PRACRIMOS OF MISTORY. BY SEY, J. M. PRYSE.

To enable us to conceive clearly of absets existing or operations or processes transpiring in a sphere above or beyond pany pays one fourth of the taxation this cosmic system, they must be presented to us under the roll of things will of which the county pare to the which we call natural and providential, a they must be set forth through the medium and under the gains of certain analogies in nature and providence.

In his purpose tind had events or facts to be evalved in the future workings of is all the tax we pay to the railroad. His providence facts and vertities based A man having taxable property to the thereupon to reveal to the minds of men amount of $500 00 would here bet which were above the range of nature fully cours per year secording to the and the ordinary course of providence- argument of one who is opposed tooth facts and verities fitted to uplift the land too nail to the railroad. Out of this nation again Gud called a man, a single individual, who had under gone the arrangest vicimitudes of fortune in buman history born a slave, doomed to death in his childhood, from which he was rescued by the daughter of the tyrant a single railroad town that does not who had doomed him, became her adopted son and heir-apparent to his throne. educated in all the lore of the Kayptians, once more a fugitive in a strange land, of of whose prince he became the sen-in-law -oll conspiring to fit him for the lifework to which he was called.

This man, God made the instrument the most marvellous deliverance of a nation from galling bondage recorded in the angula of the human race, a deliverance signalized by a series of public superpotural interporitions through which it was wrought, and which had the effect not only of coaringing their minds of the Saprome Deity of the Chief Author of their redeseption, but of wineing their hearts, by appealing at ours to their self-interest as well as their gratitude.

Who are the men to whom sail inter set would dictate a segutive rote on the

Mr. Ed. Dear etc. we are all ab through coving small grain in this part of the county, and emily to play port of the county, and res There has been a greet de but very little outs and barter, th here. Everything moves along to a pre-perous sendition and so that oncouraged to go so in this line so se rether appear by another year we will have a mill road and we went be obliged to back our grain 50 miles market, has will have a good most at Red Cloud for our excels grain and regulables &c.

This has always been a great depo-least to our forming it always takes to long to bool our grain to merhot.

If I have diff head, of wheel to market and my I have 40, buck perlead and it takes we just 10 days to one trip to Bastings, that would take 25 days to had my wheat so market. Now if I were to had it to Hed Cloud is would just take me 5 days, leavi me 10 days to work at come and sould sare at least $2.00 per day leaving one a balance in my favor of $60.00 and that will pay all the fax as my property for two or three years. And I say I san for a real read I am looking to my own interest not to the interest of the B. & M. R. R.
