Our up the river friends seem to be a little disengaged in regard to their representative. This man Valentine is the regular nominee, but besides him there are several others, abolitionists and independents, who expect to make a lively contest.

Gov. Chapman has made it plain that he will support his own nominees and then turn to the general government for assistance.

It is now upon everybody that S. J. Tilden is to be the government's candidate from $100,000 to $250,000 on account of unpaid income tax. He may then be in need of it.

Mr. Blair is always on the alert and is never caught napping. His last exposure of Dan's Francis will make even honest men blanch for the credit of the once illustrious A. J. and sons.

HASTINGS Oct. 31 1856.

ED. CHIEF. — To present your people from being deceived by the Journal of Hastings I write to inform you that Mr. McIntyre is not the popular man that the Advertiser newspaper would make out, and to also state that many if not a majority of the voters will heartily support the nominees of the Senatorial Convention. Mr. Gilham. The intelligent and well posted of our people recognize Mr. Gilham as a representative man, knowing him to be a fine schol. A good lawyer, a true gentleman and one in whom they can repose great confidence. Mr. McIntyre cannot be truthfully accused of possessing any of these qualifications. By those who know him best, he is looked upon as the worst example of an unscrupulous wire-puller and political thimble-snatcher. No honest man can look upon his course in the senatorial convention without blushing at his treachery. He is considered the prime mover in the scheme to divide the convention and lost for his office-seeking predilections, there would have been perfect harmony in the District. As a politician he is reported to be slippery, and people are apprehensive that he is not what he tries to appear. We see in his past and present conduct enough of the shyster statesman to convince us that he is not the man to represent the good and sensible people of this District. His vacillation is apparent to the most casual observer. "Mac" is known to be all things to all men for the sake of office. He did not try to "bol" the people in certain quarters by crying down Hitchcock, for posted people feel that he is a Hitchcock man when in company with the Senators friends and even though declining against him he will go back on all his declarations if paid for it. That is the way he is looked upon by hundreds here. A friend to political corruptionists and monopolists, he cannot deceive his neighbors in this county. The bolster McIntyre may get a good many votes in Adams County by reason of being the head man in the Ring of office-busters and by the county-seat fight, but he could not get 100 votes if the people were properly informed of the state of affairs. Adams County's honest Advertiser will go hand in hand with these Webster, Nuckols and Hayes in voting for Mr. Gilham, and not for the man who was hissed at Fremont and Lincoln for his ungentlemanly conduct and bad language. The man who will not locate here unless he goes to a high office, and the man who seeks to divide the county and electoral District, that he may get a seat.
