Six Soil Conservation Plans Are Approved

Six more plans for complete soil conservation programs on farms in Holt County were approved by supervisors of the Holt Soil Conservation District at their monthly meeting last Friday.

These plans were with Theo and Orville Thorson, 12 miles north and two west of O'Neill; Hugo Holz, one mile north of O'Neill; Joe Wagon, six miles east and one mile north of Atkinson; G. Rzeszutowski, one-half mile south and one and one-half miles west of Emmet; M. E. VanDover, two and one-half miles east of Opportunity, and Matousek Bros., one mile south of Atkinson.

They include such practices as the seeding of gravelly sandy and wet land to adapted mixtures of native grasses for hay and pasture, planting trees for farmstead windbreaks and shelterbelts, planting three-row intervals, establishing grass in waterways and small ditches, contouring intermediate belts at 50 to 60 rod structing field diversions and terraces, farming on the contour, and seeding of bromegrass on soils where it is adapted. Some of these also include the use of the subsurface system of tillage whereby the soil is tilled and the crop residue is maintained on the surface as protection against blowing and water erosion.

The following applications for assistance from the district were received: John Babl, O'Neill; J. H. Patterson, Emmet; and Chester Miller, Lynch.

The district supervisors are endeavoring to secure seed of the various native grasses which will be mixed as recommended for the soils in each field. A number of farmers harvested good grama and other native grasses last fall and this is an opportunity for a local market. Purity tests are important on native grass seed and farmers are urged to buy and sell on the basis of these tests.

More information can be secured from one of the district supervisors, from the office in the courthouse annex basement, or from the county agent's office.

Seven Boy Scouts Get Badges at Court of Honor

Last Thursday night, January 25th, was a memorable one for seven members of the newly organized patrol of Boy Scout Troop No. 210. That night in the old high school auditorium in the presence of their parents and friends the seven attended the court of honor and officially became tenderfoot scouts.

The program was opened by singing "America," after which the following scouts: Allen Porter, George Miles, Jackie Gatz, Weldon Bruegman, Robert Holzclaw, Raymond Higgins and Guy Harris, were presented to the court of honor by Scoutmaster Harry Peterson and Assistant Scoutmaster Ed Hancock. The boys, together with their mothers, took places in front of the auditorium where tenderfoot badges were presented to the mothers who proudly pinned them on their sons. Keith Anspach had also earned his badge, but was not present on account of sickness.

A very fine and instructive talk was given by Elven A. Butterfield of Neligh, who has spent many years in scouting. Judge D. R. Mounst, district Boy Scout chairman, made a fine talk and Ray Shriver, president of the O'Neill Commercial Club, made a few appropriate remarks. William Griffin, commander of the American Legion Post here, was introduced.

Members of the two older patrols of Troop No. 210, in full uniform, were presented to the court of honor.

The local scouts plan to recognize National Boy Scout Week, February 8th to 15th, when the Boy Scouts of America celebrate the movement's 35th anniversary.

OPA VIOLATIONS COST $78,000 IN 1944
More than $78,000 was paid into the United States Treasury in 1944 as a result of enforcement steps taken against violators of OPA rationing, price ceiling, and rent control regulations in the Sioux City District of 29 counties in Iowa, Nebraska, and South Dakota.

The best investment in the world: United States war bonds.

OLD SETTLER DIES

The Amelia and Chambers communities were grieved to learn of the passing of one of Holt county old settlers, Duane Sammons, who died on January 25th at the Stuart hospital. Mr. Sammons was born at Groveland, Ill., on April 10, 1865. He moved to Holt county in 1885. On November 28, 1902, he was united in marriage to Marie Pierce. He is survived by his wife, one son Lee, and two daughters, Mrs. Blake Ott, and Mrs. Asa Watson. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Amelia, Saturday afternoon and burial was made at the Chambers cemetery.

The Chambers basketball team drove to Ewing Friday evening to play the Ewing team. The Chambers eighth grade team and the second team won their game but the first team lost to Ewing.

Rev. Dawson Park spent several days calling in the community.

The Valley Center Project Club held a meeting in the home of Mrs. Paul Roth Friday afternoon. Seventeen members were present. The lesson "Time Savers in Sewing" was presented by the leader, Mrs. Gaius Wintermote and Mrs. Charles Coolidge. If there is much sewing to be done more can be accomplished if time is planned so that work is not interrupted for several hours. A good light and the assembling of all equipment are important things in saving time. A pin cushion to slip over the wrist and an apron with many pockets to hold scissors, thread, needles, tape, thimble, etc., are also aids in sewing. After the lesson refreshments of sandwiches, gingerbread with whipped cream and coffee were served by the serving committee. The next meeting will be with Mrs. H. C. Walter.

Lt. Eula Wintermote came home Saturday from Martinsburg, West Virginia, where she has been stationed at the Newton D. Baker General Hospital. She is spending a week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wintermote, and other relatives before going to her new location in the O'Reilly General Hospital at Springfield, Mo. Lt. Wintermote visited Mrs. Ernest Staples, nee Alice Farrier and little daughter at Washington, D. C. on Sunday, January 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Walter and family visited in the Lape Lenz home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Louis Rothchild and children drove to Neligh Monday to have dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoffman and family had dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young.

Mrs. Alfred Maas underwent an operation at the hospital in Norfolk Saturday. Her condition is reported as good.

Sgt. Keith Newhouse is now in England.

Relatives here have received word that Max De Hart had joined the marines. Max is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred De Hart of Logan, Iowa, formerly of Chambers.

Mrs. Raymond Wickham of Amelia received a letter from her husband who is serving somewhere in the Philippines. He has been promoted from F2/C to F 1/C. The letter was received in one week from the time it was written.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter and family were dinner guests in the L. W. Taggart home Sunday.

Leslie Leiswald was taken to the O'Neill hospital Sunday for treatment.

Rev. and Mrs. Dallas Wadworth of Amelia are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy born to them Friday, January 26th at the Stuart hospital.

Mrs. Obermiller of Hyannes came Thursday to be with her sister, Mrs. Melvin Thorin and to attend the funeral Friday.

Lt. Thelma Kiltz, who has been stationed in England is now serving in a General Hospital in France.

HOUSEWIFE'S MEAT COOKERY GUIDE

Table with columns: COOKING METHODS, BEEF CUTS, VEAL CUTS, PORK CUTS, LAMB CUTS, VARIETY MEATS. Includes illustrations for Roasting, Broiling, Frying, Braising, and Simmering.

Preparation of meat for the table is one of the oldest of the household arts. Methods of meat cookery have been handed down from one generation to another.

Meat cookery studies have revealed that no matter what method is used, best results are obtained with a low temperature. Among the advantages of low temperature cookery are a decrease in cooking losses, more servings, and a more tender, juicier and more palatable meat dish.

The cuts of beef, veal, pork and lamb of the variety meats suitable for each method of cooking are listed in the table above.

Price and Ration Guide

The OPA has established a policy of definite dates on ration stamps with each series good roughly for four months.

As at present, a new series of red stamps for meat and dairy products and blue stamps for processed foods will be validated each month. Instead of being good indefinitely, however, they will expire after about 16 weeks.

Blue stamps—X5, Y5, Z5, A2, and B2, valid since December 1, good through March 31; C2, D2, E2, F2, and G2, valid since January 1, good through April 28; H2, J2, K2, L2, and M2, valid February 1, good through June 2.

Sugar Stamp—No. 34, valid since November 16, good through February 28; No. 35 valid February 1, good through June 2.

Red tokens are not affected by the new invalidation plan.
