

'Waddy's Wagon' Comes to Life at Saipan

The crew of "Waddy's Wagon," fifth B-29 to take off on the initial Tokyo mission from Saipan, and first to land, pose to duplicate their caricatures on the plane. Upper left shows Brig. Gen. Haywood S. Hansell of San Antonio, Texas, who commands the 21st bomber command of the 20th air force. Upper right, Col. Byron E. Bruggs, left, of Tampa, Fla., and Brig. Gen. Emmett O'Donnell of Jamaica, L. I., N. Y., as they were launching the B-29 raids on Tokyo.

Burning Navy Plane Saved Aboard Carrier

'New and Old' Transportation

An oxen wagon loaded with supplies for the U. S. army rolls slowly by as a modern war plane comes in for a landing on a newly constructed runway, somewhere in China. Many of the landing fields were constructed with the aid of Chinese labor, and their ever faithful and hard working teams of oxen.

Congressmen Aboard Carrier

GI Show in Belgium

U. S. servicemen are shown entering a show to see "Saratoga Trunk," in a section recently taken from the Germans. The USO has been able to keep the shows moving to the front, as the troops advance into Germany.

Life-Saving U. S. Pilot Uniform

These pneumatic pants prevent U. S. fighter pilots from blacking out in aerial maneuvers by applying pressure to the pilot's abdomen and legs during a pullout or turn, preventing the blood from pooling in the lower extremities and aiding the heart to maintain circulation to the brain. They are inflated by lung power or by mechanical devices. Many civilian accidents as well as military resulted from blacking out. The new pneumatic pants will largely do away with the condition, often fatal in war as well as peace.

Camouflage Used Against Nazis

Sergeant Marvin C. Hans Jr. of Owensboro, Ky., demonstrates new snow cape being used by U. S. infantrymen battling Nazi winter offensive in Belgium. The one-piece cape, which ties in front, provides quick, easy camouflage for soldiers fighting on snow-covered ground. White rags around rifle give additional protection.

Sends Penicillin to Italy

Penicillium notatum molds are inspected and crated at St. John's university, Brooklyn, N. Y., preparatory to shipment to the U. S. medical corps in Italy. From this mold pure penicillin will be developed and extracted by our medical corps for the treatment of the war wounded on the various European fronts.

Man at Work—An Observer

Taking life as easy as possible under the circumstances, Corp. Louis C. Reggio of Washington, D. C., a radio operator at a forward artillery observation post in Rurdorf, Germany, sends back results to a 105-mm. Howitzer battery pounding a German command post on the other side of the Roer river opposite the Ninth army front.

Radio's New Chief

Paul Porter, above, publicity chairman for the Democratic national committee during the recent campaign, has been given an interim appointment by President Roosevelt as chairman of the Federal Communications commission.
