LOCALS.

Take the CHIEF.

Subscribe for the CHIEF and pay in advance.

We want a dozen cords of wood on subscription. Also a few onions.

And we might be induced to accept of a few Greenbacks.

Was it cold last Saturday night, Rufus? We understand you gallantly sailed forth on the streets, clad in the habiliments of nature (almost) to stop a runaway team.

Larry Purvis, ("Curly"), has returned to his old home, and is reinstated in the Citizen's column.

The affairs of this office have at last been arranged satisfactorily to us, and we hope in will prove satisfactory to the people generally. Mr. Marchant, head of the job department, the being master of the business, will will hope give satisfaction. "Curly" is the "boss" compositor, and understand his biz. Will Wiggins will continue to be the "deed" of the office. While we will use the pen and seismos, especially the seismos.

Wiggins and Alon have quit hand nss. Mr. Wiggins has retired to his home, Fred, is master for the Law Code.

G. W. Rice has induced a number of energetic young farmers to settle in his neighborhood, where they have purchased some choice rainfall land.

Guide Rock has been disappointed in its hopes of immediately obtaining a bridge.

Geo. Z. has rented the old billiard hall, and will make a temperature hall of a genius.

P. A. Williams & Co., of Riverton, have the largest stock of Drags and Family Medicines in South western Nebraska, and by sticking to their motto are receiving a large trade. See their ad in our column.

Monday and Tuesday were bracing and invigorating days. Hoops of oxy gen in the air.

Hampton & Dalton have begun to work on their new blacksmith and wheelwright shop in earnest. When completed it will be a larger building than Sheep's.

Messrs Hooper & Moore from Hastings are building a store on the Blue just north of the farm of W. B. Thorne.

Dr. Hawley of Oak Creek was in town last week and called upon us. The Doctor has worked up an extensive and lucrative practice in the north part of Webster and the south of Adams.

Good Sorghum 50 cents per gallon at C. H. Potter's. 16-28

A. Hoffman & Co. are still doing a lively and profitable business in their store on the Blue.

I have good oats and tobacco 21- so Drugs of all kinds. 16-28 C. H. Potter.

J. D. Pitt informed us a few days ago that he has the largest barn west of Joe Warner's, and is prepared to accommodate the Freighters and others who may call.

J. A. Tulley was on the move last Friday, and is now established in his new home on the west side. He intends to make extensive improvements and additions to his house, which will render it a neat and attractive residence.

L. D. Thomas of Rubin called Tuesday. He reports everything flourishing up there. Farmers most diligent gathering corn, the yield is good. He started out a few days to visit friends in Cass Co., Neb., and Iowa, and then it is probable that he will return to the two relating to the construction of U. S. dams, the logs will join hands and slide to the left to see the sport.

Mr. Thompson's new printer is now in operation. He traces out prints and also regular business. 16-28

We learn that Mr. Thompson, a widow lady residing on Willow Creek, died Thursday and Saturday, 7 p.m.

16-28

We have had some of the coldest weather during the fore part of this week, that we have experienced this fall.

Messrs. Bentley and Clark from Jewell have rented the Baldwin house in the Northern part of the town. They contemplate going into the stock business in the spring. They are both men of means and first rate business ability, and will prove valuable acquisitions to the town.

Bound's new ad. on this page speaks for itself. He means business and will do just what he says.

Timothy Taylor Webb, the general federal officer who transports the mail from Hastings to this place three times a week, has conceived the project of building him a dwelling house in the north part of the town. Webb is tired of renting.

Charles and Frank Buschow have got a large part of their extensive farm in Potash plowed, ready for spring sowing. They have one of the best improved farms in the county and have over two hundred acres under cultivation.

Larry Purvis, ("Curly"), has returned to his old home, and is reinstated in the Citizen's column.

The citizens of this office have at last been arranged satisfactorily to us, and we hope in will prove satisfactory to the people generally. Mr. Marchant, head of the job department, the being master of the business, will will hope give satisfaction. "Curly" is the "boss" compositor, and understand his biz. There is an independent and lively mail carrier who stops at Red Cloud semi-weekly, who has a dashing and breezy way of dealing with men. He may possibly say a word or two to the sheriff men, if he is not careful, and then it is probable that he will return to the two relating to the construction of U. S. dams, the logs will join hands and slide to the left to see the sport.

W. E. Coyle of Harmony is putting him a cozy residence on his new farm south of the Blue.

He is a present and successful farmer, a native of New England, and spans all the culture in general and its importance.

Mr. Thompson of Superior, left Red Cloud after an absence of two weeks, and was here last Friday. Mr. Thompson was one of the leaders of the "Swing" and had won the respect and affection of all his neighbors by a life of earnest, patriotic and unselfish service to his country. His health is failing rapidly, however, and he is now confined to his bed.
