Basketball Boys And Pep Club Given Banquet Friday Evening

The businessmen and women of Page sponsored a banquet in the Methodist Church parlors Friday evening honoring the basketball boys and their coach, Supt. Hurst, and the Pep Club girls and their sponsor, Miss Lela Garwood. About 130 plates were served. The tables were arranged to form of the letter H and were decorated in the basketball colors, black and gold. Yellow flowers in black vases and the trophies from the school were used for decorations. The centerpiece was a large basketball with a gold and black date 1945 above the ball. Gold and black streamers went from the big ball to smaller balls at the plates of the first team and their coach. Placecards were tied to the handles of the yellow nut baskets. The theme of the banquet was "Victory". The toastmaster was Alton Braddock. Others that gave toasts: V—Views on sidelines, Eva Lamason, I—Illusions, John Walker, C—Cheer, Pep Club song, T—Time out, Donald Heiss, O—Offense, Cordes Walker, R—Response, Supt. Hurst, Y—Yells, Jean Wood. The Pep Club leaders gave yells for the group after which the Superintendent showed the trophies of this year and the previous years and made known the whereabouts of the boys who helped win them in previous years. We find many are in the Army and Navy. Only three were present at the banquet: Melvin Haynes, Richard Trowbridge, and Donald Heiss.
