

Servicemen With Their Loyal and Strange Pets

Four mascots, upper left, of the Seventh Liberator squadron. They all joined the squadron when small pups. Lower left shows a sleeping G.I. with his two strange bedfellows, a monkey and a dog. Right shows a pet that has become as tame as any of the more domestic type of pets. Insert, a G.I. with his white mouse. Thousands of these pets will be returning to the U. S. with their masters when the war is over. Army officials say they have played a most important part in morale building among the servicemen.

General's Troops Came Back

With the departure of Gen. Douglas MacArthur from the Philippine theater of war, Lieut. Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright was left in charge of troops in besieged Bataan. He had formerly commanded the First U. S. cavalry. His old unit led in the recapture of Manila. It is believed that General Wainwright is a prisoner in Japan or Formosa. Photo was taken while General Wainwright was in the cavalry.

Rings Out Freedom

While Filipino residents of San Fabian cheer a passing American jeep, a small boy rings the ancient bell of the ruined municipal building. This building had been converted into a strongpoint by the Japs and as a result was the target of U. S. navy guns.

Hirohito Has Made Huge Personal Fortune by War

While the Japanese look upon their emperor as a god with no thought of earthly things such as money, Hirohito has made the greatest fortune in history since attacking China in 1937, says Collier's.

Through war profits and increased values of his personal holdings in every important enterprise in his empire, Hirohito has enlarged his wealth, according to an informed source, from about $1,600,000,000 to $6,000,000,000—and in that land in which the average wage of skilled workmen is still 80 sen (approximately 19 cents) a day.

When Your Back Hurts—

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par. It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood. You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder. There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

American Allies Fighting Behind Jap Lines

Led by American army, navy and marine officers and enlisted men, the Kachins, perennial hill people of Burma, are focusing their natural fighting talents on combating the Japanese behind enemy lines in Burma. Known as the American Kachin rangers, the Kachins have contributed greatly to the defeat of the Japs in Burma during the last two years. The activities, until recently, have been withheld.

Teacher's Double Triple Trouble

Two sets of triplets enrolled in the kindergarten of the Gardenville school in St. Louis. Left to right, Mary Ann, Camille and Emelie Heldmann, and Donald, Betty and Carol Teuteberg. The Heldmann triplets were born December 13, 1939, and the Teuteberg children on January 1, 1940. Their teacher will have her troubles in telling them apart.

U. S. Commissions King of Majuro

Rescue Wounded Over Deep Snow

American soldiers fighting on the Western front found that conveying wounded buddies over the snow-capped terrain was a problem until a ski-litter was constructed by Sgt. Waldren Bliss, foreground. Assisting Bliss, in rear, is S/Sgt. George W. Stafford of Petersburg, Va. Many lives were saved by the use of the ski-litter in this section.

G.I. Joe's Personal Biographer

Famed war correspondent Ernie Pyle, whose warm informal human-interest reporting of the war on African and European fronts earned him the title of G.I. Joe's personal biographer, is greeted by Capt. H. B. Miller, USN, left, and Capt. David S. Ingalls, center, as he arrives in Hawaii to begin a duty tour of the U. S. navy on the Pacific front.

What a Dog's Life

My Joey, whippet, resents the intrusion of the photographer into his privacy while he is being beautified. The manicure serves more than vanity in this case, it makes running more comfortable. This is only one of the trials of a whippet.

Water Buffaloes on Leyte Isle

Veteran signalmen of the Seventh division on Leyte give high praise to water buffaloes as pack animals, but have a serious grievance regarding other habits of these sturdy beasts. Herds, roaming freely in certain areas of the island, frequently disrupt communications by getting tangled in signal corps field wire, laid off roads to avoid tanks.

Dishes Made of Ice

Now that the women of America have learned to operate drills and chisels, they will be making their own ice bowls for salads and sea food dishes, as does Madeline Stone, above.

Gowns of the Gay 90s

Mrs. H. H. Worth, seated, and Mrs. Walter L. Allen display gowns, at a founder's day program of the Parent-Teacher association, which were worn at the first session of the national council in 1897.
