKenna.
Pharmacist Mate 1-c Charles Yarnall arrived last Thursday from Richmond, Va., on a seven day leave to visit his wife, family and other relatives and friends.
Patrolman Harry Brit, of Norfolk, spent Wednesday in the city on business.
Anton Toy left Sunday for Omaha, where he will spend several days attending market week.
Miss Mildred Cavanaugh came up from Hastings Wednesday, to spend several days visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Cavanaugh.
Mrs. J. J. Harrington left last Monday for Sioux City, where she is expected to spend several days on business.

HERE'S THE STORY IN A NUTSHELL!

- OWNED BY THE PEOPLE IT SERVES... you and other Nebraska electric users.
- CONTROLLED BY THE PEOPLE... through the directors you elect.
- BENEFITS THE PEOPLE IT SERVES... through dependable electric service at lower cost.
- A TAXPAYING PUBLIC INSTITUTION... pays over one third of a million annually to tax funds in Nebraska communities.
- SELF-SUPPORTING... pays its way from earnings—lowers rates as it goes.
- ABUNDANT POWER FOR NEBRASKA HOMES, FARMS AND INDUSTRIES... brings more jobs—more opportunities for Nebraskans.

YOUR CONSUMERS

Owned by the people

Serving Nebraska from border to border

EMMET NEWS

Sunday school will begin at

Thank You!

The State's Champion Beer congratulates Nebraska voters on their sensible consideration of the Prohibition question. We at Storz promise ever-increasing vigilance in the policing of tavern conditions, and in justifying your confidence in us.

STORZ BREWING CO. - OMAHA