Europe's Children Fight While U. S. Tots Play

Every day is play day for Jimmy, Judith and Barbara and the rest of their American playmates. In Europe, it is a sadly different story. Upper right shows four German children arrested in Aachen area for firing on American troops. According to rules of war they may be shot. Lower right shows a guard of honor of Loutakhi, Greece, children lined up to greet the Tommies when the British troops crossed the Corinth canal and liberated their village. They had been serving with the Greek underground.

In This Corner—the Winners

Another term in the White House has been assured for Franklin D. Roosevelt, who together with his running mate, Harry S. Truman, right, received a total of 432 electoral votes, 17 less than the Democrats secured in 1940. Truman, senator from Missouri, gained nationwide fame as head of the committee investigating war expenditures. Dewey and his running mate secured a total of 99 electoral votes, unless late soldier votes change the picture, which is not considered likely by most political observers.

Wives of Winners

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, upper; and Mrs. Harry S. Truman, wife of the newly elected vice president of the United States. Unlike the first lady of the land, Mrs. Truman takes little part in politics or in public life activities. Mrs. F.D.R. says she is ready for new term.

Sleeps One Year, Still Grows

Four-year-old Dickie Shipman fell downstairs in his Seville, Ohio, home a year ago, and although he has grown, he has been unconscious or semiconscious since that time. He is being moved to Cleveland, where leading specialists will treat him. At the time of his accident doctors said that he could not recover.

Stalin Hits Japs

Premier Stalin, of Russia, is shown in this radio photo as he addressed the Soviet Union. He castigated Germany and Japan as aggressor nations. His talk renewed speculation that the Soviet Union will make available some of its resources to the Allies of the Pacific war. Whether this aid would include full participation, or would cover uses of Russian bases has not been determined. Russia's position in northeast Asia is even more vulnerable than Japan's.

Too Late for Treasure Hunt

Insert shows Rudolph Wickel of Verona, N. J., as he left for Holyoke, Mass., to dig up a bonanza of $1,000, whose location was told him as a studio guest on a quiz program. Others heard the program, and Wickel arrived to find that Jose H. Roy and his 14-year-old brother-in-law, Henry Martell, already had the money, as shown above.
