

A bicycle is a vehicle, and the operator of a bicycle is more a driver than a rider. He is subject to the same rules governing motorists.

Traffic signals and stop signs must be respected. Pedestrians have right-of-way on sidewalks and crosswalks. If operated at night, a bicycle must be equipped with a white light in front visible from at least 500 feet, and a red light or reflector must be visible 500 feet from the rear.

Memorial Service

Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal church a memorial service was held for Pvt. Richard C. Young who was killed in action in Italy nearly a year ago, May 23, 1944. Following was the order of service: The Prelude, by Archie E. Bowen.

The Call to Worship—Minister: "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me bless His Holy name. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits." People: Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies. Minister and People: What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits towards me? I will pay my vows unto the Lord, in the presence of His people. Let us bow before the Lord our Maker.

Invocation Prayer, followed by The Lord's Prayer in Unison. Congregational Hymn, O God, Our Help in Ages Past, No. 533. Old Testament Scripture, Psalm 46.

Choir Hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," by the Methodist Choir. New Testament Scripture, Rev. 21:1-4; 22:1-5.

Prayer, by Minister and the People. Let us pray:

Minister: O God, the Father in heaven, O God, the Son, and Redeemer of men, O God, the Holy Spirit, Comforter of Thy people, let Thy blessing be upon us. People: Grant us Thy peace, O Lord.

Minister: In communion with Thy people in all ages, with the Church of Christ in every land, with all who have passed into Thy holy presence, we offer to Thee adoration and praise. People: Grant us Thy peace, O Lord.

Minister: O Thou the Comforter of Thy people in whom is righteousness, joy, and peace; we plead for Thy forgiveness for the sin which has brought the suffering and anguish of this war upon us and upon all mankind. People: Grant us Thy peace, O Lord.

Minister: O God, our heavenly Father, who art leading us through the changes of time to the rest and blessedness of eternity, be Thou near to us, to comfort and uphold. Make us to know that Thy children are precious in Thy sight, that they live forever with Thee and that Thy mercy endureth forever. We are thankful for the life that Thou hast given us for a season, may we be trustful in Thee now that it has been taken away. O God, give us of Thy strength that we may take up our own lives bravely and seek to be more faithful in duty and more loving and helpful to others, for the sake of those who are with us no longer here on earth. And when the peace of death falls upon our troubled lives, may we find in Thy great mercy the perfect and unending fellowship of God; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

People: Grant us Thy peace, O Lord. Minister: O God of all strength and comfort, in whose hands are the living and the dead, we give Thee thanks for thy servants who have laid down their lives in the service of our country. Grateful for their sacrifices may we, and those who loved them best, be comforted in the knowledge of Thy unending love. We pray for our country, for all those in authority, especially our President, Cabinet, and Congress. We ask Thee to preserve our men from temptation and from danger to body and soul due to carelessness. Hear our prayer for the families, relatives, and friends of those who serve and suffer. For all chaplains, that they may be faithful ministers and ambassadors of Thy gospel. For all doctors, surgeons, and nurses, and for all who are ministers of Thy mercy.

We thank Thee for the ties that bind us one to another and for the dead who challenge us to courage. Guide us with thy unerring hand and grant us strength to do Thy will; the comfort of Thy presence and the ministry of the Holy Spirit, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen. Choir Hymn, "We cannot think of them as dead who walk with us no more," by the Choir.

Sermon: The World Needs a New Axis, by Rev. Dawson J. Park. Congregational Hymn, "My Country, 'tis of Thee," No. 489. The Benediction. The Recessional.

Pvt. Richard C. Young was born at Hornell, N. Y., March 11, 1925, and was killed in action May 23, 1944, on the Anzio beachhead in Italy, at the age of 19 years, 2 months, and 12 days. Richard lived in New York until, at the age of 18, he came with his parents to O'Neill, Nebraska, where he spent the remainder of his life until he was inducted into the U. S. Army. Richard attended the O'Neill public school two years and graduated from Atkinson high school with the class of '43, two months before being inducted into the Army. Richard was inducted into the Army July 5, 1943, at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, and from there was sent to Fort McClellan, Alabama, for basic infantry training. In December, 1943, he spent Christmas at home on a ten-day delay en route furlough and from here reported to Fort Meade, Md., port of embarkation.

He left Fort Meade in January, 1944, with the infantry and served on the Anzio beachhead, Italy, until his death. He served at the front 4 months. The last word received by his parents was written May 21, 1944, two days before his death.

The War Department notified his parents on July 3 that he was missing in action and then in February corrected this to killed in action. He leaves to mourn his passing: his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Young; two sisters, Dorothy and Mary, O'Neill; three brothers, Cpl. Edmund L. Young in the South Pacific, Sgt. Harold L. Young in England and Stanley at home; also, other relatives and friends.

A tribute to Richard from his brother:

In our mourning we have a right to be proud of Richard. He was all that a soldier should be; anyone sent to Anzio at that time was every bit a man and a soldier. He did more for his country in those few months than what many of us will have an opportunity to do in a lifetime. We pray that we who live through this war may live our lives worthy of the sacrifice he and many others have had to make.

The annual War Fund Drive was ended Saturday, March 31. Page and community, with a quota of $600, sent in a total of $1,147.13, nearly double the amount asked for.

Mrs. Leila Snell, 1945 Chairman of the drive, wishes to thank all who so freely contributed to this fund, and to thank and commend the ones who gave also of their time and efforts in soliciting and collecting for the fund.

We feel that we may be justly proud of the work that we are now doing at the Red Cross Sewing Room. Since January 1st we have made, filled and sent in 73 kit bags for service men, and have just completed 59 children's slips for refugees. We have set our goal at 25 lap quilts to be used in convalescent hospitals, and already have nearly half that number ready to send. With the hearty co-operation of the public we feel confident that the quota will be met in record time. We are just now starting on another quota of a gross of kit bags.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"When this war is all over, Judge, there will be some mighty interesting books written about it. Expect we'll learn a lot of things we didn't know before."

"Yes, Fred, when the record is finally written we'll realize what a gigantic operation this war really was and how important to final victory many factors really were."

"Take, for example, just one industry. Few people realize the importance of the great work done by the beverage distillers during the war. A high government official called it 'an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war.' He also said not so many months ago, while speaking about synthetic rubber, 'It is fair to regard the rubber manufactured to date as being almost solely the product of the beverage distilling industry. That's the type of thing I have in mind ... the way great American industries at home cooperated to help our brave fighting men abroad.'

"I see what you mean, Judge... a complete history of American teamwork."
