

How to Win Friends and Prevent Future Wars

American troops in all corners of the globe have won the admiration of the youngsters of every nation. Many of the war orphans have been adopted by individuals and units of the U. S. armed forces. Congressional leaders in war zones have reported that the American soldier and sailor are doing more to prevent future wars, by their cooperation with children, than any act of congress.

'Fighting Third' Giving a Good Account of Itself

The U. S. Third army has given an excellent account of itself during the entire war. Upper left, shows Maj. Gen. E. V. Landrum addressing officers and men during lull in activities somewhere in northern France. Lower left, largest ordnance tractor, used to haul 8-inch and 240-mm. guns for Third army. Center, searching streets for lurking Nazis. Right, Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, commanding general of the Third army.

Take Nazis in Greenland

On an isolated stretch of northeast Greenland, U. S. coastguardsmen surprised and captured a German radio-weather station, last enemy outpost in Greenland. A 183-foot Nazi trawler and its crew was also captured in nearby waters. Above shows coastguardsmen moving captured radio supplies.

Greek Elas Troops Man Guns

Elas troops with machine guns and rifles are shown in the streets of Piraeus, where British and Greek mountain brigade forces extended their holdings despite local Elas attacks. The drive of the leftist Elas forces on the center of Athens appeared to have been halted and the most dangerous phase in turmoil evidently passed.

One-Arm Hunter

The loss of an arm while deer hunting three years ago didn't prevent Earl Hast, 31, of Castle Shannon, Pa., from bagging this 160-pound buck. Hast shows how he shoots his rifle on a tripod.

Swiss President

Eduard Von Steiger, above, former member of the Swiss Federal Council, was recently elected president of Switzerland for 1945. He belongs to the Farmers' party.

Long, Long Trail to Russia

More than 4,380,440 tons of war implements and goods from America's factories to Russia, have been shipped through the Persian Corridor. The goods are sent by rail and truck across some of the most varied and difficult terrain in the world. This is the only theater where the Russians, British and Americans are fighting together.

Jap Balloon Lands in Montana

Barber Business Boycotted

Tots Raise Cubs on Bottle

Judith Snow feeds "Diana," who is being held by Neil Smith, while "Donna" on the scales, looks on. These two lion cubs are three weeks old, and because they were deserted by their mother, they were "adopted" by Mrs. Herman Snow, San Francisco. When they can feed themselves, they will be returned to the zoo.

Admiral a Lawyer

The honorary degree of doctor of laws was recently awarded Adm. C. W. Nimitz, USN, by Fordham. The citation read, "modest, patient, brilliant and courageous. He has proved himself an admiral's admiral—and American's American."

Mindoro Leaders

Hero-Mayor at Sea

The above photo of Carl Zeidler, the last taken before he was lost with his ship, when it was sunk off the west coast of South America, was carried all over the world. It was just sent to Milwaukee where he was elected mayor at the age of 34.

Ike's Driver Weds

WAC Corp. Pearl Hargrave, Pilsen, Minn., chauffeur for General Eisenhower, who recently married Sgt. Michael McKeogh, the commander's orderly. Ike attended the wedding.

Jolly Duck for Toy Or Lawn Ornament

THIS wheelbarrow is easy to make from scraps of lumber. The wheel is cut out of wood and held in place with a bolt. You may be able to salvage a metal wheel from some discarded toy. The ducks are cut out of plywood with a jig saw or by hand with a copying saw. You may like to outline the ducks onto the wood and take it to your nearest woodworker to be cut. They are then nailed to the sides of the wheelbarrow and the fun of painting and stenciling begins. You just trace the pattern on the wood and follow the color chart to get that wise expression in their big black eyes and the life-like yellow bills and feet.

NOTE—Pattern 258 gives an actual-size cutting and painting pattern for the large wheelbarrow ducks and for smaller ducks to be used for lawn ornaments or applique designs. Large diagrams showing how to cut and assemble the wheelbarrow and a complete list of materials required are included. Ask for pattern 258 and enclose 15 cents with name and address, direct to:

Villager's Interest Was Not of an Earthly Sort

The stranger visiting the little town was staying at the local hotel. Feeling a bit lonesome, he sought to strike up a conversation with the hotel keeper, a woman. "The villagers hereabout seem to be very friendly," he said. "Oh, you don't know them yet," the woman replied. "Come, come now," protested the lodger, "they're not too bad. Why just this morning the chap with the little workshop down the street apiece asked about you. He said that you'd been ailing a bit lately. He seemed quite interested. Is he a relative?" "No!" replied the lady sharply, "he's the village undertaker!"
