Prepare your fireguards, and look out for prairie fires.

For School Books of all kinds, go to C. H. Potter's.

The proceedings of the District Court are entirely too long for publication in these columns.

This county is in debt thousands of dollars for bridges, and we have yet to learn of a bridge that is considered safe.

Owing to the press of job work for the last few days, we are unable to give the usual amount of reading matter this week.

The onion that hangs in the Chief office is an object of wonder to many of our visitors. It weighs 2 1/2 lbs. and was grown by Mr. Holsworth, north of town.

Post is building an addition to his house, and intends also to add to his barn, as he has not near enough room to accommodate the freighters who stop with him.

The Peace Commission that was sent to treat with Sitting Bull met with a cool reception. The old red cuss simply told the commission that they might go to H—H.

Citizens of Red Cloud be careful about throwing out ashes if there is any fire in them, the grass is dry and there is plenty of it in town, and a fire would be unmanageable if it should get started.

NOTICE.

All notes in my possession, that are due, must be paid within ten days, or costs will be added. A word to the wise etc.

M. L. Thomas.

We have waited for some one who was owing us, to bring in some wood, but nary wood have we seen. Now if you will bring us a little wood—just a little—we will pay you the cash for it (if we can borrow the money of anybody.)

We are told that another row occurred last week, down at the corner saloon, the parties engaged in the fracas being residents of Kansas. These rows are becoming a nuisance to the lawless characters who delight in drunken frolics, and night revels, disturbing peaceably disposed citizens, and bringing the town into disrepute.

NEBRASKA S. S. ASSOCIATION. STATISTICAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE. Fremont, Neb. Oct. 22, 1877.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held in Omaha, the 13th inst, it was "Resolved; that all Sunday Schools in the State be requested to take up a collection for State S. S. work on the third Sunday in November (November 18, 1877.) and the Statistical Secretary requested to give notice of the resolutions to the schools of the State."

The several branches of our State work call earnestly for help. Over thirty counties have no organization. A dozen of these could be wisely organized, at once, if we had the means. We need blanks and other material for collecting our annual. The International Convention at Atlanta, Georgia, in April next, expect a full report from each State in the fall. Help us to give Nebraska no mean record.

Send all funds to your County Secretary or the State S. S. Treasurer, H. B. Gilbert, Kearney, Buffalo Co. Nebraska, either of whom will give receipts.

Please use diligence in having this collection generally observed, and may the Master prosper our cause.

I. P. Gage, Statistical Sec.
