A Representative and Champion of American Art Taste!
THE ALDINE,
THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA,
Issued Monthly.
"A MAGNIFICENT CONCEPTION, WONDERFULLY CARRIED OUT."
The necessity of a popular medium for the representation of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the want. The successive failures which invariably followed each attempt in this country to establish an art journal, did not prove the indifference of the people of America to the claims of high art. So soon as a proper appreciation of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with enthusiasm to its support, and the result was a great artistic and commercial triumph—THE ALDINE.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproachably—absolutely without competition in price or character. The producer of a complete volume can not duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times the cost; and then, there is the chromo, besides!

The national feature of THE ALDINE must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cosmopolitan. While THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself entirely to the reproduction of native art. Its mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative art taste, one that will discriminate only on grounds of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the patrons of THE ALDINE, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the most noted American artists, attention will always be given to specimens from foreign masters, giving its subscribers all the pleasure and instruction obtainable from home or foreign sources.

The artistic illustration of American scenery, original with THE ALDINE, is an important feature, and its magnificent plates are of a size more appropriate to the satisfactory treatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious integration of landscape, marine, figure, and animal subjects, sustain an unabated interest, impossible where the scope of the work confines the artist too closely to a single style of subject. The literature of THE ALDINE is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the artistic features, with only such technical disquisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.

PREMIUM FOR 1875.
Every subscriber for 1875 will receive a beautiful portrait in oil colors, of the same noble dog whose picture in a former issue attracted so much attention.
"MAN'S UNSELFISH FRIEND"

will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed in true to life, that it evokes the recollection of the animal itself. The Rev. T. De Witt Talmage tells that his own Newfoundland dog (the finest in Brooklyn) barks at it! Although so natural, no one who sees this premium chromo will have the slightest fear of being bitten.
Besides the chromo, every advance subscriber to THE ALDINE for 1875 is constituted a member, and entitled to all the privileges of Aldine Art Union.

The Union owns the originals of all THE ALDINE pictures, which, with other paintings and engravings, are to be distributed among the members. To every series of 3,000 subscribers, 100 different pieces, valued at over $2,500 are distributed as soon as the series is full, and the awards of each series as made, are to be published in the next succeeding issue of THE ALDINE. This feature only applies to subscribers who pay to one year in advance. Full particulars in circular sent on application enclosing a stamp

One Subscription, entitling to THE ALDINE one year, the Chromo and the Art Union.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER
For nineteen years this Great Literary Paper has been a welcome visitor at our fireside; and in all that period not one sentence, line or word, has appeared in its columns to which serious objection could be found. Of a uniformly high moral tone, it inculcates a taste for reading, and its young readers intuitively learn to abhor vice, and to love all that is beautiful and true. Filled each week with the choicest Poems, Stories, Sketches, News Items, &c., it is sure to become indispensable to every family in which it finds its way. Mr. Bonner promises to make it better than ever for 1875, and what he promises he more than fulfills. For specimen copy address; Robert Bonner New York.

St. Nicholas for 1874.
A Book for Boys and Girls.
Of this book Charles Dudley Warner writes: "In the bound volume of St. Nicholas with its glory of red and gold, we have a permanent addition to the literature of the young. Never before has so much literary and artistic talent co-operated in the service of children. It is a continual educator of their taste and of their honor and courage. I do not see how it can be made any better, and if the children don't like it, I think it is time to begin to change the kind of children in this country."
St. Nicholas for 1875.
The prospectus of the second volume shows that there is to be no falling off, but an increase in its literary and pictorial attractions. Among the other attractive features are
Two Splendid Serial Stories,
"The Young Surveyor"
by J. T. FROTHINGHAM, author of the Jack Hazard Stories, etc.
"EIGHT COUSINS"
by LOUISA M. ALCOCK, author of "Little Women," etc.
The peculiar features of St. Nicholas, which have endeared it largely to its popularity, will be kept up with spirit. Short and easy stories in FRENCH, GERMAN, AND SPANISH for translation will appear occasionally, while, such as the "Mistletoe" will continue to be full of interest and the department for every young reader will be enlarged.
Royal Taylor and other distinguished travelers will give Stories of Foreign Countries.
Mr. Reiding will continue his series of delightful and instructive Papers on Practical Subjects.
Mr. Bartlett and others will attend to the department of Home Entertainments, Tableaux, Vivants, etc.
New writers, in addition to our present large corps of contributors, will give young people of all ages, Poems, Jingles, Stories, Sketches, and Papers on History, Geography, Travel, Adventure, Natural History, Out-door and In-door Sports, &c., &c., with a hearty sprinkling of fun throughout the volume.
