—That youngish man up in Inavale better learn to distinguish mittens from stockings before he goes calling on those Young Ladies again.

—The spelling school last Tuesday night waked up some good spellers. This village has its proportion of worshippers at the shrine of Orthography and Miss Carrie Beal takes the lead.

—Rufus Miksch has put Kale's old building into good shape for a harness shop. Rufus works well and works cheap and is always ready and willing.

—Col. Marsh and H. A. McMeans of Beatrice stopped in town Tuesday. They were on their way back, having been up the Valley as far as Beaver City. They report the railroad prospects as good. The people up the river are very enthusiastic on the subject and disposed to do their utmost to secure some means of transportation.

—We received a communication from Bloomington last Tuesday the 7th inst., stating that a railroad meeting had taken place at Bloomington and measures adopted to secure a general conference of the citizens of the valley. A Representative meeting was called for the eighth at Bloomington. Delegates were to be chosen from all the river counties. Notices were sent to the various towns along the river. We regret that our notice came so late as to render it impossible for this county to be represented.

—George Zeiss has recently received a large assortment of candies and nice tins for Christmas.

—Small favors thankfully received. But that isn't the case with those cigars that Chas. Potter lade us sample the other evening, for they were a rare treat. Go try them, boys.

—Look at the change in J. G. Potter's ad. J. G. means business, and starts out with the "removal of our business county."

—The latest sensation "a man who paid his subscription in advance."

—T. T. Webb has again assumed the drivership on his mail line and will attend to all business entrusted to him in a prompt manner.

—A good investment, is that plug tobacco at J. G. Potters, which contains silver. So says the boys.

—Fine pleasant weather is what we are enjoying at present. While in the east they report snow storms, and the thermometer at 20° and 25° below zero.

—The Republic Magazine for December has been received. It contains an analysis of the Ohio election, a review of the campaign of 1875, an able article on labor in Europe and America, and other articles of equal interest to those who are interested in Governmental affairs. This sterling monthly is a power in the land, and should be in the hands of every intelligent citizen. Subscription, only $2 per year. Send address to Republic Publishing Company, Washington, D. C.

—L. C. Olmstead, and Geo. W. DeLong called yesterday.

—Not long ago there was a man in these parts who owned a shot gun, and such a he took a great pride in it, as it afforded him so much fun at certain times. We learn that he has recently disposed of it, for his principal "game" has ceased its range around his domains. Boys look out or he'll get another gun.

—That "birth-making prodigy" has at last left us, and we learn he has concluded to back in the beautiful sunshine of Missouri for a few days.

—Mr. Hubble of Hastings, was in town Wednesday night.

—Immigration is on the increase, several outfits pass through this place almost every day.

—The Bridge across Elm Creek is completed and is a credit to the build or and an ornament to the country.

—We noticed quite a number of strangers at the La Glade House Tuesday evening, which shows "Hank" is doing a lively business, even if the times are dull.

—New Honey Locust Seed, choice quality, gathered in the fall of 1875; for sale by H. McCormick,
 17 3/4 Brownville, Neb.

DIED.
 At her residence four miles north of Red Cloud, Sunday, Dec. 5th, 1875, Mrs. LUCINDA MCUNE, wife of Mr. R. L. McUNE, aged 83 years.

—Joo. Berenzen has his new house nearly completed which will be quite an ornament to Germantown.

—We are in receipt of a copy of the Merry Musker, a large eight-page, fully illustrated comic newspaper, published by Collin & Small, New York City. Subscription price only one dollar per year.

—A son of W. H. Laddow had quite a narrow escape one day this week. While in the act of shooting off a gun it burst and totally rent the barrel and stock, but caused no further injury more than to slightly burn his face.

—Christmas will soon be here, and the question is being asked what's going on in Red Cloud on that day. We understand there is going to be a ball in the "High Order." Who knows?

Arrangements for the Centennial.
 The Exhibition will be opened on May 10th, 1876 and remain open every day, except Sunday, until November 10th. There will be a fixed price of 50 cents for admission to all the buildings and grounds.
