

LITTLE NELL.

My little Nell! 'Tis she the child!
Yes, John, you have a home;
I've been a scoldin' all along
To use this four corner...

The Future of America.

Extract From Professor Huxley's Address
at the Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore.

I have often been struck in England with the charm which Americans seem to feel in visiting those ancient cities
of ours or climbing the battlements...

to Oxford, to Paris, and to Bologna.
[Applause.] Permit me to fancy that among the English part of that population
there may linger a dim tradition...

Indian Treaties and the Mormons in Iowa.

From the Centennial Address of Hon. C. C.
Norris.
At the close of the Blackhawk war,
the Winnebago Indians ceded to the United States their lands in Wisconsin...

By treaty of 1829, the United States had also obtained a cession of the southwestern part of Iowa as a reservation for the Pottawattamie Indians. In June, 1836, this reservation was relinquished...

A Dream Fulfilled.

The Rev. E. C. Ewing, in the Congregationalist, says: Near the opening of the war for the Union, a gentleman of Hillsdale county, Michigan, received appointment as an officer in the United States Army...

Finally, in the spring of 1865, after the assassination of Mr. Lincoln, and when the body of the martyred President was carried through the country...

Barbed Fences—Robert Ford, Newton, Iowa. Four pointed barb, striken with a case of Ericsson's Harness Oil...

Writing Desks—J. J. Keys and H. J. Taylor, Tecumseh, Neb.
Marble Polishing Machines—David
C. Myers, Okaloosa, Iowa...

Chain Pumps—A. J. Purviance, Keokuk, Iowa. The small central valve serves both as a valve and a pivot...

Plating Machines—John Robinson
and Eugene W. Silsby, Ottumwa, Iowa.

A Lucky Veteran.

A Good Thing for Him That He Stormed
Stony Point.
Years ago, Charles M. Lee was a great lawyer in Rochester, New York.
On one occasion he was defending an old veteran for passing a forged prom-issory note for thirty dollars...

Chance is a term we apply to events to denote that they happen without any necessary or foreknown cause. When we say a thing happens by chance, we mean no more than that its cause is unknown to us...
