The following letter was recently received by the Page Red Cross, taking two Christmas packages to the Red Cross in the Southwest Pacific.

Somewhere in the Pacific, December 26, 1944.

Dear Friends:

"I am the lucky sailor who received your fine Christmas packages. The contents were certainly nice and useful. It gives the boys a lift to think of you fine folks back home thinking of us and working so hard. Thank you very much and I hope you all enjoyed Christmas as much as I did."

Sincerely,
 J. R. MacDonald,

 San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Minnie White, who had spent several days with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Finley, returned to her home in Page Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Finley and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christen spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirschmer.

Word was received here that Clifford Wiseman had suffered a broken leg. His father, Ernest Wiseman, was called to come to his bedside.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Snell drove to Stuart Saturday, where they visited in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lockmon, until Sunday evening. Mr. Lockmon is suffering from arthritis and is unable to be about much of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fairbanks and family visited Sunday in the home of Reid Reisinger near Venus.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Haynes drove to O'Neill Saturday and spent Saturday night and Sunday in the John Wells home.

Munson Stewart helped at the E. E. Allen filling station while Mr. Allen was confined at home with the flu.

Mrs. Harry Harper visited Monday afternoon in the home of her sister, Mrs. Allen Haynes.

On the first Friday of each month the patrons of District 138 have a get-together at the school house and enjoy a social evening of singing, visiting, and a program from the pupils, followed by luncheon. The next meeting will be February 9th, when a chili supper will be served.

Merle Brouse of Valentine visited from Saturday until Sunday evening with relatives here.

Mrs. George Wiseman was hostess to the HOA Club at the Harry Lampert home Thursday. Fifteen members were present. Mrs. Harold Summers was a guest. The hours were spent working for the hostess. At the business meeting the club voted to give a prize of $1.00 to any member of the club having a perfect attendance during the year. One new member, Mrs. Vernice Finley, was added to the club. Names were drawn for secret pals. Luncheon was served. The club will meet with Mrs. Edna Wood on January 16.

Mrs. Nora Rew of Jamesville, Iowa and Mrs. Nordyce Bruckette and little daughter, Patty Ann, of Osage, Wyo. left Saturday morning for Jamesville, Iowa, after visiting a week here with relatives.

Mrs. Rew is a cousin of Roy and Clint Townsend and a niece of Mrs. Ida Townsend. She lived at Page many years ago. She taught school in the rural district. Mrs. Bruckette is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunter. Her husband is reported missing over Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper and Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Snell spent Thursday evening at the Dave Bowen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and Miss Alma Jane Dailey visited Thursday evening with their aunt, Mrs. Nelle McIntosh. Miss Dailey is visiting in O'Neill but expects to leave for Portland, Ore., where she has employment.

Miss Mildred Haynes spent the week-end with Miss Hilda Harley at her home in Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McClure and Artha and Miss Virginia Wiseman were dinner guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coover.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork of Spencer are the parents of a daughter born Thursday morning in the Spencer hospital. They have another daughter and a son. Mr. and Mrs. Cork are former Page residents.

A daughter was born to CPO and Mrs. Virgil Stevens Saturday morning at the O'Neill Hospital. This is their first child. CPO Stevens is somewhere on the seas. Mrs. Stevens has made her home with Ralph Stevens for several months.

Pvt. Lynn Lamason and Pvt. Lester Wood left Sunday morning for the University of Wyoming to continue their schooling, after spending a short vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lamason and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood.

About thirty members of the Women's Society of Christian Service met in the church parlors Thursday for their regular meeting. Mrs. Kattner had charge of the devotionals and the lesson "The Open Door." Responses were read by several members. Mrs. Merwin French, the new president, had charge of the business meeting. The Society voted to pay $100 on the church budget. The luncheon was served by several of the new officers, namely: Mrs. Harold Heiss, Mrs. Merwin French, Mrs. Hal DeLancy, Mrs. Raymond Heiss, Miss Rose Vrooman, Mrs. Harold Kelly, and Mrs. Edgar Stauffer. The remaining officers will serve at a later date.

Roy Haynes delivered a load of cobs to Allen Haynes Friday.

The Weiss family, although many miles apart, managed to enjoy their Christmas dinner at the same table. Mrs. Weiss went from Portland, Ore. to Long Beach, Calif. to meet her daughters, Misses Verona and June Weiss, who had just finished nurses' training, and Mrs. Virginia Buzard, who lives there. An only son, Horton, whom the mother had not seen for two years and who is stationed at Camp Haan, River Side, and Mrs. Dean Richards, a very close friend of the family, drove to Long Beach to meet the rest of the family, where they all visited for several days. The Weiss family spent a number of years in this vicinity before going west.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin French and family had for their dinner guest Sunday, George French and Merle Brouse. In the afternoon they drove to O'Neill and visited in the Dr. O. W. French home.

Mrs. Melvin Carson was hostess to the Bid or Eye club Wednesday. Mrs. Robert Gray and Mrs. Harold Banta were guests. Mrs.

Cordes Walker won high score prize, Mrs. Ralph Larson the traveling, and Mrs. Robert Gray the low. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wegman and family were dinner guests Sunday evening in the Elsberry home east of Royal.
