Those who desire to pay for this paper in potatoes or other produce are reminded that they can now do so.
Not the least of the attractions of our lively town are the beautiful signs that our business men are putting on their buildings. VanWinkle does it.
Between election matters and Fall matters we have to lay over half a dozen on our omnibus.
PAINTS at McNitt's.
Pure Linseed Oil at McNitt's.
Make for Harnessing, at McNitt's.
As usual we have an apology to make on account of delay behind time with this issue of the paper. It is obvious to all that there would be no paper issued for the next two or three weeks, or until we can get into our new office, but we will get out the paper in some shape each week.
Mr. HENNINGER has a beautiful specimen of white peach-blow potatoes, which he raises extensively. "Union Jack" is the reputation of being a superior, and we're going to give him a call. We'll see how he does!
NOTICE
It is hereby given, that books will be opened for receiving subscriptions to the Capital Stock of the Grand Island, Hastings & St. Louis Railway, at the office of the Mayor of Grand Island, Neb., at the office of the Hastings & St. Louis Railway, at Grand Island, Neb., and at the office of the St. Louis & Grand Island Railway, at St. Louis, Mo., on the 15th day of November, 1873, and continue open until the end of the year 1873, and continue open until the end of the year 1873.
On Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 23rd and 24th, the first County Fair in Webster County will take place. A full and complete program has been prepared which is partially published in another column. The idea of holding a Fair this fall did not take tangible shape until we saw the arrangements to be made for the fair. The fair will be a responsible one for a new county.
