

Nazi Prisoners Work to Re-Build Wrecked Europe

German prisoners, both war and civilian, are put to work as punishment for infraction of Allied military government regulations. They are forced to clean up wrecked buildings and to build beds for returning troops and civilians. At the Citadelle of Port Louis, Lorient, France, they uncovered mass graves of French civilians murdered by Nazis. Picture shows (inset, upper left): German prisoners cleaning up a street in Kitzinger, Germany. Oval: Uncovering a mass grave. Center: An assembly line at Munich making beds.

853 Cadets Graduate From West Point

An overhead view showing some of the 853 cadets who graduated from the West Point military academy, as Lt. Gen. Barton K. Yount, commanding general, A.A.F.T.C., gives the graduates their wings. Dwight A. Riley of Athens, Ohio, was selected as honor man of the 1945 graduating class. Among the graduates was Cadet W. D. Clark, who received his diploma from the hand of Gen. Mark W. Clark, his father.

St. Louis Girl Sets Mail Record

Little Rose Marie Chostner, eight, of St. Louis, is surrounded with a part of the 8,000 pieces of mail sent her in just one week after she wrote in to Smiling Ed McConnell asking for at least one birthday card for her birthday.

14 'Beavers' on Coast Guard LST

Ahoy mate, fetch a lawnmower! These guys have been dodging the barber long enough. Serving aboard a coast-guard-manned LST, these 14 "beavers" took part in the assault on Okinawa. A rough and ready band, they carry their hobbies on their chins—the same kind of luxuriant foliage that Grandpa used to wear.

Takes Big Toll

The submarine Parche has sunk 4,500,000 tons of Jap shipping since the war began. Photo shows Lt. Comdr. W. M. McCory and lookout men as they stand at the conning tower of the Parche, flying its battle flag after its return to Pearl Harbor.

New Twirler

In windup action here is Dave Ferriss, sensational new pitcher of the Boston Red Sox, who has chalked up his sixth straight victory with a one-hit shutout.

"FOOLISH NOTION," by Philip Barry, is a play that's right up Hollywood's alley, partly because it would make a delightful picture, partly also because of its cast. Talullah Bankhead returned to Broadway in it after she had "Lifeboat" and "A Royal Scandal" to add to her screen career; Donald Cook is known to movie goers, as is Aubrey Mather. And Maria Manton makes her stage debut—she's the daughter of Marlene Dietrich. She's a big girl, prettier than her mother was when she arrived in this country, with a peaches-and-cream voice and an obvious talent for seductive roles. "Foolish Notion" could step onto the screen with its Broadway cast, successfully.

Of course we're used to those nicknames—"The Look," "The Beard," and all the rest of them. But Paramount certainly didn't look ahead when insuring Olivia de Havilland's chin for $100,000 because Ray Milland was to hit her on it in "The Well Groomed Bride." Because quick as a flash up came a name for Olivia—"The Jaw." Sounds more like something belonging to a prize fighter than a pretty girl.

In Hollywood, it's a nice gesture—Betty Hutton, between pictures, lent her stand-in, Barbara Cain, to Joan Caulfield, the young Broadway actress. Barbara, star of Broadway's "Kiss and Tell," was beginning her film career, in Paramount's "Miss Susie Slagle."

It looked as if Penny Singleton was doomed to play "Blondie" forever until Hunt Stromberg gave her a chance to escape in "Young Widow." She was a victim of typing, till he put her into this picture, in which Jane Russell and Louis Hayward are co-starred. Jean Hersholt ran into the same difficulty after he did "The Country Doctor"; Van Johnson escaped the fate of the "Dr. Kildare" series, thanks to the bobby socks. Basil Rathbone has to fight to avoid eternally playing Sherlock Holmes. Typing can make a Hollywood star, and ruin him.

Virginia Bruce goes brunette for her dual role in Republic's "Love, Honor and Goodbye." She's blonde for half the film, then dons a disguise as a brunette French maid to test her husband's fidelity. In private life Virginia's best tint is honey blonde.

Three years ago, after abandoning his job as vocalist for Harry James' band to get a start in films, Dick Haymes was broke and hungry. He got a job chauffeuring Chick Chandler to work at 20th Century-Fox. Now Chandler plays a columnist in "Kitten on the Keys" starring Dick Haymes and Maureen O'Hara, nearly breaks up their romance—and Haymes is slated to give his former employer a punch in the jaw!

That's a swell idea of Bob Burns'—in his home town of Canoga Park, where he's mayor, he's planting memorial trees for all residents killed while serving in the armed forces, with a plaque bearing the war hero's name attached to each tree.

That's a swell new radio show, "Detect and Collect," launched on CBS June 13 as summer replacement for "Which Is Which." In case you haven't heard it, Wendy Barrie and Fred Ullal give each contestant five clues to identify his surprise gift, and $25 if he guesses it the first time. Prizes decrease to $5, but the contestant gets the prize even if he never guesses what it is.

ODDS AND ENDS—The Andrews Sisters have been voted the most popular harmony group by the soldiers stationed in Ireland. . . . Now that John Garfield won't be drafted, Producer Carey Wilson is ready to start production on "The Postman Always Rings Twice," starring John and Lana Turner. . . . This time Paul Whiteman has scheduled a group of Gershwin tributes instead of just a one-time shot; he's chosen Joan Edwards as soloist for the series. . . . Jimmy Carroll was vocal pinch-hitter for five top singers before he landed his own commercial CBS series, "Jimmy Carroll Sings."

Danes Gain Representation at San Francisco

Twice Bombed Off Flagship

Vice Adm. M. A. Mitscher, commander of carrier task force 58, was twice bombed off his flagship by "suicide planes" of the Japs. Despite his close calls, Mitscher does not consider the Jap suicide planes a "serious threat to American success in the Pacific." Photo shows Admiral Mitscher as he spoke to press conference in Washington. With him is Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal.

War Crimes Conference in Session

Here is a view of the scene in the law court of London as the United Nations War Crimes conference opened. Great Britain's Justice Wright (standing in center background) is addressing the assembled United Nations delegates to the conference.

Generals Watch Front Line Action

Marine Maj. Gen. Lemuel Sheperd, holding walking stick, and Lieutenant General Buckner, center, watch front line action from an Okinawa ridge as their forces storm Naha, capital of the island. The conquest of this island, at frightful cost, possibly wound up the long and arduous strategy of "island hopping," which began with Guadalcanal in 1942.

'Up a Tree'

Five marine communicators are up a tree in an effort to further confuse a puzzled Okinawa native. The leatherneck linemen are (counterclockwise from upper left) Cpl. F. Clevenger, Cleveland, Tenn.; Cpl. Thomas J. Kranz, Toledo, Ohio; Pfc. Jerry Locke, Pryor, Okla.; Pfc. Henry Luebke, Belvue, Kans., and Cpl. John Jones, Ebsenburg, Pa.

Happy Jap

Arms folded across his bony chest, this skinny Jap prisoner was taken by infantrymen who captured Wawa dam on Luzon. He told his captors that he was kicked in the face by a Jap captain when he fell from exhaustion while carrying supplies. Shown with S/Sgt. Andrew Fedoris.

Iceman Is Here

Not even the iceman's domain is safe from the assaults of advancing womanhood. Here is Mrs. Ada Mansell of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Wins Opening Race

Jockey Bobby Permane presented this mud-caked face after he had won the opening race at Belmont Park, astride "Dusty." Bobby and mount weren't leading all the way.
