SCHLECHT-MOLLHOFF
 A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul Lutheran church Buffalo Creek, near Tilden at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, December 10, 1944, when Miss Leona Mollhoff became the bride of Victor Schlecht, of Clearwater, Neb.
 A white arch decorated with pink, blue and yellow roses and a tiny atface fence outlined entwined with sweet peas outlined the altar.
 Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Kenneth Berg, of Meadow Grove, sang, "Whither Thou Goest," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Walton Grant, also of Meadow Grove. They wore green and pink formal respectively.
 The bridal party advanced down the aisle to the strains of Moonlight Revere wedding march played by Mrs. Awald Saume, sister of the groom.
 Miss Emma Mullhoff, sister of the bride, and Miss Victoria Schlecht, twin sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaids; the former wore a pink silk brocaded floor length dress and corsage of variegated carnations with white accessories. The latter wore a sheer pink marquisette over pink silk, floor length dress with white accessories and a corsage of variegated carnations.
 They were attended by Alvin Schutt and Wilbur Reinke, cousins of the groom. They wore dark brown and dark blue suits respectively and each wore a white carnation.
 They preceded Paul Mollhoff the groom's best man, a brother of the bride; he wore a blue pinstriped suit and a white carnation. Mrs. Paul Mollhoff, his wife, acted as matron of honor; she wore a sheer, light blue floor length dress over blue taffeta and pink and white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.
 They preceded the little flower girls, Lois Sanne, niece of the groom, and Judy Kay Mollhoff, niece of the bride; they wore floor length rose colored taffeta gowns and carried white baskets of rose buds and sweet peas.
 The bride beautifully attired in a floor length gown of sheer white rayon brocade, with shirred front bodice; was accompanied by her father to the altar who gave her to the groom, who appeared from the vestry. He wore a dark blue suit and wore a white carnation.
 The bridal veil and train was of white illusion boriert in Chantilly lace and cap was embroidered in small pearl beads. She wore a bracelet and necklace a gift from the groom and carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and baby's breath tied with ribbon streamers, which completed the bridal ensemble.
 The double ring ceremony was used, Rev. Gerhard Walter a cousin of the groom, read the marriage lines.
 Arnold Sanne, brother-in-law of the groom and Theodore Whitwer were the ushers.
 A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents near Tilden. A sumptuous six o'clock dinner was served to about fifty relatives. The pink and blue color scheme predominated in the table decorations. A three tiered white wedding cake decorated in pink roses and tiny blue doves, topped with a miniature bride and groom formed the centerpiece. It was baked by the bride's sister, Miss Emma Mollhoff. Mrs. Walter Lang and Mrs. Harold Sanne were waitresses.
 The bride is a charming young lady, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mollhoff and grew to womanhood in a farm near Tilden. She graduated from the Tilden High school with the class (Continued on page five)
