

RED CLOUD CHIEF

Born—July 23d to Mrs. Rev. Maxwell, a daughter. All happy.

Died—on Sunday, July 21st an infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward. Age, fifteen months.

Tuesday we were down at the mill and called on Chas. Potter, who "keeps store" down there. On entering we found a much larger stock than we had expected. Mr. P. has about 1000 pounds of packed butter in his cellar. He says trade is very good.

Potter & Frishie are as busy as ever and have made a number of improvements within a short time. They are now building an addition to their mill.

The blacksmith is busy and cheery.

The river has subsided and is now as quiet as a lamb.

OUR DRIVE YARDS.

For some time we have been inclined to speak of our brick yard, but in view of business, have neglected it. They have supplied our town and vicinity for some time and merit mention.

Ed. Smith turned a kiln of between seventy and eighty thousand recently and is now busy engaged in taking them down and selling. They are of good quality and are sold at reasonable price.

W. H. Lindell turned two large kilns of brick about six weeks ago and is selling them out quite rapidly. His brick also are of good quality.

Both of these gentlemen are full of Nebraska enterprise and no doubt would have advertised it if they long ago had they not neglected it.

It seems that thus far the trustees of the cemetery association have had bad luck in securing a piece of ground for burial purposes. It is that with the land now about too that a small piece of ten acres could be purchased at a price low enough to enable the association to obtain it.

But such is not the case thus far, and if we have to go to the sand bars of the river for a burial ground, we shall not need much of an association.

We hope that something can be done soon to secure so desirable an end. [a good cemetery, we mean]

J. A. Tulleys, our county clerk, has just returned from a tour through the counties south of us in Kansas. He reports Beloit as a lively place, and with one railroad graded, ready for the men to be laid to that place.

A Mr. Harrington from near Syracuse, N. Y., was in town yesterday.

He thinks of investing in this county or Nuckolls, and bringing in fine blooded stock consisting of cattle and horses.

Geo. Dorsey, receiver of the Bloomington land office was in town with his family last Sunday. Mr. Hubb of the general land office accompanied him.

C. H. Potter intends to build a store building on the corner north of the courthouse, which is to be occupied by Johnson and Gregg's of Madison, Iowa, who intends locating here and starting in the mercantile business.

Hope, the Jeweler, beguiles our weary hours discoursing sweet music.

He makes that little organ we have for sale just talk. Hope, you will come up every day Sir.

The new restaurant, hardware store, barber shop, printing office, milliner shop, lumber shed, church and three or four new dwelling houses are about ready for their respective uses.

Butter taken on subscription, eggs taken on subscription, potatoes taken on subscription vegetables taken on subscription at market price.

The brick for the courthouse foundation has been procured and the building will be up in a short time as the work of framing has been almost completed.

Mr. McShane of Omaha has rented Farn & Jacobs' basement and will start at once in the wholesale butter and egg trade.

THIS IS FOR EVERY FAMILY.

No Western family can afford for a day to be without the Celebrated Western Remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera Mortis, and Cholera Infantum, Brown's Extract Blackberry and Ginger. It has been before the public for ten years, and doctors and druggists join in recommending it to their customers and patrons.

Ask your druggist about its merits; procure a bottle at once and save sickness, the expense of a physician and the life of some loved one of the family. "Delays are dangerous."

HARVEST DANCE.

The citizens of Red Cloud and vicinity are respectively invited to attend the Harvest Dance at the new Opera Hall on Wednesday eve. July 31, 1878. The best of music furnished. Tickets one dollar.

JOE JACOBS, Floor Manager.

—Friend Ewing had quite an experience recently. He was cutting grain for Mr. Holsworth, and finding the machine quite heavy for his horses they were promoted to leaders while Mr. H.'s oxen were put on for wheelers. The oxen ran away with the machine and running over the horses caused quite an excitement for a few minutes. No damage was done however except to the machine.

SUICIDE!

A Man Deliberately Hangs Himself.

On the night of the 13 inst. a sad and unfortunate affair took place in the northern part of our country. It appears that Mr. August Toboh, with his two sons were living together, to use a familiar term "hacking." They were peaceable, quiet, respectable citizens, and had no claims and a large crop out this season.

But on the night above mentioned they talked together until nine o'clock when they all went to bed as usual.

After all was quiet, Thomas, one of the sons, awoke about twenty eight, got up, took his bed into an out house, secured a piece of rope, made a noose with it, but finding it too short for his purpose, threw it down and got another longer one.

He then went to the corn crib which is quite high, throwing the rope over a timber log that projects by the end of the crib tied it, and putting a noose his head, flung himself down and his body swung between the heavens and the earth dying dead, with no comforting word, nothing but the dark mess around him.

His father and brother not missing him until daylight, when the father went out and found him hanging.

Mr. Toboh had been despondent for several months, and even threatening to take his own life. Coroner Sherer held an inquest over the body and the result of the inquisition was that he came to his death by hanging himself committed in a fit of despondency of the mind.

—Dr. Butler made a pleasant call this morning. John Saxon, who accompanied him to this town, returned yesterday this morning. Dr. B.—
